

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Medford Visitors—Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Scull of Phoenix, Ariz., arrived today by train for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McDonald, 823 East Main street.

Stops Here—James H. Lewis of Menlo Park, Cal., stopped briefly here yesterday en route to Union Creek by motor where he will visit friends.

Local Visitor—C. H. Maynard of Seattle, Wash., was a brief business visitor here yesterday. He was en route by motor to Talent where he will visit.

From Virginia—Arriving by train today were Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Mickle of Danville, Va., who will visit their son, Lieut. W. B. Mickle at CCC Camp Gasquet for two weeks.

Visit Daughter—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Short, 622 West Second street, returned home Monday from Salem where they visited their daughter, Patricia, for several days. While in Salem Mrs. Short renewed acquaintance with friends whom she had not seen for 25 years. They were accompanied by Mrs. Short's mother, Mrs. C. E. Young.

To Portland—Mrs. Diamond Flynn, 907 West 19th street, and Mrs. Warren Liggett, 812 New-town street, left today by motor for Portland by way of Diamond lake. They will be joined in Portland by Mrs. Flynn's daughters, Dorothy and Jacklyn, students at Oregon State college. All will return to Medford Sunday.

Pictures Shown—R. H. Mc-Ayeal, district representative of the American Tobacco company, showed sound motion pictures depicting the buying of tobacco and the manufacture of cigarettes at last night's regular weekly dinner-meeting of the Active club in Hotel Medford. George Smith was a guest at the meeting, presided over by Royal Clare, president. Election of officers will take place at next Tuesday night's meeting.

Going South—Linus B. Martin, accompanied by his wife and daughter, Margaret, arrived here today from CCC Camp Steamboat, Idylwild Park, where Mr. Martin is company commander. He will be commander of the CCC train departing tomorrow for Vicksburg, Miss. Mrs. Martin and daughter are also returning south to New Augusta, Miss., by train tomorrow, following Mr. Martin's departure. Mrs. Martin will make an extended visit with relatives while in the south. The family registered at the Hotel Holland.

Fines Levied—Charged with violation of the basic traffic rule, Robert E. Holman of Medford was fined $10 in city police court yesterday. G. R. Kirkpatrick of 10 South Newtown street was fined $5 for failure to stop at a stop street.

To Have Leave—Edwin C. Chevront, educational adviser of company 6432, Camp Prescott, will leave June 13 for an extended vacation. While on leave he will visit friends at Lenore, Ida. Mr. Chevront will return to duty July 6.

Flying South—Lieut. O. J. Mosman stopped at Medford municipal airport this noon to have his army North American observation plane refueled. He was en route from Fort Lewis, Wash., to Watsonville, Cal.

Visit Judge—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Painter and son, Gerald of Twin Falls, Ida., spent several hours last Friday visiting City Judge Allen D. Curry at his home, 505 Benson street. Mr. and Mrs. Painter, who were en route home from a trip to California, are old school mates of Judge Curry. Mr. Painter is cashier of the Fidelity National bank in Twin Falls.

Returns Home—E. B. Price returned here today by train after spending several days in San Francisco. Mr. Price, an employee of the California Oregon Power company, resides at 1006 Sunset avenue. Donald Price of Portland is spending the week with his parents. He visited in Los Angeles, Hollywood and San Francisco last week and returned to Medford to spend the remainder of his vacation with his parents and friends.

At Headquarters—Arrivals at Medford CCC headquarters yesterday included William B. Mickle, company commander at Camp Gasquet, and Langdon A. Livingston, company commander at Camp Oregon Caves. Both were in on business connected with the CCC casual train movements. Also in town on train conveyance movements were Subaltern Fred W. Jenkins of Camp Mt. Shasta and Max L. Piper of Camp Wimer. They departed last night for Louisiana.

Home on Leave—Home on a 30-day furlough today was Glenn J. Reed, son of Mrs. Grace Reed, 840 Palm street. Reed arrived by train yesterday from Wilson, N. C., where he is serving with the U. S. 30th engineers. He has a rating of private first class and specialist first class. A graduate of Medford high school, Reed enlisted with the 29th engineers at Portland about three years ago and transferred to the 30th when that unit was formed for duty in the south a couple of years ago. Before going to Wilson, Reed was stationed at Camp Blanning, Fla., for a time. At the end of his furlough he will report back for duty at Wilson.

To Reshingle—R. W. Johnston of 111 King street applied at the city building inspector's office yesterday for a permit to reshingle and remodel his residence at a stated cost of $300.

At Meeting—Karl L. Janouch and Frank Hull represented the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce at the annual dinner-meeting of the Klamath Falls Chamber of Commerce last night.

Mother Improved—Mrs. Louise Uecker of Delmont, S. D., arrived here Monday, called by the illness of her mother, Mrs. Hannah Einkopf, 607 Catherine street. Albert Jackson has returned to his home in California after visiting with his mother, Mrs. Einkopf, who was reported today to be slightly improved.

Grass Fire—The fire department's chemical crew was called at 12:48 p. m. to put out a grass blaze at the Mabel Ray residence, 1104 West Main street. Some one in the neighborhood let a rubbish fire get away from him and spread to the dry grass, Chief Roy Elliott said. No damage was done. This morning at 8:37 the chemical crew stood by while a chimney fire at the Hotel Jackson burned itself out. There was no damage.

Knocked Out—Dee Mills, foreman of the Applegate CCC camp, was knocked unconscious for a few minutes but was otherwise uninjured when the government pickup he was driving collided with a machine operated by Dave Rees of 305 Edwards street at McAndrews road and West Jackson boulevard about 8 a. m. today, according to a report on file. Both cars suffered some damage. Machines driven by Leslie E. Libby of 246 South Riverside avenue and Mrs. Karl Kuld of Prospect were involved in a minor mishap on South Central avenue near Main street Tuesday noon, according to a report on file today.

Has New Position—Adolph Czenkner, radio operator of the Medford CCC district since February, assumed similar duties in the Fresno CCC district headquarters yesterday. His first message by chance was to the station. WUBG in Medford, that he had just left the day previously. Mr. Czenkner was formerly a CCC enrollee at Camp McKinley and more recently a civilian instructor at the Camp Wimer radio school. Carl Scoville, who replaces Czenkner as radio operator here, is a Medford resident, having been employed by the Veri G. Walker Radio Engineering and Supply company.

Plane Passengers—Arriving today on the noon United Mainliner were W. H. Volk and A. J. Flebut, from Oakland, Cal., and V. M. Pinkley, from Sacramento, Cal. Departing on the same plane were Paul Morris, to Seattle, Wash., and Mrs. William Hammett and A. J. Klocken, to Portland. F. T. Rosenberg arrived from Portland on the forenoon plane and leaving were H. W. Lundy, to Los Angeles, and Mrs. R. R. Chaffee, to Oakland. V. Stewart arrived from Portland on the midnight plane and L. D. Tilton and H. S. Merriam departed for San Francisco. Passengers on the evening flagstop Mainliner yesterday were J. B. Stam and Paul Morris, from Portland. J. M. Fulkerson left on the same plane for San Francisco. S. Y. Armit arrived from Oakland yesterday afternoon and C. L. Millikin departed for Portland on the same plane.

Sun-Bathing Coeds Jam Plane Traffic

San Diego, June 11.—(AP)—Fifty co-eds sun bathing on the roof of the San Diego state women's college gymnasium caused an aerial traffic jam. The massed flights by calets from an air school brought a complaint from the girls. The college asked that it be made a closed flying area, but no action resulted. The problem will be solved today—the semester ends.

Meeting Tomorrow—The junior committee of the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce today issued a reminder of the meeting it will hold in council chambers at city hall at 7:30 p. m. tomorrow regarding preparations for catering to tourists this season. All service station, eating establishment and hotel employees are invited.

LOCAL DEFENSE MAKES PROGRESS

Progress made to date by the local Defense Preparedness company has been most encouraging according to reports made by various members of the general staff at a dinner meeting Monday evening.

Commander Lloyd Williamson of the American Legion presided and reviewed briefly the accomplishments of the local defense unit, said to be one of the most active in the state. Plans for further development were discussed and it was decided to hold another mobilization when each platoon will be given a tactical problem to be worked out on an emergency basis.

Sergeant Major Straus of the Women's Ambulance and Defense corps of the Volunteers of America was a guest speaker at the meeting and told of the ex-
