

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Attend Game—Aubrey Miles and Bud Gander were among Ashland residents attending the Medford Crater-Klamath Falls baseball game at the fairgrounds park yesterday afternoon.

To Inspect—Preston E. Rohner and L. C. Breen, both of Medford CCC district headquarters staff, departed yesterday on an inspection trip in the southern zone. Both will also call at the Presidio of San Francisco on their present trip.

Leave For South—Mrs. Gertrude Turner and Mrs. Verne Rodgers left Saturday for Santa Monica, Cal., after a week's visit at the home of their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gibbs of route 1. The visitors were accompanied by Mrs. Rodgers' son Scott.

On Inspection—A. W. Stockman, special investigator from the office of the director of the CCC, Washington, D. C., departed today from headquarters here on a tour of inspection of camps in the Medford district. He was accompanied by Ragnar Undeen, district inspector.

Convention Here—The Oregon association of Chiropractic Physicians, who ended a three-day state convention in Eugene yesterday, voted to hold its 1942 state convention in Medford some time in June. It was reported by Drs. A. R. and Louise Hedges upon their return to Medford this morning.

Vacation Ends—George H. Fields, Medford CCC district educational adviser, returned today from an extended vacation in northern Washington. Mr. Fields visited his old ranch at Quinalt, Wash. During his stay there, climbing ramblers roses, which he planted several years ago at the base of some large Douglas fir trees, blossomed out, high on the branches. Mr. Fields was accompanied by his wife.

At Airport—Arrivals yesterday at Medford municipal airport included Lieuts. L. W. Nicol and W. A. Fackenthal, Spokane, Wash., to Salinas, Cal., in a North American observation plane; Maj. R. D. Butler, Vancouver, Wash., to Stockton, Cal., in a North American combat plane; Maj. C. D. McAllister, Vancouver to Stockton in a North American combat plane; Lieuts. F. M. Hardison and F. L. Nims, Vancouver to Watsonville, Cal., in a Douglas observation plane, and Lieuts. G. G. Robinson and G. C. Swan, Tacoma, Wash., to Sunnyvale, Cal., in a Vultee trainer.

Selectee Assigned—Word has been received here that John Everett Ray, among local selective service selectees who left here June 2, has been assigned to the engineer replacement training center at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

Unit To Meet—Medford extension unit will meet Wednesday at 10 a. m. in the court house auditorium rather than 41 Ross court as previously announced. Mrs. Ethel Cope will present the topic, "Flower Arrangement," in the morning. After a covered luncheon, officers will be installed.

Men Needed—Because of the national unlimited emergency, the U. S. coast guard is still in need of men to fill its enlarged quota, it was emphasized in a press release received today from H. O. Nielsen, chief boatswain, recruiting officer, 37 Federal office building, Seattle, Wash. The age limit for original enlistment has been extended to 31 years, minimum being 18. Complete information regarding enlistment and opportunities offered by the coast guard may be procured by writing to Mr. Nielsen.

Has Old Papers—S. E. Randall of LaMoine, Cal., today displayed a number of old newspapers he has collected which he said he would be willing to sell now to finance gold mine prospecting in southern Oregon. The newspapers, which he said were authentic originals included the New York Tribune of August 23, 1856, and September 5, 1857, the American Traveler, Boston, February 14, 1857, the National Era, Washington, D. C., December 8, 1859, Harper's Weekly, January 17, 1874, and the Saturday Courier, July 31, 1847. Some of the early papers contained accounts of the Indian wars in Oregon.

Graduates—John Alexander Cleland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hance H. Cleland, 718 South Oakdale avenue, was among graduates from Northwestern university at Evanston, Ill., Saturday. He received his bachelor of science degree in the school of commerce. He plans to spend several weeks in southern Missouri with friends before driving to San Francisco where he will be employed in a law office during the summer. He plans on entering law school in the fall. Mr. and Mrs. Cleland were unable to attend graduation exercises, but plan to motor east next week for a short vacation. Mr. Cleland is president of the California-Oregon Power company.

Plane Passengers—Mr. and Mrs. R. Hampson arrived at noon today by United Mainliner from Sacramento, Cal. Leaving on the same plane were Mrs. R. Holmes and B. McCarthy, to Seattle, Wash., and G. Vilas, to Portland. Arriving on the forenoon plane were J. Helser and Mrs. Harry Hart, from Portland, and O. Ramussen, from Seattle. F. Buchanan arrived at midnight from Portland and F. Wallace departed on the same plane for San Francisco. L. Tilton arrived from Oakland, Cal., last night. Departing were R. Eboe and M. Barry, to Portland. Leaving on the flagstop at 6 p. m. were H. Wilmut and A. Lowry, to San Francisco, and C. H. Jonas, to Los Angeles. Miss H. Bowdish departed for San Francisco on the second section. U. Nelson left on the afternoon plane for Portland. G. Smith arrived yesterday noon from San Francisco. Evelyn Buckels and Miss P. Beiser arrived on the morning Mainliner from Portland. Departing were F. McCall, to San Francisco, and Arthur Lake, motion picture star who plays Dagwell in the "Blondie" films, to Los Angeles. C. H. Jonas arrived from Los Angeles on the early morning plane. Departing were J. Pomeroy and F. Freeburger, to Portland.

Wall St. Report

New York, June 16.—(AP)—Price trends were hazy in today's stock market and, with a few exceptions, leaders generally shifted listlessly over an extremely narrow range.

Transports approximated 300-600 shares.

War news, while interpreted as fairly optimistic marketwise, still was too indecisive to touch off much buying enthusiasm.

REVOLUTION SONS IN ANNUAL DINNER

A general discussion of topics of vital interest to Americans was held at the anniversary dinner-meeting of southern Oregon chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution in the Hotel Holland Saturday night.

Guest speakers were Frank S. Gannett, past president of the state society and past vice president general for the northwest, and Judge J. H. Hendrickson, president of the state society, both of Portland. Niel R. Allen, Grants Pass, president of the local chapter, presided.

MEDFORD MAN IN G. PASS ACCIDENT

Grants Pass, June 16.—(AP)—Joseph Roy Anlauf, Medford service station manager, was taken to a hospital for treatment after his car collided with a Southern Pacific train in midtown early this morning. City Officer Ken Williams said Anlauf's car was damaged more than $400 but that his injuries were not believed serious.

Mr. Anlauf is manager of the Standard station at Sixth street and Riverside avenue, an employee of which said that he had gone to Grants Pass today on his day off. He resides at 804 East Main street.
