

SOCIETY and CLUB NEWS of the WEEK

By BETTY SHOEMAKER

Fick-LeMire Wedding Is An Event of Saturday

Wedded here yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock were Miss Virginia Fick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Fick, 608 Newtown street and John LeMire, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. LeMire of Klamath Falls.

Given in marriage by her father the bride was attired in a full skirted eggshell satin wedding gown fashioned with a train, long sleeves, and a deep collar of seed pearls and button back. Completing her costume was a long veil caught in place with a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried an arm bouquet of lilies of the valley centered with an orchid and complimented with satin streamers.

Her attendant, Mrs. James Busch of Klamath Falls, chose a floor-length gown of blue with matching hat and a nosegay of pastel flowers. Best man was Samuel Mushen, Jr., also of Klamath Falls.

Ushers included Walter Echelbeck, Bert Schmidt and Fred Smith of Klamath Falls and Bruce Williams, cousin of the bride, of Salem.

The bride's mother chose a rose silk crepe gown with matching hat and navy accessories and a corsage of gardenias surrounded by rosebuds and summer flowers.

The service was preceded by Miss Barbara Williams, cousin of the bride, singing "I Love You Truly" and "Because". She was accompanied at the organ by Mrs. H. E. Marsh who also played the traditional wedding marches.

Friends and relatives greeted the couple at the Fick home following the ceremony. The service table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake which was cut by the bride. Lilies of the valley and freesia completed the arrangement. Presiding at the punch bowl was Mrs. Busch and assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Murray Marley of this city, Mrs. Sam Muchan, Klamath Falls, Miss Lorene Bradford, cousin of the bride, of Eugene and Miss Williams of Salem.

Out-of-town guests attending the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Williams and family, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Runyan, Mr. and Mrs. James Busch, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Thomas, all of Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Courtney of Roseburg, and Miss Lorene Bradford of Eugene.

For her going away outfit Mrs. LeMire chose a navy blue jersey dress with blue and white candy stripe skirt, blue accessories and an orchid corsage.

Following a wedding trip south the couple will return to Klamath Falls and make their home in the Roosevelt apartments. Mrs. LeMire has been teacher in Klamath Falls for the past five years after graduating from the University of Washington. Mr. LeMire is employed in the United States National bank in Klamath Falls.

Charles Braley Is Academy Graduate

Charles Rease Braley, son of Mrs. Frank C. Preston, Applegate river ranch and C. Rease Braley, 245 Valley View drive plans to return to Medford, June 22. He was among graduates from St. Joseph's Military academy, Friday at Belmont, Cal.

An honor student for the past four years he was graduated a cadet major. During the past year he won a gold medal for an essay on "American Citizenship and its Advantages," honors for band activities and a scholarship token for holding the highest scholastic honors in the school.

Handkerchief Shower
Honors Former Resident
Mrs. Luke Ryan, former resident of this city and now living in Riverside, Cal., was surprised during the past week with a handkerchief shower at the home of Mrs. George Neilson by members of the Daughters of Union Veterans.

Bride of Saturday Afternoon

Mrs. John LeMire, the former Miss Virginia Fick of this city, who was wedding yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Fick, 608 Newtown street. Mr. and Mrs. LeMire will reside in Klamath Falls. (Photo by Shangle.)

Mayae-Port Wedding Read In Grants Pass

Miss Jewell Mayae, daughter of Mrs. Clayton Akin of Grants Pass, became the bride of Lee C. Port, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Port of Applegate, at an eight o'clock ceremony at the parsonage of the First Christian church in Grants Pass Thursday evening. Rev. W. I. Palmer officiated with a simple ring ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of white net over white satin with a fingertip veil, and carried a bouquet of rosebuds and sweet peas. Her bridesmaid, Miss Phyllis Crause of Grants Pass, wore pink georgette, and both the bride and her attendant wore corsages of sweet peas and rosebuds. Dwight Phipps of Medford acted as best man.

Mrs. David Gelvin of Medford played Mendelssohn's wedding music, and vows were spoken beneath an archway banded with syringa. Other pastel flowers were placed about the room. Immediate friends and relatives of the bride and groom attended the wedding, and following the ceremony the young couple left by motor for Prineville to make their home, where Mr. Port is state fire warden for the John Day district.

Mrs. Port is a graduate of the Southern Oregon college of education, and during the last year taught the first grade at Jerome Prairie school near Grants Pass. Mr. Port attended Oregon State college, and previous to his promotion last month to the position as state warden, he was assistant to Dwight Phipps, state district fire warden for southern Oregon with headquarters in this city.

Robinsons To Motor South For Vacation
Mr. and Mrs. Gain Robinson, 933 South Holly street, are planning to motor to Los Angeles, leaving Monday morning for a 10-day vacation with friends.

Thursday Morning Study Club Elects Officers

At a meeting of the Thursday Morning Study club last week Mrs. F. G. Hughes was elected president of the club for the coming year with Mrs. C. C. Drummond, first vice president; Mrs. H. C. Obye, second vice president and Mrs. A. J. Loeffler, secretary-treasurer.

Election took place at the club's annual picnic at the Phoenix residence of Mrs. R. W. Frame. Tables were decorated with red, white and blue flowers and flags commemorating Flag day.

After a "truth or consequence" program motion pictures of Hawaii and the Philippine islands were shown by Mrs. D. D. Roberts, a guest. Other guests in attendance were Mrs. R. B. Hammond, who was the club's first president 20 years ago; Mrs. E. F. Woolsey, honorary member; Mrs. C. E. Huling, Mrs. B. C. Richards, Mrs. C. H. Ackerman of Utah, Mrs. John Loeffler, Florida and Mrs. T. E. Knackstedt, prospective member.

Retiring officers are Mrs. Eugene Thorndike, president; Mrs. L. P. Wilcox, first vice president; Mrs. Eldon Drysdale, second vice president and Mrs. F. G. Hughes, secretary-treasurer.

Meetings will be resumed in October.

Sojourners to Elect New Officers At Next Meeting

Plans for the semi-annual election of officers, to be held the last meeting in June, are occupying the attention of members of the Medford Sojourners' club. A nominating committee was announced at a meeting of the club last Thursday, with Mrs. Ralph Furrer as chairman. Serving with Mrs. Furrer will be Mrs. Merle Muncey, Mrs. R. R. Stroud, Mrs. L. E. Francis and Mrs. B. H. Starcher.

The business meeting followed dessert, and the remainder of the afternoon was spent with cards and sewing. Prizes for honors at cards went to Mrs. O. J. Halboth, Mrs. Kenneth Wells, and Mrs. R. L. Hollenbeck and other prizes went to Mrs. George Rudolph and Mrs. Chris Renken.

Prospective members present were Mrs. Stanley Brickell, Mrs. Glen A. Swanson, Mrs. LeRoy Steiner, Mrs. Louise Secombe, Mrs. Dean Driskell and Mrs. Chris Renken.

Hostess committee for the meeting was Mrs. Orville Hoselton, Mrs. Fred Karlson, Mrs. Dale Berkhimer and Mrs. Ragnar Unden.

Mrs. Leverette Flies South

Mrs. Walter H. Leverette, 611 South Oakdale avenue, left Friday evening by plane for a two weeks' visit in Los Angeles. She will visit her two daughters, Mrs. William C. Warren and granddaughter, Dorene Warren and Miss Jean Leverette and her sister, Mrs. W. R. Stewart.

She will be accompanied home by Miss Leverette who will spend her summer vacation in this city. They plan to motor north from Los Angeles.

Delegates Judge W.C.T.U. Session Successful Affair

Delegates to the bi-county institute of Jackson and Josephine county W. C. T. U. report an interesting program at the all-day meeting Thursday at the South Methodist church. Rev. Max E. Walton, missionary from South America, opened the session with two selections on a steel guitar. He was introduced by Rev. Edwin Cox, pastor of the Pilgrim Holiness church.

Morning devotions were given by Rev. R. W. Wolfe of Indianapolis, Ind., home missionary, and Captain Charles K. Cox spoke of work of the Salvation army and the part that organization will play in national defense and cantonment centers.

Round-table discussion of departments was led by Mr. Ellen Thrasher, president of the Grants Pass union, assisted by a group of members from that union. Rev. Joseph Knotts gave noontide prayer.

Following luncheon Mrs. Doris Poet, president of Ashland union, led devotionals and special music included vocal selections by Mrs. E. O. Smith, accompanied by Mrs. Aletha Knutsen; violin solo, Margie Cox, accompanied by Mrs. E. Cox.

The unions reported on activity in the LTL group and YTC work among the young people. Mrs. F. I. Caulkins, Medford union president, gave a reading.

The program was closed with Miss Esther Bullock giving a Chinese song, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Ralph Bullock, who also displayed a number of interesting curios from China, where they have spent the past eight years in missionary work. Closing prayer was given by Mrs. Alice Jilison of Ashland.

Card Party To Be Thursday

Plans are rapidly being completed for St. Anne's Altar society public card party at the home of Mrs. H. A. DuBuque at Central Point Thursday of this week. Tables will be laid out-of-doors for the dessert luncheon at 1:30 p. m., followed by an afternoon of cards.

Those desiring reservations may contact Mrs. Margaret McGuire, dial 3770. Working on the planning committee are Mrs. J. R. O'Conner, Mrs. J. C. Boyle, Mrs. R. A. Miksche, Mrs. C. H. Thompson, Mrs. A. O. Bauman, Mrs. J. W. Young, Mrs. W. S. Thurlow and Mrs. F. H. Woodward.

Club Enjoys Garden Tea

The garden at the A. S. V. Carpenter home, "Topsides," was the scene of an afternoon tea Friday when members of the Phoenix Garden club enjoyed an informal tea hour. The tour of the garden followed the club's regular business session with 14 attending.

Mary Marthas Will Meet With Mrs. Hogan
Mary Marthas circle will meet Tuesday at 1 p. m. with Mrs. M. N. Hogan, Siskiyou Heights with Mrs. Olin Arnsperger as assistant hostess.

Anna Mae Scheel Weds Mr. Stark At Nazarene Church

At an impressive ceremony read Sunday morning, June 8, at 9 o'clock at the Church of the Nazarene, Miss Anna Mae Scheel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Scheel of this city was married to Kenneth A. Stark, son of Mrs. A. Stark of Penticton, B. C., Canada.

The service was preceded by vocal selections by Miss Mabel Scheel singing, "Because" and "I Would Be True," with Mrs. Ethel Kornstad playing the wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a wedding gown of white satin with a train. Her halo of tulle was arranged with Cecil Bruner roses in the crown. She carried an arm bouquet of gladiolas and delphiniums.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Helen Von Stein, who wore a floor length dress of silk lace over pastel satin and carried a bouquet of rosebuds and sweet peas.

Loren Scheel was best man. Ushers were Arnold Kornstad, Neville Von Stein and Fred Hall.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents and the couple left for a short wedding trip. For traveling Mrs. Stark chose a valley green outfit with beige accessories and a corsage of rosebuds and sweet peas. They will make their home in Canada.

Nieces Visit At Newbury Home

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Newbury, 7 Eastwood drive are Mrs. Newbury's two nieces, Nancy Elizabeth Newbury and Rosanne Newbury of Walnut Creek, Cal., who will visit here for two weeks. They are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Newbury.

The girls motored to Medford with their grandmother, Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones of Klamath Falls, accompanied by Miss Evelyn Howarth, also of Klamath Falls, who continued home after spending a day at the Newbury home. Mrs. Jones is the mother of Mr. Newbury.

Barnums Leave Today For Spokane

Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Barnum and daughter Dorothy of 328 North Oakdale avenue were planning to leave this morning by motor for Spokane. Mrs. Barnum and Dorothy will remain in Spokane to visit friends and relatives while Dr. Barnum continues east by train to Minneapolis, Minn., where he will visit his brother who is ill.

Parents Announce Wedding of Gertrude Boyle

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Boyle, 1019 South Oakdale avenue announce the marriage of their daughter, Gertrude to Howard L. Rutherford, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Rutherford of Great Falls, Mont.

The ceremony was read June 9 at 9:30 a. m. in the first Presbyterian church of Spokane with Dr. Paul Calhoun officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a suit of waterfall green gabardine with toast brown accessories and a corsage of cluster gardenias. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Cornelius B. Collins as matron of honor. Cornelius B. Collins acted as best man.

A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony for members of the two families in the Green room of the Davenport hotel.

After a short wedding trip to Glacier National park the couple will make their home in Great Falls, Mont. Mrs. Rutherford is a graduate of Southern Oregon College of Education. Mr. Rutherford, a graduate of the University of Montana, is special agent for the Great American Insurance company for Montana.

Mrs. Carpenter Attends League Meet

Mrs. Leonard Carpenter, president of the Jackson County League of Women Voters returned last night from Portland where she attended a meeting of the state board of the league. Mrs. Carpenter states that Mrs. Ralph Rasmussen, Portland, Oregon league president, reported on the recent national council meeting at Washington, D. C., which she attended, and that plans for future activities of the state and local leagues were discussed.

To Attend Graduation Of Son From University

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ulrich, 839 Minnesota avenue, are enjoying a motor trip in Washington. They planned to attend the graduation exercises of their son from the University of Washington at Seattle before returning home.

Former Residents Visit In Medford

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Crawford of Eugene and two daughters, Joan and Kay, are week-end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Williams, 407 King street. Former residents of this city, Mr. Crawford was employed by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company during their residence in Medford. They plan to motor home this evening.

Mrs. Coddling Heads American Legion Auxiliary

American Legion auxiliary members elected Mrs. George A. Coddling president of the auxiliary at a meeting held Wednesday at the armory. Mrs. Coddling is a charter member of the organization and has been active in auxiliary work during her membership. The auxiliary was organized by her husband, George Coddling, an early commander of Medford American Legion post.

Serving with Mrs. Coddling will be Mrs. Thomas Freed, first vice president; Mrs. Earl York, second vice president; Mrs. Helen Collier, secretary; Mrs. Carol Parker, treasurer; Mrs. F. E. Martin and Mrs. Fritz Nissen, sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Thomas Flynn, Mrs. Belya Aiken and Mrs. Ina Goldsmith, executive committee members.

Delegates selected to attend the convention July 20 to 23 in Eugene are Mrs. Coddling, Mrs. Collier and Mrs. Parker with Mrs. Cole Holmes, Mrs. Freed and Mrs. York as alternates.

Mrs. W. H. Kneeland and Mrs. Francis Walker were initiated during the evening's session. A past president's pin was presented to Mrs. Thomas Flynn, outgoing president and Mrs. Mary Jacobs, first president of the organization, received her 20-year guard.

A social hour for legion post and auxiliary members closed the evening.

England's balloon barrage has proved deadly to migrating birds as well as to airplanes.

TITLE Insurance For Safety

INDEPENDENCE!
Make this July 4th a real red-letter day. Obtain Title Insurance on your realty—specially, your family's Home. Be freed of fear of losses which can result from unsuspected Title flaws. Rates are moderate. The protection, guaranteed!

SOUTHERN OREGON TITLE CO.
BRANCH OF COMMONWEALTH TITLE CO.
227 WEST MAIN ST. MEDFORD, OREGON

HOLLYWOOD BREAD MAKES—DELICIOUS TOAST

★ For a real treat, serve HOLLYWOOD TOAST. The toasting brings out all of its goodness—HOLLYWOOD TOAST has persuaded many a man to take his time and eat a satisfying breakfast. Try your favorite sandwich on HOLLYWOOD.

REDUCE The Easy, Safe HOLLYWOOD WAY!

There is no reason why you should be fat . . . when it's so simple to reduce the Hollywood Way. Just include two slices of Hollywood Bread with every meal in place of fattening foods. Hollywood Bread is lower in calories, higher in protein, and richer in minerals. No fats are added—it is baked without shortening. Start reducing NOW. Buy a loaf of Hollywood Bread today and you will soon wonder why you were ever overweight.

BAKED EXCLUSIVELY BY

Fluhrer's

NOW ON SALE AT YOUR GROCER

LARGE OR SMALL—TALL OR SHORT, WE HAVE

THE Mary Barron SLIP TO FIT.

And it will not ride up, pull or the straps around, because you are comfortable.

SPACE FOR FABRIC DESCRIPTION $1.98 and $2.98

ADRIENNE'S

ALL THIS PEPSI-COLA for 25¢

Yes sir, that handy family carton of Pepsi-Cola holds 6 big bottles . . . 12 big drinks. And say—just watch the folks go for this better drink with the finer flavor. Be prepared! Always keep a carton of tasty Pepsi-Cola in your refrigerator.

JOIN THE SWING TO PEPSI-COLA

Authorized Bottlers—Pepsi-Cola Bottling Co. of Medford

13 PAIRS TO THE DOZEN

$1.

THEY DO THINGS FOR YOUR LEGS

Rollins

MANN'S