

RALPH M. SPENCER TAKEN BY DEATH

Ralph Milton Spencer, of 419 Newtown street, a resident of Medford for the past 14 years, passed away Thursday at 10:30 p. m., after several months' illness.

Mr. Spencer was born in Marquette, Mich., Sept. 13, 1872. When quite young he moved with his parents to Nebraska, where they lived for several years, moving from there to Wyoming, and later to Mount Shasta City, Calif., where he met Miss Clara Baldwin. They were united in marriage in 1897. He and Mrs. Spencer were in the hotel business in McCloud, Cal., for seven years before moving to Medford.

He is survived by his wife, three sisters and one brother. Funeral services will be conducted from the Perl funeral home Monday at 2 p. m. Rev. Sherman L. Divine, pastor of the First Presbyterian church officiating. Interment will take place in Siskiyou Memorial Park.

Births

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Don J. Elliot, route 3 Medford, a boy weighing 10 pounds in Sacred Heart hospital Tuesday, June 3.

Invites You to Hear

REV. J. MAXEY WALTON

Late from South America. A very forceful preacher of the old time Wesley and Fox type of ministry. The kind and need for the hour which stirs the soul.

Services begin Sunday morning at 11:00 and continue through night of next week at 7:45 P. M. Special music. To hear him is to desire to come again.

Sponsored by the local church, Rev. C. Edwin Cox, Pastor. Phone 4692.

of P. hall. All new members are requested to attend. A program and business meeting have been arranged.

Passes Moving Day

Halifax (U.P.)—May Day, traditional moving date for many thousands of North American home renters, found few followers here this year. With the city overcrowded with wartime residents, tenants wisely stayed put. It is difficult to find a single room to live in; much harder to locate a flat or apartment.
