Countess and Party to Reside Here For Summer

The Countess of Suffolk, for many years a resident of England and more recently from Tucson, Ariz., where she spent the past winter, has leased the Andrew Welch lodge for the entire summer. Situated in the vicinity of Dodge bridge the property contains over 400 acres with one and one-quarter miles of waterfront.

The Countess arrived at the lodge during the past week in company with Dr. and Mrs. Lieb of New York City, N. Y., and Col. E. S. Gillette, retired British army officer. She was also accompanied by her staff of servants.

Young!
Dressed up!
NO PLACE TO GO

OUR BOYS in uniform may work all day and sleep all night—yet they have some time for play. For those precious leisure hours they deserve something more than good wishes and fresh air. Surely every right-thinking American wishes he could personally enrich them with recreation and entertainment of the best.

But you can't carry fun to camp in a handbasket. You can't draw a check big enough to set up an entertainment project of your own. Yet with a dollar or ten or a thousand—write your own ticket—you can contribute to the happiness and morale of the boys through the United Service Organizations.

The USO is the Salvation Army and the Catholic Community Service, the Y.M.C.A., Y.W.C.A., Jewish Welfare and Travelers Aid... all working as one unit for Americans in uniform with complete cooperation of the Army, Navy and Federal Government.

Its drive is on right now. When you're asked for your subscription, Standard hopes you'll remember this is something you want to do—but can do in no other way. We're sure no city's quota will go unfilled if everybody—man or woman—recalls what it means to be young, far from home, all dressed up, and no place to go.

PORTABLE SCHOOL PLANNED FOR CCC AUTO REPAIR UNIT

Bids have been let by the ninth army corps area headquarters in San Francisco for two portable school buildings to be used in connection with the CCC central automotive repair unit that is to be constructed at the old fairgrounds just south of town in the near future, it was indicated by information received by Harold G. Newell, Medford CCC district quartermaster, the administrative staff office here announced today. Definite information regarding the contracts was lacking, the office said. A school for instructing CCC youths in automotive mechanics is to be maintained as an adjunct of the repair depot.

CCC headquarters stated that as the plans were understood here the two portable buildings will be placed together, making a building approximately 20 by 110 feet, the "shop" end being 30 feet in width in order to accommodate trucks and cars for actual repair. The building will be equipped with a central heating system and will have concrete floors. It will accommodate a class of 40 enrollees in motor repair and maintenance. One end of the building will house the actual shop and the other will be devoted to class rooms.

"To be prepared for war is one of the most effectual ways of preserving peace..."

When George Washington spoke these words the world was a much smaller place. Transportation and communication facilities were such that it took considerably longer for anything to happen than it does today.

But there are certain thoughts that were as true then as they are now. This "preparation for war for the preservation of peace" is one of them. That is why the United States is hurrying to make itself the strongest nation on earth.

Your newspaper plays an important part in the preservation of peace by keeping its readers informed of their country's progress in preparation of war. Under the freedom guaranteed it in the Constitution, the American Press fearlessly voices the sentiments of the American people.
