

"Topper Returns", Ectoplasmic High Jinks, Opens at Craterian Today

JOAN BLONDELL WITH FINE CAST IN TOPPER SHOW

Roland Young, Billie Burke,
Carole Landis Star—
Three Day Run.

Comedy, mystery and romance are blended together in the style that made Thorne Smith famous in "Topper Returns," opening a three-day run today at the Craterian theatre, carrying the famous characters created by Smith still further into the realm of hilarious, ectoplasmic high-jinks.

The cast is headed by Joan Blondell, Roland Young, Billie Burke, Carole Landis, Dennis O'Keefe, Patsy Kelly and Jack Benny's man Friday—Eddie "Rochester" Anderson. Roland Young and Billie Burke are again cast as Cosmo Topper and his wife, roles they made famous in the first two hits, with Topper again manifesting his sometimes embarrassing fascination for ghosts, and the lovely, shapely spirit which haunts him this time is Joan Blondell.

Almost all the action occurs in an old, eerie mansion fitted with sliding panels, chairs that do nips-ups, depositing the occupant into dungeons, trap doors, secret passages between the walls and what not. What with all the weird knick-knacks and do-dads of the mansion, some extra lively spooks dashing hither and yon, topped by the delightful presence now and then at the most unexpected times of the loveliest ghost of them all, Topper has one of the most extraordinary adventures that ever fell to the lot of one man.

40 BRAVE RAIN AT GIRLS DAY CAMP

Despite a rainy Friday attendance at the Day camp for Girl Scouts and other girls in the community between the ages of 10 and 18 reached a total of 40. Opening day for the older girls on Thursday saw an attendance of 76.

Activities included pantomimes by each troop, Afghan square weaving, first aid instruction, under the direction of George Heryford, and outdoor cookery.

Senior counselors Thursday and Friday included Miss Mary Loucks, Mrs. Iva Dobbs Murray, Mrs. Charles Thatcher, Mrs. Fletcher Fish, Mrs. Martin Sands, Miss Bertha Arnsperger, Mrs. E. R. Hoppe and Mrs. Conrad Wessela. Junior counselors were Misses Jean Smith, Lois Pringle, Patricia Farrell, Mary Wall and Jean Schuler.

Judy Canova Star Of Rialto's Hill-Billy Show Today

The same lovable personality that has made "Sis Hopkins" a stage favorite for generations now comes to the screen, with the inimitable Judy Canova enacting the role of the hillbilly heroine whose antics have placed her in the hall of fame of American folklore.

"Sis Hopkins," which plays today and tomorrow only at the Rialto theatre, shows hilariously

"Blood And Sand" At Craterian Wednesday

Tempestuous romance highlights the adventure that dominates the action of the new Technicolor hit, "Blood and Sand," coming to the Craterian theatre Wednesday for a four-day showing. Starring Tyrone Power, with Linda Darnell and Rita Hayworth in the two leading feminine roles and a fearless matador whose rise to fame almost leads to his destruction is one of the outstanding screen hits of the year.

what happens to Sis when her rich relatives pack her off to college. A hillbilly esconced none too comfortably in a collegiate setting, is bound to create something of a sensation, and Sis does just that. She proceeds, first of all, to quite unconsciously win the heart of her snobbish Cousin Carol's sweetheart, played by Bob Crosby. Cousin Carol (Susan Hayward) retaliates by framing Sis in a cheap strip tease burlesque show

Rialto Role

The Rialto theatre chooses for its mid-week "Rialto Re-Issue Days" showing starting a three-day run Tuesday—"Steamboat Round the Bend," starring the immortal Will Rogers. The greatest star the motion picture world has ever known, Will Rogers' last picture returns to the popular Main street theatre after countless requests for its return showing. Irvin S. Cobb heads the supporting cast as a rival Mississippi steamboat captain who tries to do Rogers out of his franchise to haul goods up the mighty river in his old tub.

by making her believe she is participating in a sorority initiation.

Professor Jerry Colonna not only helps her out of this predicament but induces her to enter the cast of the college musical comedy, and Sis proceeds to become such a hit that many of Carol's choice song numbers are switched to her.

Returns To Roxy

Ever since Clark Gable and Hedy Lamarr romanced and separated in "Boom Town," the public has been clamoring for the two to be co-starred once again. The demand is answered—and in a hilarious manner—with the appearance of the two stars in "Comrade X," the fast-action story of an American correspondent in Russia who falls in love with one of the female comrades who drives a street car. The comedy opens a three-day run today at the Roxy theatre with Felix Bressart and Oscar Homolka in supporting roles. One of the highlights of the film is said to be Gable's escape from the country in the commanding position of a barrage of motored tanks, which he leads over hill and dale and even under a river in his flee to bordering Rumania.

"Calling All Husbands," a delightful comedy of married life starring Ernest Truex, plays as the companion feature with "Comrade X."

Linfield Finances Good

McMinnville, June 7.—(AP)—The Linfield college board of trustees declared the school in its strongest financial position in years and voted a 3 per cent bonus to faculty members.

CREDIT BUREAU TO START CAMPAIGN COMING THURSDAY

Sponsored by the Retail Credit Association of Medford, a one-year advertising campaign will be launched in The Mail Tribune Monday designed to educate the public on the value of prompt payment of their obligations. The slogan of the campaign is: "The credit of a community reflects the thriftiness of her citizens... a city with good credit is a good place in which to live."

Throwing its extensive facilities wide open to the Retail Credit Association of Medford in the campaign will be the Southern Oregon Credit Bureau, affiliated with the Associated Credit Bureaus of America.

The Retail Credit Association of Medford, a unit of the National Retail Credit Association, is headed by D. T. Flynn, president. W. E. Thomas is vice-president and Wilfred M. Moses is secretary-treasurer.

The two organizations will work in close harmony during the campaign. The Southern Oregon Credit Bureau, according to Mr. Moses, who is vice-president of the bureau, is now making an average of 1,500 credit reports a month, and has about 50,000 cards now on file, 30,000 of which are "live" cards representing everybody in Jackson county.

Mr. Moses explained that a complete credit record was kept by the bureau on everybody in the county, this information being available to all credit grantors of the community and others legitimately interested. The aim of the bureau, Mr. Moses stated, was to build up a complete credit record of everybody in the county. He said that the bureau had salvaged approximately $2,000,000 for its members since 1917.

All members of the Retail Credit Association of Medford are members of the Southern Oregon Credit Bureau, thereby having at their disposal the complete records of the latter agency.

The campaign will take the form of weekly advertisements in The Mail Tribune calling the public's attention to the vast benefits persons will receive by paying their obligations promptly and building up their credit rating.

Officers of the Southern Oregon Credit Bureau are F. E. Redden, president; Mr. Moses, vice-president, and A. J. Bateman, secretary-treasurer.

Closing time for Too Late to classify Ads is 1:30 p. m.
