

Klamath Pelicans Invade Medford for Two Games Saturday, Sunday

FLAMING CRATER KIDS READY FOR FIRST ACID TEST

Smith Or Brown to Hurt Saturday Night Tilt, Fox Sunday; Klamath Strong

Medford's sensational Crater kids, their lusty war clubs still reverberating from that incredible 27 to 6 slaughter of the Dorris Lumberjacks, roar into action again this week-end in a two-game series with the Klamath Pelicans that will determine whether they are destined to strike the Oregon State league pennant trail, or whether that Dorris holocaust was in the nature of a fluke.

The Pelicans, flying high in second place in the State loop with three victories and one defeat, will invade this town for an exhibition fracas Saturday night and a regular league tussle Sunday afternoon. The Saturday eve affair will start at 9 o'clock sharp under the fairgrounds field candles, while the Sunday afternoon tilt will get under way at 2 o'clock. A huge delegation of Klamath fanatics will accompany their club to Medford, according to Business Manager Al Dollarhide of the Pelicans, who was here Wednesday night scouting the Craters.

Craters Scouted
Dollarhide, watching the Craters annihilate Dorris, really got an eyeful, and Manager Lou Sauer of the locals, has high hopes that his club can give Klamath Falls some of the same medicine. He plans to start either 17-year-old Willard Smith or 17-year-old Jack Brown of Portland's Franklin high on the mound in Saturday night's game, with big, smooth-working Bob Fox coming back in the Sunday league affair. Although Smith worked over five innings Wednesday night, Sauer intimated that he might get the hurling call Saturday. If not, it will be Brown, who set Dorris down in one-two-three order in the ninth.

Orin Davis, righthander who was with Salem of the Western International league last year and Spokane of the same circuit this season, will probably fling the Saturday night game for the Pelicans. Slated for action against Fox in the Sunday tussle is Bill Hanauska, Willamette university ace who pitched the Pelicans to a 9 to 5 victory over Eugene in a State league game last Sunday. Hanauska, a big, 18-year-old youngster, is right-handed and possesses a "whizzing" fast ball and a great curve.

Star-Studded Lineup
Managed by Second-Baseman Ernie Bishop, a veteran of W. L. and Pioneer league service, the Pelicans will move into town with a club many observers believe is as strong as the Loop-Leading Albany Oaks. Warren Wahner will be behind the plate, with the heavy-hitting Paul Crapo on first, Jack Lloyd on short, Arland (Babe) Schwab on third, Reed in left, Norm Peters in center and Clyde Carlstrom in right.

Schwab spent most of last season with the Portland Beavers and is currently hitting over .300. Peters is a three-year veteran from Oregon State. Crapo is at present the team's leading batter with a mark well over .400, and Manager Bishop is also clouting over the .400 figure. Manager Sauer, with plenty of players available for the first time this season, was uncertain as to the exact lineup that will take the field against the powerful Pelicans. At first base will be either Spike Johnson, the gangly kid from Portland who belted four singles Wednesday night, or Al Fleischman. At third will be one of two other Portland youngsters—Bob Churchill or Harold Martenson. The former played third against Dorris, while Martenson was stationed in left field.

second, Del Schroer on short, Al Lightner in left, Sauer in center and Joe Gray in right. Lightner leaped out of a nasty batting slump Wednesday with a homer and a triple, and Gray also has started to hit, along with Manager Sauer. The Craters should pack plenty of wallop when they face off against the Pelicans.

The week-end series, which is expected to pull capacity crowds, will mark the first time the Craters and Pelicans have collided this season. A victory for the locals will move them to within a half-game of the Pelicans.

BEAVERS BLOW LONG LEAD AND LOSE 12-11 SLUGGEST TO ANGELS

(By Associated Press)
Smooth working Sacramento, strongly implanted in the Coast league lead, is still vulnerable in the opinion of Seattle's skipper, Bill Skiff.

Manager Skiff says he believes that the Senators, who walloped Hollywood again last night, 8 to 1, are a mighty fine ball club but they haven't all the power that their standing would indicate.

San Francisco made it three straight in the series with Seattle, starting out slugging in the first inning and refusing to let up until they won, 16 to 1.

San Diego made it seven straight league wins by blanking Oakland, 4 to 0.

Los Angeles won a 10-inning game from Portland, 12 to 11. Portland had a 9 to 0 lead in the fourth but the Angels tied it in the last half of the ninth. The winning run resulted from a wild throw to second base after the fifth Portland pitcher, Walter Hilcher, juggled Lowery's bunt. Lee Stine scored from second on this play.

OREGON AMATEUR IN SEMI-FINALS

Portland, June 13.—(AP)—Finalists will emerge in the Oregon state amateur golf tournament today at the Oswego Lake country club course. Top-heavy favorites were Alan Mills and Lou Jennings.

Mills, the San Franciscan who shot low medal score Wednesday, clipped two strokes from par on the out nine yesterday to trim Jack Shuler, Portland, 4 and 3.

Jennings, defending champion, defeated Ed Watson, Portland, 2 and 1 with a one-under-par medal card.

Bob Bronson defeated Dr. O. F. Willings, both Portland, by sinking an 18-foot putt for a birdie on the 19th hole. He faces Mills today. Roy Wiggins, Oswego, gained the other semifinal berth by defeating Glen Sharback, Oregon City, 2 and 1.

JENSEN APPOINTED FRUIT INSPECTOR

Appointment of Walter D. Jensen as shipping point supervisor for the Rogue river area with headquarters at Medford is announced by the state department of agriculture. Jensen has been with the shipping point service six years, serving in turn at Milton-Freewater, Hood River and Salem. He succeeds Fletcher Fish, resigned.

The new supervisor will be located by June 15, in time to handle the cherry fruit fly certification at Ashland.

He is moving his family, Mrs. Jensen and two children, to Medford.

REDS WHITEWASH BRAVES. 1-0 ON GREAT PITCHING

By Judson Bailey
Associated Press Writer.

Paul Derringer, the Cincinnati ace, showed how tough he can be yesterday by pitching four-hit ball to beat the Boston Braves, 1-0. The Reds made only five singles themselves off young Art Johnson, a southpaw, but they managed to link two of them with a walk for a run in the first inning.

The day's only other National league game also was an airtight pitching spectacle—between Carl Hubbell and Bill Lee, with the New York Giants stopping the Chicago Cubs, 2-0. In the American league the Boston Red Sox divided a doubleheader with the St. Louis Browns in odd affairs. The Browns tallied five times in their half of the first inning and won the first game, 9-4. The Red Sox were held to six hits in the second game but triumphed, 3-2.

The Philadelphia Athletics copped a nip-and-tuck struggle from the Detroit Tigers, 5-3.

The New York Yankees and Chicago White Sox had a high old time of it in their night game. The Yankees finally won in the 10th, 3-2, on DiMaggio's four-bagger.

MANY GOLFERS TO PLAY IN TOURNEY

Everything is in readiness for the British War Relief society's blind bogey tournament at the Rogue Valley Golf club Saturday and Sunday, and Club Pro Laddie Selkirk expects a large entry of club members and non-members, both men and women, he announced today.

Every entrant will be given a 75-cent golf ball and a greens marker, and will get to play 18 holes on the beautiful course without being charged a greens fee. One-half the nominal tournament entrance fee will go to the war relief society, while the other half will be used to purchase the golf ball and a prize for the tourney winner here.

The blind bogey tourney, Selkirk said, would give everybody entered an equal chance to win the prize.

CRESCENT NEXT ROGUE OPPONENT

Paul Hess, unbeaten in three starts, will pitch for the Medford Rogues when they travel to Crescent City for a Southern Oregon league contest next Sunday afternoon, Manager Paul Hoffard has announced. The Rogues will be after their fifth straight win.

In the other loop tussle, Grants Pass will entertain Rogue River.

All members of the Rogues are asked to meet at Lewis Super Service station at 8:00 o'clock Sunday morning.

FINE ANGLING IN JACKSON COUNTY

Portland, June 13.—(AP)—Waters in most of the state promise excellent fishing this week-end, the state game commission's bulletin said today.

The best prospects were listed for the Dechutes, McKenzie, Nehalem and Rogue rivers, and Diamond lake.

The report by counties included:

Josephine—Salmon fishing poor but trout fishing improving in Rogue river and tributaries. Good in Tannen lake.

Jackson—The Rogue and tributaries good for flies; early mornings and late evenings the best times. Applegate river good for flies, spinner and worms. Elmit catches taken at Fish lake on worms. Cat and bass fishing at Hyatt lake fair.

Klamath—Upper Klamath lake good for trolling at points. North and south forks of the Sprague river good for bait, with flies in evening. Good bass, crappie and perch fishing in Gerber reservoir. Odell lake good for fly, trolling and bait fishing. Crescent lake good for troll and fly fishing and Davis lake fair for fly fishing.

UTILITY INFILDER PURCHASED BY SEALS

San Francisco, June 13.—(AP) The San Francisco Seals baseball club announced today the purchase of Harry Goorabian, utility infielder, from Bakersfield of the California State league.

Goorabian, hitting over .300 and leading the state circuit in home runs, was taken on in the emergency created by the loss of Ted Jennings, third baseman, out with a broken leg.

CHANGES IN GAME LAWS WILL TAKE EFFECT SATURDAY

New game laws, passed by the 1941 state legislature, to which the emergency clause was not attached, become effective Saturday, June 14, the Oregon state game commission has announced. Perhaps the most important of these laws concerns men and women over 65 years who have been residents of the state of Oregon for 10 years or more.

This law provides that if such person will swear to an affidavit before a county judge or chairman of the board of county commissioners that he or she is unable to pay the regular $5 fee for a combination fishing and hunting license, a special license will be issued for 50 cents. Special affidavit blanks have been furnished to all county judges in the state or may be obtained upon application to the Oregon state game commission, 616 Oregon Building, Portland.

The 2-day non-resident angling license for $2 was eliminated by the legislature and in its place a non-resident angling license good for 10 days and costing $3 has been provided. This law does not become effective until July 1, however.

Another change in the license laws reduced the residence requirement for Spanish American war veterans from 20 years to five years to obtain special licenses.

SPECIAL MEET CALLED FOR ATHLETIC BOARD

A special meeting of the board of directors of the Medford Athletic association has been called for 8 o'clock tonight at the chamber of commerce by President C. H. (Doc) Davis, who urges all directors to attend the important confab.
