

EUGENE PAGEANT TO BRING MALES OUT OF AMBUSH

Eugene, July 4.—(Sp)—The entire male population of Eugene is unshaven at present, and will remain that way until July 26, but it is not because Eugeneans are uncivilized. The no-shaving decree is part of the preparation for Eugene's famed Oregon Trail Pageant, July 24, 25 and 26.

The pageant, presented triennially, commemorates settling of the Oregon country and the old west by the doughty pioneers of the 1800's, and the beard is a necessary part of the re-creating process. A black-shirted band of "Whiskalantes" sees that no man shaves for six weeks prior to the outstanding celebration, with swift punishment dealt to violators of the ordinance.

Arrival of Doris Smith, director of the pageant since its inception in 1928, initiated activity some two weeks ago in all departments connected with the pageant.

A huge stage where the three nightly shows will be presented is being constructed at the Lane county fairgrounds under direction of Horace Robinson, co-director of the pageant. The cast of 2500 dancers and singers is being organized under direction of Mildred LeCompte Moore and John Stark Evans, respectively.

Script for the panoramic epic has been completed by W. F. G. Thacher, professor of Journalism at the University of Oregon, who has authorized the pageant show since it began.

Ruler of this mythical western three-day kingdom will be Queen Susannah V, who will be selected from six eligible contestants already chosen. The sextet represents the various civic and fraternal organizations in Lane county, and from it will be chosen a beautiful and majestic queen to represent the spirit of the old west that reigned supreme in the 1800's.

GOLD HILL CHEMIST ON STAND IN TRIAL OF MAIL FRAUD CASE

Spokane, July 4.—(P)—L. I. Smith of Gold Hill, Ore., former chief chemist of the Harrison Engineering company laboratories in Denver, testified in federal court here Thursday he never did know whether assays he made showed values of precious metals indicated in the assay reports.

George Harrison, owner of the engineering company and more recently a chemist in Detroit, is on trial on an indictment charging him with using the mails to defraud western mining men of $70,000 through false claims regarding his secret formula for precipitating mineral values from ore.

Smith, who said he was bound by oath not to reveal the technical details of the Harrison formula, testified he received ore samples from the office and conducted the assays by using the secret solution, agitating it and then weighing the precipitate.

He said he never knew where the samples were obtained and turned figures on the precipitates over to Mrs. G. H. Dolmage, Harrison's secretary, who figured the weight per ton.

710 at U. of O.
Eugene, Ore., July 4.—(P)—Summer session enrollment at the University of Oregon was listed today by Dr. Dan E. Clark, director, as 710. Late registrations are expected to boost the total to over 750.

CIO Restrained
Tillamook, Ore., July 4.—(P)—A temporary injunction restrained CIO loggers from picketing the C. F. Stone lumber camp near here today. Circuit Judge R. Frank Peters issued the injunction after being told an AFL-CIO dispute was holding up production.

"Las Vegas Nights" Here Sunday

A grand galaxy of beautiful girls, top-notch comedians and the nation's Number One band and its leader—go to make up for one of the biggest and fastest musical comedy shows ever to come to the screen—in "Las Vegas Nights", a musical story of America's hottest town (in more ways than one), which comes to the Rialto theatre for Sunday and Monday. Those starred are Tommy Dorsey and his orchestra, Bert Wheeler, Constance Moore, Phil Regan, Betty Brewer, Lillian Cornell, Virginia Dale and Red Donahue and his mule "Uno". The highlight of the film is said to be Dorsey and his orchestra swinging "Song of India", "I'll Never Smile Again", "Dolores", "Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary" and five others.

Stars of Craterian Westerner

Combining thrilling action with hilarious comedy, "The Lady from Cheyenne", starring Loretta Young, with Robert Preston heading the supporting cast, comes to the Craterian theatre Sunday for three days. The story of a girl from Philadelphia who ventures into the brawling frontier of Wyoming in the early 1870s, the picture shows Loretta Young in her first western role, that of the eastern girl who matches wits with a gang of frontier racketeers with some hilarious results.

Romantic Jane

The screen's favorite today, Jane Withers, sets out to get herself a boyfriend in her newest fun feature, "A Very Young Lady", which plays today and tomorrow only at the Rialto theatre with holiday schedules prevailing today as well as tomorrow. Nancy Kelly and John Sutton are with Miss Withers. "In Old Cheyenne", starring Roy Rogers, plays as the added feature with "A Very Young Lady."

Theatres Announce Holiday Schedules

Today being the 4th of July, the Craterian and Rialto theatres are on holiday schedule, with two complete shows matinee and evening.

Matinee shows at the Craterian theatre will start at 2:00 and 4:00 o'clock with doors opening at 1:45. Doors open at 6:45 and evening shows start at 7:00 and 9:15 o'clock.

At the Rialto theatre, matinees will be at 2:00 and 3:15 with doors opening at 1:45. Evening shows—with doors opening at 6:45—will be at 7:00 and 9:30.

BRITISH CENSORSHIP MUST CONSIDER TWO VIEWPOINTS IN U. S.

London, July 4.—(P)—Assignment of senior officers of the fighting services and the foreign office to the ministry of information to expedite censorship was announced today and promptly accepted by Minister of Information Alfred Duff Cooper.

Duff Cooper, who is rumored to have offered to resign over criticism of his ministry, said in the house of commons that "the arrangement now arrived at is one which I believe can be made to work satisfactorily."

He said that "on the home front," news releases had been little criticized but he added it had been "suggested that we should do more to bring home to the people of the United States the seriousness of the situation."

"There is always danger of exaggerating and there are two schools of thought fighting against us in the United States. At the head of one is Lindbergh who says it's no good helping Britain because she's defeated already while others say that it's unnecessary to copy ships because the battle of the Atlantic is practically won and that British losses are very light."

"The truth is the right answer, namely, that the position is still very serious but that it's slowly improving. The more readily American assistance is given to us the shorter will be the duration of the war."

Buddha Reincarnated
Chungking, China, July 4.—(P)—Officials of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's government received word today that special delegates sent into northern Sikkim province were satisfied the Panchen Lama, living Buddha of Tibet, has been reincarnated.

Favorites Back
These hilarious Weaver Brothers and their sister, Elvira, are on a hillbilly rampage again in their newest fun-film, "Friendly Neighbors", which plays tonight only and Saturday at the Roxy theatre. The threesome gives out with some new hill tunes and a score of comic situations.

Clarence E. Mulford's "Three Men from Texas", starring William Boyd again as Hopalong Cassidy, plays as the added Western with the hilarity feature.
