

ARGENTINE NAZIS ALL SET TO BACK HITLER TO DEATH

Buenos Aires, Aug. 29.—(AP)—German Ambassador Edmund Von Therman was charged by a congressional investigating committee today with receiving money from ostensible German welfare organizations and using it for ends "foreign to his diplomatic character."

The committee, which has been investigating anti-Argentine activities for two months, submitted to the house of deputies its report on Nazi penetration.

It said there were 60,000 Germans in Argentina organized into cells and under oath to obey Adolf Hitler and other Nazi leaders "to the death."

Paul Damonte Taborda, committee chairman, in a synopsis of the report cited a receipt for 100,000 pesos allegedly bearing Von Therman's signature and acknowledging payments by German welfare organizations which the committee charged were the "Nazi political machine in disguise."

He said a special report on activities of the German embassy staff would be presented later to congress.

The committee, formed June 21 after newspaper charges that military officers and civilians had plotted to overthrow the government, revealed that the Argentine foreign office protested to Berlin against Von Therman's activities as much as three years ago.

In 1938, the report said, the foreign office protested that Von Therman "pretended to control Argentine sons of Germans" on the ground they were Germans.

The War Today

By
Dewitt MacKenzie,

The attempted assassination of Pierre Laval in Versailles, and the widespread sabotage directed against the Nazi overlordship in France, may be the grim outward signs of a rebirth of the French nation.

If there is any surprise attached to the attack on Laval, it surely must lie in the fact that it didn't come sooner, for he walked in the shadow of death. This pro-Nazi politician, who had been the premier of a free republic, has been standing for collaboration with that Hitlerian regime which for a time appeared not only to have crushed the body of France but to have killed her spirit as well.

The bullets which tore at Laval's flesh probably weren't fired at him because of personal hatred, but because he symbolized the hob-nailed boots of military might which had trampled the republic. The shots were aimed at Hitlerism, and not at Laval in particular.

It may be unfortunate for France that events should have taken such an explosive turn at this juncture. It can only result in the exaction of great penalties by the Germans. Already they are speeding their round-up of enemies of the Nazi regime. The glittering blade of the guillotine is again in operation.

This column recently reported that Britain seemed worried lest the growing spirit of revolt among the peoples of the occupied countries might result in premature uprisings against the Germans. This could only hurt the allied cause, since the punishments inflicted by the Nazis would tend to intimidate other conquered nations.

Since my report, but prior to the Laval incident, London broadcast a warning to the French not to revolt too soon and thereby risk their lives unnecessarily.

By the way—frequently there is a thought which I should like to call to the attention of the reader but which is irrelevant to the subject under discussion and so is discarded. Perhaps this difficulty can be solved by using this little "by the way" space from time to time for such briefs. Here is today's by the way:

If one of those gossip sparrows told you that a mountain of American dollars would enable the Chinese to rush the building of a railway along that lifeline known as the Burma road, which winds its way dargling through mountain ranges and great gorges—and if the bold bird further suggested that this was symptomatic of a sensational all-out aid which would mean that Japan never could subjugate China—then would you think this explained in part the anxiety of Nippon to reach some understanding with Uncle Sam? Anyway, keep an eye on the Burma road.

Best Foods Real Mayonnaise is different from "Salad Dressing." It is all mayonnaise—real mayonnaise—with no starchy filler in it. It doesn't turn watery when you add milk or fruit juices.

And this Real Mayonnaise tastes even fresher than home-made, for it is made with our own "FRESH-PRESS" Salad Oil which we ourselves prepare fresh each day, as it is needed. Then, in our powerful new kind of double-whipper the ingredients are so completely blended that Real Mayonnaise, with all its home-made richness, is even lighter and creamier in texture than home-made, and has a zestfully light, delicate flavor, free from oily taste.
