SOLDIERS' HOST BEATEN, ROBBED HE TELLS POLICE

Although he was not "especially anxious to file a complaint," according to state police, Kenneth Sauby, who resides in the Osenbruge cabins on South Riverside avenue, early this morning told city and state police that two soldiers of the Ninth Army Corps beat him up and took $6 from him after he had entertained them during the evening.

Sauby reported to city police that the two soldiers, belonging to the mechanized caravan traveling from Camp Liggett in California to Camp Lewis, hit him in front of the Chicken Inn on South Riverside avenue about 1:30 this morning, took his $6 and walked away. City police said the two soldiers were seen walking north on Riverside avenue and later taking the 2:15 a. m. stage north.

The army caravan encamped in Grants Pass last night and was to remain there today. Some 400 vehicles passed through Medford late yesterday morning and early afternoon.

Talking to state police this morning, Sauby displayed a black eye. He was quoted as saying that he wasn't anxious to prosecute, but that he just wanted his $6 back. He was informed that it would be necessary for him to go to Grants Pass and identify the soldiers, and police were unable to say whether he had done this.

San Francisco, July 4.—(P)—The department of commerce said today the Canadian government had advised that arrangements had been made under which Great Britain will take 1,200,000 cases of canned salmon from British Columbia.

Lady Diana Draws Fine For Illegal Swill Car Parking

London, July 4.—(P)—Lady Diana Duff Cooper, wife of Alfred Duff Cooper, minister of information, was fined 25 shillings ($5.00) today at Bognor Regis, Sussex, for parking her car on the wrong side of the road and driving without a license.

She explained she was unable to park properly because she couldn't back up with the trailer in which she was "collecting swill for pigs."

She is the former actress, Lady Diana Manners.

U. S. DIVE BOMBER SUPPLY GROWING

Washington, July 4.—(P)—The army air force has started to receive regular deliveries on dive-bombers. It was learned today, and plans have been completed for organizing by November at least six squadrons of these improved American counterparts of Germany's famed Stukas.

Authoritative indications were that approximately 100 dive-bombers would be available for use in fall maneuvers when American troops will receive their first large scale training in the coordinated employment of air and ground forces.

In addition to these new army planes, a flight of navy dive bombers will participate in the maneuvers, but the army has not yet indicated the number of navy planes involved.
