

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Fined—Orville P. Gilmore, a transient, was fined $5 and $4.50 costs in justice of the peace court yesterday afternoon on a charge of being drunk on a public highway.

Camera Stolen—O. W. Miller reported to city police yesterday that a camera valued at $20 was stolen out of his car when it was parked in front of the Bear Creek Orchards packing plant.

Minor Mishap—Mary E. Gritsch of 335 South Ivy street and R. R. Hupp of Route 1 drove cars involved in a slight mishap at Fir and Main streets yesterday afternoon, a report on file said today.

Visitors Leave—Mr. and Mrs. A. F. McDermott and daughter, Lolaine left by train last evening for their home in Los Angeles after spending a week visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Denison of 304 West Jackson boulevard. Mrs. McDermott and Mrs. Denison are sisters.

Overnight Guests—Mrs. Agnes Safford and her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Safford, left by motorcar yesterday morning for their home in Glendale, Cal., after spending the night here as guests of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Gribble, 139 Kenwood avenue. The visitors were returning home after a vacation trip to Seattle. They arrived here Wednesday afternoon.

Leave For Home—Mrs. H. D. Neely and her daughter Shirley left Wednesday by car for their home in Portland after spending two weeks here at the home of Mrs. Neely's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Gribble, 139 Kenwood avenue. Miss Alyce Schneider, also of Portland and a friend of the family, accompanied the visitors home. She had been a guest at the Gribble home since last Friday. Mrs. Neely's husband, a lieutenant in the air corps stationed at the Portland base, is to return to Portland early next month from Fort Leavenworth, Kas., where he has been taking special studies.

Appointed—On file in the county clerk's office today was an order by County Judge J. B. Coleman appointing V. E. Rolfe, Richard Payne and Paul Meyers appraisers for the estates of Clarence E. and Alta E. Walbert, young Medford couple missing in a small plane since last November. The order was issued on motion of Frank P. Farrell, attorney for the administrator and trustee of the estates.

Worker Fined—Bruce Brumfield, 19, a transient farm worker, was fined $10 and $4.50 costs in justice of the peace court yesterday afternoon for striking Arthur Rayworth, superintendent of the Kershaw orchard, yesterday morning when Rayworth tried to advise him on how to do his work better. A complaint charging assault and battery was filed by Gordon Kershaw, owner of the orchard. Brumfield pleaded guilty.

To Resume—Lodge activities will be resumed at the Masonic temple with the beginning of September after a summer recess during July and August. Officers said that all signs point to a busy year in the Blue Lodge, the York and Scottish Rite bodies and the Eastern Star. First to resume activities will be Crater Lake chapter No. 32, R. A. M., the session being scheduled for 8 p. m. next Tuesday at the temple. All Masons are invited to the meetings of the lodges to which they belong.

Publicizes Oregon—Miss Kathryn L. Gunnell of Salem stopped in Medford today while en route north after a nine months' tour of central and southern California publicizing Oregon with a lecture program and natural color pictures of the state. She was driving an automobile painted with scenic pictures of Oregon. Miss Gunnell's tour was sponsored by five chambers of commerce in the Willamette valley: Newburg, Independence, Stayton, Mt. Angel and Silverton. The back of her car was devoted to a large painting of Crater lake, symbolizing southern Oregon. Miss Gunnell said that many tourists approached her, asking about Oregon and that she distributed folders on Oregon to those interested.

Plane Passengers—J. Neil arrived by United Mainliner from Sacramento this noon. Leaving on the same plane were H. Gridley and M. Boscack to Yakima, Wash., and C. Johnson, to Portland. Arriving this forenoon were Miss G. Everett, from Portland, and E. Hanley, from Seattle. Leaving were Miss M. Hadden, to Los Angeles, and E. Thompson, to San Francisco. Thompson, from Los Angeles, and W. Van Vleet, from Fresno, Cal. A Kinkaid arrived from Seattle early last night. Leaving for Los Angeles were C. Babcock and C. Jandt. E. McClus-

Masie in Prizefighter Film

Probably no other screen character has achieved so great a nationwide following as that of "Masie," the wise-cracking showgirl portrayed by Ann Sothern—and Masie's latest adventures take her to the training camp of the world's lightweight champion when she becomes involved with a prizefighter and his hard-boiled manager in "Ringside Masie," which comes to the Rialto theatre for Sunday and Monday. George Murphy plays the manager and Robert Sterling the fighter, and between the two Masie finds herself in the most hilarious and entertaining experiences she has ever undergone.

Big Game Hunter

Walter Pidgeon portrays the famous big game hunter who becomes the object of a relentless pursuit in "Man Hunt," coming to the Craterian theatre Sunday and hailed everywhere as one of the most exciting motion pictures ever brought to the screen. Joan Bennett is the girl in whose arms he finds a brief moment of respite, and George Sanders is also in the cast as the leader of the man hunt. The picture recently was given much space in Life Magazine as the most suspenseful film play of the season.

Arrived last evening from Portland. R. Boalt departed for Oakland, Cal., on the same plane. C. H. Jones arrived from San Francisco early last evening. W. Heaman left for Portland on the same plane. Arriving from San Francisco yesterday afternoon were Mrs. C. Berry, C. Lyon and Mrs. B.

Taber. Departing for Portland were J. Herrin and L. Canfield. Old Fashioned Revival Charles E. Fuller, Director Old Hymns and Gospel Preaching. WED 8:00 p.m. Sunday 1:45-4:00 p.m. Continues International Gospel Broadcast.

ENGINEER HERE ON CAMP WORK

E. E. Blackie of Blackie & Wood, civil and consulting engineers, arrived here today for a two-day conference with his associates who are working on plans for the proposed army cantonment here. Blackie & Wood is associated with Myron Hunt and H. C. Chambers, Los Angeles architects, on the cantonment project.
