

LOCAL and PERSONAL

To Klamath—Mrs. Norma Madden and son, Bobby, of 202 Portland avenue left for Klamath Falls this morning to spend a week visiting friends.

Visits Mother—Ray Koger of Oklahoma City, Okla., arrived here by train today for a two weeks' visit with his mother, Mrs. Susan Koger of Gold Hill.

Court Citation—Carl A. Perdue, 20, Medford, was cited by state police yesterday to appear in justice of the peace court this afternoon charged with driving a car with improper brakes.

Moves Office—Dr. George S. Jennings has moved his office from 424 Medford Center building to 426 in the same building, his new office rooms having been rearranged and redecorated.

Minor Accident—Augusta G. Padgham, Medford, and Solomon Fraley, Route 1, drove cars involved in a minor accident at Central avenue and Third street yesterday afternoon, according to a report on file today.

Week-end Trip—Miss Shirley Mae Brunn has returned to her home at 120 Genesee street after a week-end trip to Roseburg where she attended the wedding of a friend and visited her mother, Mrs. Irvin Brunn. Miss Brunn is a nurse at Community hospital.

Assigned—Arthur L. Hak-kemp of Prospect has been assigned to the infantry replacement training center at Camp Roberts, Cal., according to a notice received today from the reception center at Fort Lewis, Wash. Hak-kemp, the notice said, was registered in Portland.

Business Trip—Dudley G. Allen of Portland arrived here today by train after a business trip to San Francisco. Mr. Allen remained in Medford during his absence, residing at the Hotel Medford. They plan to spend the holiday week-end in southern Oregon.

New Radio Set—Jack Samuels, chief radio operator at CCC headquarters here, and Earl Seaville, assistant operator, today had a new short-wave receiver. The set is one of the latest and considered one of the most efficient of short wave receivers. Both operators reported fine reception and expressed the belief that the new set would eliminate a major portion of the interference which formerly had hampered radio reception in this locality. The receiver arrived yesterday from San Francisco and was immediately installed.

Stops Here—Mrs. H. M. Chadwick of Portland stopped here today for a brief visit with her mother, Mrs. Belle E. Littrell, 115 Newtown street, and her brother, E. A. Littrell, Ross Lane. Mrs. Chadwick was en route home by train after spending the winter in New York City.

Fines Levied—Carl Hoyer, Medford, and Lowell C. Edwards, 307 Chestnut street, both charged with violation of the basic traffic rule, were each fined $10 in city police court this morning. Roy M. Burham of King and Tenth street, charged with parking his car in an alley, was fined $5.

At Headquarters—Mark J. Pike, assistant forester for the CCC with the O. & C. administration was an official visitor yesterday at Medford CCC district headquarters. Mr. Pike conferred with George H. Fields, district educational adviser, on national defense training plans for the CCC. Mr. Pike's home office is in Portland.

Return Home—Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Randolph and daughter, Miss Barbara, 548 Pennsylvania avenue, have returned to Medford after a motor trip to Portland where they were called by the illness of Mrs. Randolph's mother, Mrs. J. G. Eaton, who recently underwent a major operation. En route home they stopped in Roseburg to visit other relatives of Mrs. Randolph.

Instructors' Course—Harold Berentson, first aid, water safety and accident prevention field representative for the American Red Cross will conduct a water safety instructor's course from July 7 to 11 at the Natatorium. Those eligible for the course must have completed the senior life-saving course. Further information may be secured by telephoning the Red Cross office.

In New Job—Cord E. Sunderman of 1716 East Main street this morning entered the employ of Myron Hunt & H. C. Chambers, architects for the proposed army cantonment here. Mr. Sunderman yesterday terminated his service as junior landscape engineer with the Rogue River national forest. He had most recently been stationed at Camp South Fork. He had been with the forest service about five years. His place in the forest service will be filled by someone already in the service, a reduction in personnel to be effected elsewhere because of disbandment of CCC companies, headquarters said.
