

SWIMMING CLASS UNDER RED CROSS TO OPEN JULY 7

The annual swimming and life-saving campaign sponsored by the Jackson County Red Cross will open July 7 according to a report given at the Red Cross executive board monthly luncheon meeting held yesterday at Hotel Medford.

Classes will be held two weeks in Medford and two weeks in Ashland under an instructor from Red Cross headquarters with the assistance of Miss Marjorie Kelly, Miss Frances Arnsperger will be Jackson county delegate to the First Aid aquatic school held June 15 to 25 at Four Seasons Lodge, Beaver Lake, Issaquah, Wash.

C. C. Haggard, recently appointed chairman for first aid in Jackson county, has organized several first aid classes. One at Gold Hill has 33 enrolled and is under the direction of J. B. Michan meeting Mondays and Thursdays at the city hall. The standard course includes 30 hours of instruction and it is necessary for students to attend 80 per cent of the schedule in order to receive their certificates. Another class is held at Rogue River, the report stated.

Mrs. A. S. V. Carpenter reported on the Home Service committee which will meet at the Red Cross rooms tomorrow at 1:15 p. m. This committee's activities include contact relations between men in service and their families.

CROSS RUNWAY PAVING STARTED

Base paving of the cross runway of Medford municipal airport from the east end to the main runway was begun today. The strip to be paved is 150 feet wide and 1350 feet long.

Base paving of the main runway for its entire length of 5500 feet and half of the 200-foot width to be paved was completed yesterday. The paved section of the main runway will be ready for use in a week or so, Fred W. Scheffel, city superintendent said.

The city yesterday sent for review to the civil aeronautics administration's office in Seattle, Wash., plans for the construction of parallel runways at the airport, Mr. Scheffel said. This is another phase in the "ultimate development" plan for the airport.

ELKS AND GUESTS ENJOY PICNIC AND CCC RING BATTLES

Some 300 Medford Elks and their guests, undaunted by a fine drizzle of rain that fell late in the afternoon, but vanished during the evening, gathered on the banks of the Rogue River yesterday and last night to enjoy their annual picnic.

Featuring the affair was the delicious dinner of barbecued meat and Italian spaghetti prepared by Shy Morland and Tony Boltano, and 18 rounds of fighting by CCC mitt-lingers. The picnic, starting during the afternoon, lasted into the small hours of the morning and it was the consensus that it was one of the best yet held. Free beer was served with the dinner, the Elks band blared forth with several snappy numbers, and there were various and sundry games for additional entertainment.

Although there were no knockouts on the fight program, the cheering Elks got their money's worth of slam-bang scrapping. Sepulveda, 151, of Camp Bly, grabbed a hairline decision from Taylor, 147, of Camp Seiad, in the main event. Johnson, 147, of Seiad, and O'Banion, 143½ of Williams Creek, battled to the only draw of the evening in the next-to-last fracas on the program.

Other results: Oliver, 132, Lava Beds outpointed Driggers, 131, Bly; Elliott, 123, Lava Beds outpointed Madison, 125, Hat Creek; Davis, 121, Steamboat outpointed Cumbie, 124, Seiad; Stewart, 108, Lava Beds outpointed Henderson, 115, Bly. All six bouts, of three rounds each, were refereed by Fred Erickson, with E. C. (Jerry) Jerome doing the announcing.
