Jailed—Joseph J. White, 45, charged with drunkenness, was sentenced to serve five days in the city jail by City Judge William Allen this morning.

Back On Job—County Judge J. B. Coleman returned to his post at the courthouse for a few hours yesterday afternoon and it was thought he would be able to spend a short time at his desk again this afternoon. Suffering from strain and overwork, Judge Coleman has been under a doctor's care for three weeks.

Two-Count Fine—William H. Rupe, 39, Prospect, was assessed a total of $15.50 in justice of the peace court yesterday on two charges filed by state police. He was fined $5 and costs of $4.50 for failure to operate on the right side of the highway and $1.50 and costs for not having an operator's license. He pleaded guilty to both charges.

To Tacoma—Mrs. Glen C. Sanders, 10 Quince street, is leaving tonight by train for Tacoma, Wash., where she has been called by the serious condition of her sister, Mrs. George Colvey, who was injured yesterday in an auto accident near Ontario. Mrs. Colvey was taken to Tacoma in an ambulance. She was reported paralyzed from the accident.

Drivers Fined—Arche I. Hall, 31, Prospect, was fined $1 and $4.50 costs in justice of the peace court yesterday on a charge of operating a car with a void foreign license. When he bought the car at a local used-car lot, the auto had California plates and he operated it without getting Oregon plates, the court was told. John F. Hansen, 31, Palace hotel, was fined $1 and costs for operating a logging truck that had no stop-light. Both men pleaded guilty.

Job Tests—Carpenters, electricians, machinists, painters, plumbers and steamfitters are needed by the quartermaster corps, war department, in Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana. It was indicated today in a U. S. civil service commission announcement of examinations to fill these positions. The grades range from helper to foreman. Full information may be procured at Medford postoffice from Earl H. York, secretary of the local board of civil service examiners.
