

Rogues Face Crescent City Here Sunday in Final First Half Tilt

LOCALS NEED WIN TO CLINCH TOGA; HAYNES TO PITCH

Southpaw Yammer Slated to Fling for Merchants—Batting Averages Listed

Medford's Rogues will be shooting for the first half championship of the Southern Oregon league here Sunday afternoon when they entertain the Crescent City Merchants at the high school park at 2:30 sharp. With four victories and one defeat, Manager Paul Hoffard's gang of kids will clinch the first-half title by conquering the visitors, but the big skipper figures it may prove rather difficult to accomplish in view of the fact that Crescent City, two weeks ago, handed his club their lone loss of the season. However, Hoffard is confident the lads will turn the trick.

Virgil Haynes, ex-U. of Oregon righthanded pitcher, is slated to take the mound for the locals, with Billy Calvert back of the plate. Yammer, a southpaw who turned back the Rogues a couple of weeks ago, will probably be on the mound for the coast team.

By For G. P.
The first-half race ends Sunday, with the Medford-Crescent City tilt being the only game scheduled. Grants Pass will draw a bye.

Following are the Rogue batting averages as released by Manager Hoffard:

	AB	R	H	Ave.
B. Gitzon	3	0	2	.667
Catherwood	11	3	7	.636
Hoffard	13	3	6	.461
Adams	16	2	7	.438
Hampel	12	2	4	.333
J. Gitzon	22	5	6	.273
Swaryck	10	1	2	.200
Miller	13	1	2	.153
Cook	22	2	3	.137
Fawcett	19	2	2	.105
Piche	5	2	0	.000

Hampel and Catherwood lead the team in home runs with one apiece. Catherwood leads in runs batted in with four. Cook has hit three triples. Hampel and Catherwood have each belted one double. Johnny Gitzon leads in stolen bases with two and Hoffard has drawn the most walks, four.

MOORE'S 10TH INNING SINGLE GIVES ANGELS 2-1 WIN OVER BEAVERS

By the Associated Press
Sacramento's plunge from the Coast league's baseball pinnacle is gathering momentum—and so is Seattle's belated winning streak.

For the third straight time the Solons bowed to Hollywood's second-division Stars last night, losing, 10-9. Meanwhile, second-place Seattle took a 6-1 decision from San Francisco to climb to within 1½ games of the lead—a long way except for a hot club.

Oakland's surprising Acorns ran up their third consecutive win over third-place San Diego, by an 8-5 score. The loss dropped San Diego a game and a half behind Seattle.

John Moore's tenth-inning single, driving in Johnny Stamper, gave Los Angeles a 2-1 victory over Portland. It was the Angels' second straight ten-stanza one-run-margin win over the Beavers.

GUN CLUB SHOOT SUNDAY MORNING

The Medford Gun club will shoot at the usual time at the club at the north end of the airport Sunday morning. Skeet shooting will be first on the program starting at 11 o'clock sharp in order to start the 16-year regular trap events by noon and complete all shooting by 2 o'clock. Skeet shooters are urged to be on time in order not to delay the other events.

Next big trapshooting event in the state will be the Grand Pacific handicap held in Portland next month, followed by the Pacific Indian shoot at Lake Crescent, Washington, in August. The Grand American handicap, trapshooting's national championship program, will be held at Vandalia, Ohio, in August the week following the Grand Pacific in Portland. The public is invited to attend the Medford Gun club shoots every Sunday.

Novikoff Hangs Up Suit

Lou (the mad Russian) Novikoff, rookie outfielder the Chicago Cubs bought from Los Angeles to be a major factor in the reconstruction of their club, hangs up his uniform for the last time in Chicago. He has been sent to the Milwaukee Brewers under option to see if he can regain the batting prowess which made his famous on the coast.

LEIBER TO HURL LEAGUE CONTEST

Dutch Leiber and Bob Fox will split the pitching chores for the Medford Craters this week-end when the locals travel to Albany for a two-game series with the Oaks Saturday night and Sunday afternoon, Manager Lou Sauer said today.

Leiber, who flung the Craters to a 5-2 victory over Eugene last Sunday, will pitch the regular Oregon State league game, while Fox will work the exhibition tussle. Sauer said he believed the Sunday game would be the league contest, but added that whichever game counted in the standings would see Leiber taking the Crater rubber.

Albany is expected to send Oscar (Red) Miller to the rubber in the league tilt, with Glen Elliott pitching the exhibition fray.

The Craters will have their regular lineup intact for the first game of the league's second-half race. Frankie Roelandt will catch, with Spike Johnson on first, Bobby Volk on second, Del Schroer on short, Bob Churchill on third, Al Lightner in left, Sauer in center and Joe Gray in right. Leiber arrived in town Thursday night and reported he was in great shape for the game.

Other loop tilts Sunday will find Eugene at Toledo, Bend at Klamath Falls and Silverton playing Hills Creek.

BARKER FINALS SLATED SUNDAY

Eddie Simmons and Ed Nichols, winner of the championship and second flights, respectively, will tee off for 18 holes Sunday morning at 9:30 in the finals of the annual Barker Palm Beach handicap tournament at the Rogue Valley Golf club. Simmons downed Dave Irving yesterday, 6 and 5, for the right to face Nichols, who plays with an 18 handicap to Simmons' 2 handicap.

The 72-hole sweepstakes handicap tournament will also start Sunday, and will be completed by July 15. Competitors are asked to turn in their score cards at the club house.

TWO CLASHES ON SOFTBALL SLATE

Rained out for the fourth time this season last night, the softballers are hopeful they can run off two games this evening under the lights at the senior high school stadium.

Gasco and Jennings Tire company are slated to collide at 8 o'clock, with Fluhrer's and Catholic Men taking the field an hour later.

CARDS, DODGERS DEADLOCKED FOR LOOP LEADERSHIP

Brooklyn Crushes Braves, 11-2 to Climb into Tie—DiMaggio Hits Safely

By Judson Bailey (Associated Press Writer)
The Brooklyn Dodgers and St. Louis Cardinals are in an exact tie for the National league lead today, and apparently they are going to keep right on fighting each other until the end of September.

This is an old custom in the senior circuit, but never any more fiercely contested than this year.

The Dodgers pulled into a tie last night by crushing the Boston Braves, 11-2, while all other teams in the league were idle.

One-Hitter
The New York Yankees held on to their slim percentage lead in the American league by humbling the St. Louis Browns 4-1 with a spectacular one-hit pitching performance by Lefty Marlowe.

DiMaggio doubled on his last time at bat to run his hitting streak to 38 consecutive games; and Tom Henrich homered to extend the club's record string of four-baggers to 35 in 21 straight games.

The Cleveland Indians rallied for six runs in the seventh inning to beat the Boston Red Sox 11-8 and prevent the Yanks from increasing their margin.

Johnson Homers
The Chicago White Sox and Washington Senators, who had battled 13 innings Wednesday, struggled through 16 innings yesterday until Washington finally edged out a 3-2 decision on Jimmy Bloodworth's run-producing single.

The Philadelphia Athletics took an 8-4 victory over the Detroit Tigers. Bob Johnson got his 15th and 16th homers of the season.

JUNIOR GOLF FINALS SCHEDULED FOR TODAY

Portland, June 27.—(P)—George Keep, Jr., of Oswego and Louis Stafford of Portland met today on the Alderwood country club course for the Oregon state junior golf title.

Keep advanced to the championship round by downing Buck McKendrick of Portland yesterday, 3 and 2, and Stafford beat John Frey, Portland, 1 up on the 20th green.

CHUCK HUNTER TO MEET BUD WARD IN SEMI-FINALS

By Gail Fowler

Spokane, June 27.—(P)—This is a story about a conscientious fellow who made a vow 10 years ago and kept it, probably explains why Chuck Hunter of Tacoma hasn't figured in any golf tournaments for the past decade.

You'll remember that in the late 1920s Chuck Hunter was way up there in Pacific Northwest golf circles. Then Chuck decided to be a lawyer.

"And when I decided to study law I decided in favor of law over golf," he says. "I quit tournament golf and gave myself 10 years to establish myself as a lawyer. I made up my mind I wouldn't knock off afternoons for a round of golf until my 10 years was up. It will be up in February and I will really start playing a lot then. This tournament is in the nature of a vacation and I'm tickled pink I've come this far."

How much farther Hunter will go depends on none other than Marvin "Bud" Ward of Spokane, the former national amateur champion. Hunter plays Ward in one of the two 36-hole features of the Pacific northwest men's amateur golf tournament at the Spokane Country club—Ward's home course—today.

In the other 36-hole semi-final match, Ken Black, the likeable Canadian amateur champion from Vancouver, B. C., will play Mat Palacio, Jr., of San Francisco, that city's present Olympic club champion and former California state titlist.

Hunter reached the semis yesterday by defeating Carl Johnson of Seattle, 2 and 1, and Ken Storey of Spokane, 1934 P.N.G.A. winner, 3 and 2.

Spokane, June 27.—(P)—Take it from the Portland contingent

—if any of the three Portlanders in the semi-finals of the Pacific northwest women's golf tourney has a chance to defeat Betty Jameson, the national women's champion, it's Babe Freese.

Miss Jameson, from San Antonio, Tex., is the only non-Portland in the running. Should she get past Babe Freese, she will be in the Saturday 36-hole final against either Sissy Green, another sensational 16-year-old Portlander, or Marion McDougall of Portland, who has reached at least the semi-finals of this tourney for the last nine consecutive years.

RUTH, TYRUS IN SECOND STRUGGLE

New York, June 27.—(P)—Babe Ruth, who hits 'em a mile where they're going, is on the spot in a golf match today.

Ten years ago when he used a bat and knew approximately where his pokes were coming down, the Babe probably would off the tee but isn't sure just have laughed at this situation. Didn't he stand in front of 50,000 folks in Chicago once, point to a section of the bleachers and calmly wallop a ball right to that spot?

But today, he either has to win in the second links meeting of these old baseball warriors, or he has to admit the Georgia Peach is the better man.
