Betrothal Told At Afternoon Tea At Day Home

At a tea Friday afternoon given by Mrs. John Stewart Day at her home on Groverland avenue, Miss Mary Jane Bragg and Miss Eleanor Bragg presented guests with gardenia corsages which held tiny cards linking the names of Valeria Gloria Getchell of this city and Hugh Howell, Jr., of Honolulu, T. H. Announcement of the betrothal was made to a large group of friends.

The Day home was decorated with white flowers and for the announcement party Miss Getchell chose an afternoon dress of pale turquoise with a corsage of white orchids, sent by her fiancé. Mrs. Day wore a lace-trimmed afternoon dress of blue with a gardenia corsage and Mrs. Delroy Getchell, mother of the bride-elect, was attired in a white and green afternoon suit and a corsage of gardenias.

Miss Getchell is the only daughter of Mrs. Delroy Getchell and the late Mr. Getchell, prominent in Minneapolis and Medford banking circles for half a century. She comes of distinguished New England ancestry, being the great-granddaughter of Captain David Dickinson and Captain James McClure of Revolutionary war fame.

Mr. Howell, who has visited at the Getchell home, is the son of Hugh Howell, well-known engineer in the Hawaiian Islands. He is an executive of the Hawaiian Trust company of Honolulu, T. H., and an officer and director of the Wai'alea Golf and Country club of that city.

The bride-elect has a wide circle of friends in Seattle where she attended St. Nicholas school and received her B. A. degree from University of Washington. She was affiliated with Delta Gamma social sorority. She is also well-known in the bay region as she is a graduate of Castilleja school at Palo Alto.

Pouring during the tea hour were Mrs. F. Corning Kenly, Mrs. Harold Gordon, Mrs. George Roberts, Mrs. Ben Day, Mrs. Eric Westergren and Mrs. Charles Barnes. Miss Mary Jane and Miss Eleanor Bragg are the daughters of Lawrence D. Bragg.

The wedding of Miss Getchell and Mr. Howell will be an event of mid-summer, upon Mr. Howell's arrival from the Islands.

Munks Guests At Carpenter Home

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Munk of Reed college, Portland, were houseguests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carpenter, Veritas Orchards, during their stay in Medford Friday evening. Dr. Munk appeared at the county court house auditorium as guest speaker on the League of Women Voter's program.

They left yesterday morning for Klamath Falls where Dr. Munk will join in the trip to Hart's mountain with the "Order of the Antelope." They plan to spend Monday at Crater lake before motoring north.
