

LOCAL and PERSONAL

To Roseburg—Mrs. Lucy Lyman of 45 Ross court left yesterday for Roseburg to visit friends for a few days.

New Stamp—First of the new airmail stamps will be placed on sale at Medford postoffice tomorrow morning. It is the airmail stamp of the six-cent denomination. Central panel contains a picture of a transport plane. All airmail stamps are being re-designed and others will be issued in the near future.

Camp Schedule—Day camp on Bear creek will be held tomorrow if the sun shines, counselors announced today. Weather permitting, the closing day will be held Friday as scheduled with a picnic dinner for parents. Otherwise the program will be held from 3 until 5 p. m. at the Lincoln school auditorium.

At Airport—Today's arrivals at Medford municipal airport included Lieuts. W. E. Elder and R. N. Lee, each piloting a Curtiss pursuit plane, en route from Hamilton field, San Rafael, Cal., to Portland; Capt. R. L. Hardy, Hamilton field to Boeing field, Seattle, Wash., in a Northrup attack plane, and Lieut. W. F. Stewart, Sacramento, Cal., to McChord field, Tacoma, Wash., in a Douglas transport plane.

Visits Here—Glenn Mae Early of Sheridan spent Monday night at the home of Mrs. Rhea Hoover, 37 Tripp street. She was en route home after a trip to Flint, Mich., whence she drove back in a new car. She visited relatives in the central and middle western states. Among points of interest visited were Los Angeles, Boulder dam and Grand canyon. Miss Early resided here when she was a member of the faculty in the Medford public schools.

Ex-Principal Here—Paul E. Baker, principal of Medford high school during World war days, called on a number of old friends here today. Accompanied by his father, A. F. Baker, Mr. Baker arrived by car from Klamath Falls where he had visited his son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. G. D. Massey, Jr. He was returning to his home in Franklin where he operates a mercantile store and owns a filbert and walnut ranch. Mr. Baker and E. H. Hedrick, superintendent of city schools, were friends in the Monmouth normal school and the University of Oregon. Mr. Baker left Medford in June, 1919, and thereafter was engaged in educational work in California for 14 years. He returned to Oregon five years ago.

Daughter Born—Mr. and Mrs. Lee Leatham of Fresno, Cal., are parents of a daughter, born June 12, word was received here today. Mrs. Leatham, the former Leneve Simpkins, is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Simpkins, who made their home in Medford for many years before moving to Cottage Grove.

Here Overnight—Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Pickens of Oakland, Cal., were overnight guests Monday at the home of Mr. Pickens' brother-in-law and sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Atterbury, 716 Alder street. Mr. and Mrs. Pickens were en route north by car for a two weeks' vacation.

Building Permits—E. G. Rosebrough applied at the city building inspector's office yesterday for a permit to construct a three-room residence at 716 West Main street at a stated cost of $1,000. Sam D. Koehler of 610 King street applied for a permit to finish a three-room apartment on the second floor at a stated cost of $400.

Plane Passengers—W. Marsden arrived from Seattle, Wash., by United Mainliner this forenoon. M. Ferer left for Oakland, Cal., on the same plane. Leaving early this morning were A. Hutchison, to Seattle, and A. Lundberg, to Vancouver, B. C. Miss S. Ferris arrived from Portland on the midnight plane. C. H. Jonas departed for Oakland. H. Smith arrived from Seattle last evening. H. Anderson left for San Francisco.

Ponds Visit—Chaplain Clifton R. Pond, now on active army duty as a captain in the first cavalry division, Fort Bliss, Tex., and Mrs. Pond were visitors here today. Capt. Pond was chaplain of the Medford CCC district for 5½ years before reporting for duty with the first cavalry division last October 14. Here for a couple of days on business and pleasure. Chaplain and Mrs. Pond arrived yesterday.

Mother Ill—The Rev. Henry W. Anderson, until recently on duty here as a CCC chaplain, left by plane last night for San Francisco to be at the bedside of his mother, who was reported critically ill. Chaplain Anderson expected to return to Medford by plane as soon as the condition of his mother permits. He will then leave by auto with his family for Camp Murray, Wash., where he is to report for duty with the 41st division. June 27.

Meant Vote—New Orleans (U.P.)—If a man got his shirt washed in Lafourche parish back in 1852, he could vote. The Work Project Administration has uncovered the minutes of the Lafourche parish police jury, dated June 8, 1852, stating that a man's domicile was where he had his washing done.

Goes Sightseeing—Rochester, N. Y. (U.P.)—Pete, a 40-pound racoon again is in the woodlands of Irondequoit after a journey through the federal building here. Pete walked into the building uninvited, but stayed as a guest of Arthur Carpenter. Carpenter served the coon a fish dinner and then turned it over to a game protector.

Dedicated To Athlete—Columbus, O. (U.P.)—Scarlet Key, Ohio State university athletic manager's association, has dedicated a Buckeye tree to Jimmy Hull, basketball great. Hull was the first cage star so honored in all-America row in a plot on the university campus.

Joan Crawford has Dramatic Role in 'A Woman's Face'

Presenting Joan Crawford in the most striking dramatic role of her career, with Melvyn Douglas as her co-star and Conrad Veidt the third member of a strange triangle, "A Woman's Face" comes to the Craterian theatre Sunday for a three-day showing. Also featured are Osa Massen, Reginald Owen, Albert Bassermann, Marjorie Main and Donald Meek.

Plays Bazooka

Hilarious Bob Burns and his bazooka is helping Bing Crosby and Martha Raye to "lay patrons in the aisles with laughter" at the Rialto theatre where their 1937 success, "Waikiki Wedding," is playing until tomorrow night. Back by popular demand, "Waikiki Wedding" features Shirley Ross and five song hits including: "Sweet Leilani" and "In a Little Blue Heaven."

Warship Sponsor Loyal—Salt Lake City, Utah (U.P.)—When Mrs. H. Walter Thomas of Salt Lake City christens the new U. S. destroyer, Fitch, next October, she won't use the usual bottle of champagne. Mrs. Thomas plans to take a bottle of water from the Great Salt Lake to Boston for the christening.

Drives On—Sheridan Wyo. (U.P.)—When Alma White, 34, of Hudson, Colo., cut a gash in her head on the windshield wiper in an automobile accident, she wrapped a towel around her head and drove 40 miles here for medical aid. Doctors said she virtually was "scalped."
