

TRUCK WEIGHTS CAUSE CITATIONS

Complaints charging violations of truck weight regulations were filed in justice court yesterday by state police. Defendants cited to appear at a later date were:

Vern D. Chamberlain, Shady Cove, axle overload; Merrill L. Sutton, weight on truck in excess of PUC weight receipt; Donnell E. Koenig, Eagle Point, axle overload; Terry R. Norval, no license of truck, and Arthur Farra, fined $10 and costs for having no PUC weight receipt.

Spencer L. Houston was cited for having no taillight on his auto and James C. Stelle for failure to stop at the Central and Sixth street intersection.

Statistics gathered by an airline for a period of months indicate only about three out of every 1,000 plane passengers become airsick.

MILL WORKERS TO REST THREE DAYS

Employees of the Medford Corporation and the Timber Products company will have a three-day holiday, starting Friday, for observance of the Fourth of July. Both plants will resume Monday. Logging camps generally will shut down for the same period, also several sawmills throughout the county.

Many Jackson county residents plan to spend the three-day holiday in the hills and at the seashore. The Ashland celebration will draw heavily.

The courthouse will be closed Friday, as well as all other public offices.

The Mail Tribune will issue an early edition.

A California society of railroad enthusiasts sponsors excursions over old mine and timber lines that carry no regular passenger traffic.

Rounded stones were used as projectiles in early cannon.

He's Cinderella Dog

Because he's the only dog in Hollywood who can bay in "A" key, Caruso, brown and white beagle from an S.P.C.A. shelter, has a job in the movies. Conductor Max Steiner (at piano) needed a hounds voice as part of the musical score for "Sergeant York," and among all the snooty and high-priced dogs in town, only Caruso was in exactly the right pitch. Steiner and Actress Joan Leslie listen to the dog in rehearsal.

ENSIGN BARNES IS KIWANIS SPEAKER

Ensign Curtis J. Barnes, former Medford boy who more recently has resided at Hollywood and a short time ago completed a course at the U. S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, told of his experiences as a naval cadet and of his work with the Walt Disney studios at the weekly luncheon-meeting of the Kiwanis club Monday in the Hotel Medford. Mr. Barnes, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Barnes of 20 North Peach street, illustrated his talk of the studios with drawings.

Adjutant and Mrs. Charles K. Cox, head of the Salvation Army here, entertained with a vocal duet, Sebastian Apollo being the accompanist.

Other local guests were R. E. Watson and Jack Boyd. Visiting Kiwanians were Dr. R. H. Armond of Great Falls, Mont., and Almon Conrod of San Bernardino, Cal.

"To be prepared for war is one of the most effectual ways of preserving peace..."

When George Washington spoke these words the world was a much smaller place. Transportation and communication facilities were such that it took considerably longer for anything to happen than it does today.

But there are certain thoughts that were as true then as they are now. This "preparation for war for the preservation of peace" is one of them. That is why the United States is hurrying to make itself the strongest nation on earth.

Your newspaper plays an important part in the preservation of peace by keeping its readers informed of their country's progress in preparation of war. Under the freedom guaranteed it in the Constitution, the American Press fearlessly voices the sentiments of the American people.
