BARBARA TO WED HORSE OPERA STAR

Hollywood, June 6.—(AP)—Barbara Bennett of the altar-visiting Richard Bennett family, is en route to Mexico to wed Addison (Jack) Randall, western film star, only three days after being freed from Morton Downey.

Miss Bennett said she and Cowboy Jack would be married "as soon as we reach Mexico" but did not say at what town. They left last night.

Downey, to whom Barbara was married 11 years and who failed in repeated attempts at a reconciliation last winter, divorced Miss Bennett in Connecticut the first of the week. He was awarded custody of their five children.

Barbara's marriage to Randall will be her second. Sister Constance has been married four times; sister Joan twice and Father Richard twice.
