

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Grass Fire—The fire department's chemical crew was called at 5:04 p. m. yesterday to put out a grass blaze at the residence of Fred Beck, 730 West 14th street. The grass was ignited by a rubbish fire that got away. Chief Roy Elliott reported. There was no damage.

Pre-School Clinic—The Howard school pre-school clinic will be held at the Howard school all day Monday, June 23. Immunization for diphtheria and vaccination for smallpox will be offered.

Minor Accident—O. S. Walden, 1014 East 11th street, and A. L. Lockwood, Medford, drove cars involved in a minor accident on the Crater Lake highway a mile north of Eagle Point yesterday morning, a report on file said today.

Renovating—Reconstruction work at Medford CCC district headquarters office, Sixth and Front streets, was started yesterday. Painters and carpenters started work on renovating the district commander and executive officer's offices. Several changes will be made in other departments during the next few days.

Executive Here—D. O. Hood of Portland, president of the Columbia Utilities company, left this morning for Klamath Falls after transacting business here since yesterday. Mr. Hood's company provides telephone service in the Butte Falls-Eagle Point and other districts of Jackson county and in the Klamath Falls area.

Menace—Property owners were reminded by the city superintendent's office today of an ordinance providing that all trees limbs must be kept cut to a height not less than ten feet above the street or sidewalk. It was suggested that all limbs lower than ten feet be trimmed immediately. "Numerous tree limbs in many sections of the city are a menace to pedestrians," the superintendent's office stated.

Recovering—Mrs. V. M. Hall, former Medford resident seriously injured in an automobile accident near Portland a little more than a week ago, is showing signs of improvement, according to word received by friends here from Emanuel hospital, Portland, where she has been confined. Mrs. Hall suffered a back injury, several vertebrae being crushed, it was reported here. The car in which she was riding with another woman overturned several times after running onto a soft shoulder. Mrs. Hall, who now resides in Portland, is the former Tillie Knips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Knips of Route 2, Her six-year-old son, Donald, was brought to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Knips last Sunday by Mrs. Diamond L. Flynn, 907 West Tenth street, who called to see Mrs. Hall at the hospital Saturday. Mrs. Flynn, who was accompanied by Mrs. Warren Liggett, 812 Newtown street, brought home her two daughters, Dorothy and Jacki, students at Oregon State college.

To Gasquet—George Ice, assistant construction officer of the Medford CCC district, will depart Monday for Camp Gasquet where he will be in charge of general repair work. He will remain there a week.

Going To Conclude—Mrs. Nina Carlson and Mrs. Martha Selkirk will leave tomorrow for Buffalo, N. Y., to attend the annual national Townsend club convention, scheduled for June 30 to July 4. They are official delegates from Townsend club 5 here.

To Convention—Mr. and Mrs. Richard Shults, 246 South Riverside avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. William Brunson, Berrydale, left today for Bend to attend the annual state convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and its auxiliary. The convention was to open today and continue through Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Canfield, Aloha ranch, left for Bend Wednesday. Mr. Canfield is state commander of the VFW.

Job Tests—The U. S. civil service commission today announced open competitive examinations for the following positions: ordnanceman and electric welder, to fill existing and future vacancies at the Puget sound navy yard; defense plant inspectors, war department; inspectors of naval ordnance materials, navy department; deputy game management agents, fish and wildlife service; and multitalent cameraman and platemaker, for employment in Washington, D. C. Detailed information regarding these and other pending examinations may be obtained at Medford postoffice from Earl H. York, secretary of the local board of civil service examinations.

Plane Passengers—Arriving by United Mainliner this noon were H. J. Alley and L. Alley, from Los Angeles, and A. C. Petrick, from San Francisco. Leaving on the same plane were Eugene Thorndike and H. W. Anderson, to Portland, and Miss E. Ward, to Seattle. Wash. Forenoon arrivals were C. F. Reum, from Seattle, and J. M. Sullivan, from Portland. Departing on the same plane were E. O. Hand and J. R. Curran, to San Francisco, and G. S. Louello-witz, to Los Angeles. Anderson arrived from Oakland, Cal., on the early morning plane. Leaving on the same plane were H. G. Cisterman, to Portland, and Frank Hull, to Billings, Mont., via Seattle. Virgil Leslie arrived from Seattle on the mid-night plane. Departing for San Francisco on the same plane were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lyons and George Taylor. Mr. Morris left for Portland last night. J. E. Coke arrived from San Francisco on the same plane. H. S. Fisher left for San Francisco last evening. Departing on the afternoon plane were J. B. Gordon and M. L. Merritt to Portland, and H. C. Cousins and H. Phelps, to Pendleton. Cisterman arrived on the same plane from San Francisco.

Guests From North—The Misses Myrtle Slingerland and Bess Zeller of Seattle, Wash., arrived by motorcar last night to spend a few days here as guests of Miss Isabel Evans, 518 South Oakdale avenue.

Applegate Camp Ends—Due to disbandment of Co. 5463, Camp Applegate, approximately 70 men will depart tomorrow from Applegate to Camp Klamath, near Merrill. The move will be made in bureau of reclamation trucks furnished by Camp Klamath. No administrative personnel will be involved in the transfer. This will be the first time, since January 9, 1936, that Camp Applegate has been unoccupied.

At Airport—Today's arrivals at Medford municipal airport included Maj. E. F. Everest, Tacoma, Wash., to Hamilton field, San Rafael, Cal., in a North American attack plane, and Lieut. P. C. Meyers, Oakland, Cal., to Seattle, Wash., in a North American basic trainer. Lieut. A. E. Slough left this morning for his home station, Long Beach, Cal., via Sacramento. Piloting a Stearman trainer, Slough arrived yesterday to attend funeral services for Charles L. (Jimmy) Valentine.

Transport Officer—Company Commander Leonard H. Lyons of Camp Leaf, Bray, Calif., reported at CCC district headquarters here yesterday for duty as District motor transport officer and CCC casual detachment commander. Mr. Lyons replaced Leroy G. Cronkrite, former transport officer, called to the army for active duty. Mr. Lyons returned recently from De Quincy, La., where he and his family visited home friends during a leave of absence. Mr. Lyons and family will reside in Medford.

Building Progresses—Under supervision of the Medford CCC district construction officer, William B. Clegg, the new storage building for trucks and other equipment at headquarters detachment is rapidly taking shape. Work was started Monday under direction of Donald Ferguson, head carpenter. The building, 140 by 48 feet, will be used for dead storage space. As soon as the building is completed, the 22 new Ford trucks, now stored temporarily outside the property building, will be put inside until they are sent to the camps for use.

Cyprus has been a British colony and base since 1914.
