Mrs. Lulu Saulsberry, past matron of Adair chapter, No. 3, of Jacksonville, O.E.S., was installed as grand chaplain of Oregon, O.E.S., at the installation ceremonies held at the Masonic temple in Portland, Thursday evening. The appointment was made by Mrs. Fay Ambrose of Portland, worthy grand matron of Oregon.

Mrs. Beulah Faber, member of the traveling flag committee of Central Point, paid tribute to the flag during the sessions in the Rose city.

Attending from Jacksonville were Mrs. Fay Peters, worthy matron; Miss Mollie Britt, grand representative; Mrs. Katie Grieve, grand page; Mrs. Florine Severance, Mrs. Ruth Hoffman, past matron; Mrs. Blanche Taylor and Mrs. Carrie Mae Moran, now of Portland.

From Medford were Mrs. Nellie McGowan, past grand matron; Mrs. Georgia Holloway, grand Martha; Mrs. Lillian Lue, grand Adah; Mrs. Clair Norris, worthy matron; Aubrey Norris, worthy patron and grand usher; Miss Gertrude Weeks.

Delegates from Central Point included Mrs. Faber, Everett Faber, past patron; Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Swing, worthy matron and worthy patron and Mrs. Hensley Holt. Ashland delegates were Mrs. Lorena McNair, member of the Temple fund committee; Mrs. Marcia Ross, worthy matron; Mrs. E. Rice, associate matron; Mrs. Whittle, grand representative and Mrs. Henry Enders.

Shower Honors Couple Saturday

A group of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Varner on Pennsylvania avenue Saturday evening honoring Mr. and Mrs. Orman Tompkins with a miscellaneous shower. Mr. and Mrs. Tompkins were married recently at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Fred M. Weatherford.

During the evening a phonograph record was played of the courtship of the couple. Gifts were opened and the Hi-N-Y society of the Nazarene church presented them with a set of pottery. About 65 were present. Refreshments closed the evening.

Lions Auxiliary Meets in Baker

Lions club auxiliary delegates are meeting in Baker this week for their state convention. The program opened this morning with a 6:30 o'clock barbecue in the city park followed by business sessions in the Baker Orpheum theater. A luncheon was to be served at noon at the Wingville grange with bridge and golf in the afternoon.

The Governor's banquet at the Covered Wagon honoring Lions' club and auxiliary leaders, is also scheduled. The program for Tuesday includes breakfast for state chairmen and committee members, morning session with a necrology ceremony by the Marshfield auxiliary and election and installation of officers.

Central Point Man Weds In Fairbanks, Alaska

Central Point, June 14.—(Sp)—Word has been received here of the marriage of Miss Rhoda Putzig to Kenneth Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Anderson of Central Point, at the Fairbanks, Alaska, Presbyterian Manse, May 22.

Mrs. Anderson is instructor of home economics at the University of Alaska. Mr. Anderson is meteorologist in charge of the United States department of commerce weather bureau office in Fairbanks and a graduate of Southern Oregon College of Education.

He entered the weather bureau in Medford and was transferred to Oakland, Cal., going to Alaska in 1938. He now has about half the Fairbanks district under his supervision including 50 airway communication stations, forecast centers and limited district forecast centers. He has visited his parents and friends in the valley numerous times since being stationed in Alaska.

PERSISTENT TEACHER WINS DEGREE AFTER MANY YEARS EFFORT

Persistence has won a bachelor's degree in social science for James H. Adamson, for the past six years instructor in mathematics and science at McMinnville junior high school and husband of the former Margaret Launsbach, daughter of Mrs. George Launsbach of 307 South Oakdale avenue.

Mr. Adamson started his collegiate education at Albany college in 1924 but employment broke up the continuity of his studies. He began teaching school in 1928. He kept an eye on his goal, however, the procurement of a college degree. In the past three years he made two to three round trips a week from McMinnville to Portland to attend the University of Oregon extension classes. He received his degree at the University graduation exercises in Eugene last Sunday.

Mr. Adamson will not stop with his degree however. He plans to continue his studies next year to qualify for a supervisor's certificate.

Mrs. Adamson is well known here. She is a graduate of Medford high school and the Southern Oregon College of Education at Ashland. She taught school before her marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Adamson have three children.

MOUNTED POSSE GRAVELS STALLS AT FAIR GROUND

The Jackson county sheriff's mounted posse spent Sunday hauling gravel to the posse stables in trucks furnished by Bernie Thumler, Porter Lumber Co. and Walter Leverette. Stalls of both the men's and ladies' posse were graveled to keep them dry during rainy weather.

The ladies' mounted troupe served luncheon and lemonade to the hard-working possemen. Sheriff Syd J. Brown is particularly interested in letting the public know that the county does not pay any expenses of the posse or ladies' troupe. The horses occupy the old barns at the fair grounds which were in very poor condition since fairs stopped. The possemen obtained permission to rebuild and repair the barns at the posse's expense. New roofs were immediately put on and doors, etc., hung and repaired. Water, light, phone, gravel—all have been put in at posse expense and has put this county property in good repair.

The posse and troupe consists of men and women interested in horses and riding, and although the men can be called out by the sheriff in any emergency requiring their help they are not paid nor are their expenses paid. Each member owns his horse and equipment and furnishes his own feed and expense.

Captain O. H. Bengtson announced that the posse had decided not to attend the Klamath Falls July 4th celebration, but will attend the Pacific International Law Enforcement Officers convention in Portland, July 14th and 15th.

104 REGISTER FOR GIRL SCOUT CAMP

Twelfth annual Girl Scout established camp, sponsored by the Medford Girl Scout council will open August 10 for a two weeks session. To date 104 girls have registered for the camp, to be held at Lake o' Woods, the committee in charge announced today.

Registrations may be made at Scout headquarters on Monday, Tuesday and Saturday mornings. Three vacancies remain in the first week registration and these are being held for two week campers. There are places for 10 more campers in the second week. Of the total registered 62 are for the opening week.

CHERRY DAMAGE CAUSED BY RAIN

Rain that fell last night may cause some cherries to split, Horticulturist C. B. Cordy said today, but he did not figure the loss would be very much, if showers do not continue.

There were reports in some sections of the county that heavy stands of barley had been beaten down by the rain. Most of the hay is in stacks, and the rain did not great harm.

No damage was done to strawberries as most of the crop has been picked. Youngberries are just ready to pick, and harvesting may be delayed. The crop is small and mostly goes into local consumption except a small portion shipped to Klamath county.

The pearls found in the edible clams and oysters of the United States usually are worthless.

SALVATION LEADERS RECEIVE PROMOTION TO ADJUTANT RANK

Capt. and Mrs. Charles K. Cox, head of the Salvation army corps here, were today in receipt of notice of their promotion to adjutant.

Notification of the advancement came from Lieut. Commissions Donald McMillan, territorial leader in San Francisco. The promotion is effective now.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox have been in charge of the Salvation army corps here for a year. They were transferred from San Francisco last June. Prior to their work in San Francisco they were stationed for four years in Pueblo, Colo., and four years in Cheyenne, Wyo. They received their commissions after being graduated from the Salvation army training college in San Francisco.

Before her marriage Mrs. Cox was Capt. Mabel Townsend. She once had charge of the Bowery corps in San Francisco. She has also commanded the corps in Greeley, Colo.

Gasoline Starts Blaze
Vancouver, Wash., June 16.—(AP)—Gasoline which James Krebster, 13, was pouring into his father's automobile ignited yesterday, destroying the car, the J. W. Krebster residence, a store and a garage 11 miles north of here. The boy's hands were burned severely.

DRIVER EXAMS IN ASHLAND FRIDAYS INSTEAD OF HERE

No automotive vehicle operator examinations will be held here on Fridays but with this exception examinations will be held daily for the remainder of June, Ward McReynolds, examining supervisor for this district said today.

The daily service was begun here last week to relieve congestion on Saturdays, the usual day on which examinations are held here throughout the year. On Friday, however, the examining staff must go to Ashland, Friday being the day set aside throughout the year for the neighboring city, Mr. McReynolds explained.

Applicants here report to the examiners in council chambers on the top floor of city hall from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. Also on duty in council chambers daily, including Friday, is a clerk to receive applications for the renewal of operator's licenses. All present operators' licenses expire on June 30 and must be renewed before then for the next two-year period.

Renewals at the office here averaged 150 to 175 daily last week, Mr. McReynolds stated. Examinations averaged 40 on

by JOHN CLINTON

Remember the old, old recipe for finding a lost horse? Well, you just imagine that you are a horse, then you think where you would go if you were lost. Then you go there, and there's your horse!

It must have been along such lines that the fuel engineers at Union Oil Company planned New 76 gasoline. They probably reasoned it this way—you use gasoline in driving a car, and therefore the gasoline should be built for the kind of driving you do most.

Well, obviously since everybody drives a car these days, the thing there's the most of—is traffic, and therefore the kind of driving you do most—is traffic driving.

So they built a gasoline especially for traffic driving—New 76. In it they included the instant response you have to have to take off from traffic signals, the sudden surge of power you need to pass middle-lane loafers.

And they gave it the fractions that make for performance both in low speed and highway driving. It's the best gas, frankly, I ever used in the Hiram Flymouth. But test it, yourself, this way. Wait till your tank's almost empty so you'll get the full effect.

Then, fill 'er up with New 76, hunt your traffic, drive in and see what good, sound gasoline engineering will do for you. It's available—New 76 is—at any Union Oil station in the west.

UNION OIL COMPANY

week days last week and from 50 to 60 the past two Saturdays. Many taking the examinations are from other states. Mr. McReynolds said. Out-of-state motorists remaining in Oregon must take the full examination, he pointed out.

The highest temperature ever recorded by the U. S. weather bureau at New Orleans is 102 degrees—surpassed every year in many American cities farther north.

LOCAL CANNERY BUSY ON VALLEY BEET CROP

The Rogue River Valley Canning company is now packing beets, Manager Ralph L. Boulette reports. No string beans will be packed this year. The cherry crop is being shipped ped and barrelled, with the Bagley Canning company at Ashland doing most of the barreling. Only a small part of the crop has been harvested. The price is around five cents a pound for Blings, with Royal Annes at six cents.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to express our sincere appreciation to friends and neighbors for the kindness and sympathy extended us during our recent bereavement; also for the many beautiful floral offerings. Mrs. Ralph M. Spencer and Family.
