RAINIERS TAKE THIRD IN ROW FROM BEAVERS TO CUT SOLONS' LEAD

By the Associated Press
The Russians and Germans may issue counter claims of success and defeat, warring factions of the city council may take verbal shots at each other, but the thing which interests Seattle baseball fans the most at present is the way their Rainiers and the San Diego Padres are whittling at the Pacific coast league lead of the Sacramento Solons.

Today the Rainiers are only nine and a half games behind the solons for two reasons. They defeated the Portland Beavers in Portland last night, 2-1 for their third win of the series and their fifth consecutive triumph. The Padres spanked the Senators for the third night in a row, 7-4.

Los Angeles expanded before the largest crowd of the Hollywood season, 8,000 persons, and beat the Stars, 7-5.

The scores: R. H. E.
Seattle 2 6 2
Portland 1 5 1
Barrett and Collins; Harrell, Callahan and Annunzio.

MASONS, STARS PLAN PICNIC ON SUNDAY, JULY 20

Masons, Eastern Stars and their families and invited guests will gather at Jackson Hot Springs, Sunday, July 20, for a big Southern Oregon picnic.

The committee in charge includes Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Norris, Mr. and Mrs. Woody Morris, Chester Hubbard, Ray Frisbie, Paul Selby, Mrs. Leticia Kunz, Mrs. Esther Fliegel, and Mrs. Ruth Freed.

Those attending are asked to bring their own picnic lunch, knives, forks, spoons, cups and plates. The Masonic and Eastern Star bodies of Medford will furnish coffee, sugar, cream and ice cream. The ladies are asked to wear slacks or play clothes.

Invitations are being extended to all members, including Ashland, Central Point, and Jacksonville, as well as others residing here whether members of any of the local lodges or not.

The affair will begin at 4 o'clock with stunts and games, and a baseball game between the Eastern Star and Masons. The Stars have challenged the boys and promise them a good trimming. Following the games dinner will be served around 5:30.

Arrangements are being made for the Hillah Temple Shrine band, under leadership of Ward Croft of Ashland to play during the evening.

Anyone wishing to attend the picnic and not having a way to go is asked to call Aubrey Norris at 3123 and he will make arrangements for their transportation.

This is the first picnic of this kind to be held for some time and every effort is being made by the committee to make it a huge success. It is anticipated that several hundred members and guests will be present.

Weather

LOUIS EXHIBITS IN FOUR-ROUNDER

Minneapolis, July 11.—(P)—Picking up some pocket change for a Minnesota fishing and golf trip, Joe Louis has a four-round exhibition number with Jimmy Robinson of Philadelphia here tonight.

Family and draft troubles put the heavyweight boxing champion in a good mood for a real scrap. He expressed disappointment that his business department signed him up for a pillow fight.

But the date was made several weeks ago before Joe was stirred first by a divorce suit by his wife, Marva, and next by a sort of companion gesture about the draft board considering a higher selective classification for the title holder. The boxing papers provided that fourteen-ounce gloves be used, that the bout be advertised as an "exhibition," that Louis' title be not at stake and some similar softening provisions. Joe's mood for battle was heightened by a stopover in Chicago to file his answer to the divorce action, saying he had not been a mean old family man at all.

Succeeds Byrnes
Columbia, S. C., July 11.—(P)—Gov. Burnet R. Maybank has appointed Alva Moore Lumpkin, of Columbia, 55-year-old federal district judge to fill the seat in the U. S. senate vacated by James F. Byrnes, now a supreme court justice.

Wool Bids Rejected
Gold Beach, Ore., July 11.—(P)—The Curry county wool pool rejected all bids yesterday on the 300,000-pound Curry county wool clip. Rumors of a treaty with South America to lift the tariff duty, loaded mills and a dull market were reported unofficially as the reasons for the rejection.

Gold production in Nicaragua this year is expected to reach a record of $7,000,000.

Aussies In Beirut
Damascus, Syria, July 10.—(P)—(Delayed)—A British military spokesman tonight asserted that an Australian detachment had arrived in the immediate suburbs of Beirut.
