IN FORTE-SALICA TUFF

Philadelphia, June 11.—(AP)—Tommy Forte will be fighting for "love" as well as the world's bantamweight title when he tangles with champion Lou Salica in a 15-rounder at Shibe Park tomorrow night.

Forte is to be married to his neighborhood sweetheart, Mildred Cangelosi, on July 12, and he intends to march to the altar as the new champion.

"I don't want to disappoint her again," remarked the 22-year-old scrapper from South Philadelphia, referring to the 15-round decision he lost to Salica in their first title bout last January.

At Sister's Home

The large fireplace in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Andrews of San Francisco was festive with tall white tapers and flowers in pastel shades as Miss Elsie M. Brown of Medford became the bride of Frank C. Grove of Redding, Cal., in a Memorial afternoon ceremony.

Carrying a bouquet of bouvardia and gardenias with white satin streamers the bride wore white Chantilly lace over ivory taffeta and was attended by her sister, Mrs. Andrews. The matron-of-honor was gownned in Sierra blue silk jersey and carried coral tuberos and begonias in her hand.

Best man was Frank J. Andrews with the Rev. John Hayes Creighton of the First Presbyterian church of San Francisco presiding at the nuptials.

An out-of-town guest was Miss Joan Andrews, niece of the bride, who flew from Oregon to be present at the wedding. Following the ceremony a formal dinner party was held at the Venetian Villa.

The newlyweds left immediately afterwards for Portland and will reside in Medford.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Mrs. Grove has been secretary in the offices of Neff and Frohnmayer for the past several years and Mr. Grove is connected with the Pacific Greyhound lines, having recently been transferred to Medford from Redding.

Mrs. Grove was honored Saturday evening when friends held a surprise shower at her home. She received a number of gifts and later refreshments were served.
