

120 GET TRAINING IN PACKING PEARS AT LOCAL SCHOOL

Second Session Will Start First Week in August — Composition Pears Used

By Jeannette Butler
With L. M. Bodin, formerly with Rogue River Orchards company, as superintendent, Mrs. Patricia Riley as office manager, six instructors and 120 students, the Vocational Training Pear Packing School opened Monday noon at Pinnacle No. 2, South Front and Fourteenth streets. Two shifts are being conducted daily, from one to five in the afternoon and from six to ten in the evening, with sixty students in each shift.

The number of registrants has, to date, reached 185, the school still receiving applications for the second session which will start during the first week in August. The time of shifts may be changed after fruit picking starts, Mr. Bodin stated.

Use Composition Pears
Composition pears, furnished by the University of Oregon, are now being used for the practice pack, the "laboratory" work consisting of wrapping and packing the "pears", removing them from the box and repeating the practice. Instructors are Nora Kirkpatrick, Alice Wolff, Rose Kindie, Lena Clemens, Lois McKee and Mary Lou Vorhies.

Certificates to be used as "diplomas" when the students graduate will be issued by the Oregon State Educational department at Salem and will be given without fee to the graduates. The majority of students are said to be from Medford and surrounding rural districts with a few from Ashland and Gold Hill.

CHRISTIAN YOUTH INSTALLATION SET

Annual installation will be held by the Christian Youth council Monday evening, in Lithia Park at Ashland. All young people of the various church organizations are asked to meet at 7:45 p. m. at the Presbyterian church in Medford. The group will then drive to Ashland for the ceremony which is termed one of the most important on the organization's calendar.

The Rev. R. W. Coleman has been elected adviser for the coming year. The Rev. Werner Jensen will officiate at the installation. After the formal meeting a watermelon feed will be enjoyed. All are urged to attend.

"Aeroplane" Editor Gets Secret Trial

London, July 17—(AP)—Edwin Colston Shepherd, editor of "Aeroplane," Britain's leading non-official authority on military aviation, went on secret trial today on a charge of publishing "information which might directly or indirectly be useful to the enemy."

MEDFORD HOTEL LOUNGE TO OPEN 4 P. M. TOMORROW

The Hotel Medford Lounge, southern Oregon's newest and most luxuriously modern lounge will be opened to the public Friday, July 18, at 4 p. m., under the management of George Robertson. The lounge will be operated under the new Oregon law governing cocktail bars. It will be open daily from 11 a. m. to 2 a. m.

The small dining room on the main floor of the hotel has been completely remodeled into the lounge and equipped with air conditioning. There is a direct entrance from Ivy street into the lounge, as well as an entrance from the hotel lobby.

The lounge is finished in bleached mahogany to give an ultra-modernistic atmosphere. Furnishings carry out the same smart styling. The booths will be cushioned in blue leather and the cocktail bar will be similarly styled. A rose carpet will soften the tread of feet as well as serve a decorative purpose.

Flourescent lamps will provide a soft flood of illumination and blue mirrors will form a flattering wall background.

Mr. Robertson, the manager, is well known throughout southern Oregon. He has served as manager of the Rogue River Valley Golf association and is widely known as a sports arbiter.

Elbert "Irish" Coleman, Chet Coe and Del Marshall will be regular members of the staff of the smart new Hotel Medford lounge.

BANK BOOKKEEPER PICKED SLOW NAGS

Chicago, July 17—(AP) A slender, slightly bald man of 32, a trusted bank employee for 15 years, was held today for authorities of Lancaster, Pa., after police said he confessed embezzling and losing $250,000 on slow racehorses. He was charged with a total shortage of $307,000.

William D. Sahn's story, as related by Detective John Murphy, had a familiar tone—the modestly paid bookkeeper, a passion for gambling, successful covering of a small peculation, repeated thefts "to get even and quit," the faithful, unsuspecting wife, and another woman.
