

SOCIETY and CLUB NEWS of the WEEK

By BETTY SHOEMAKER

Miss Tyrrell Weds Rev. Bowdoin in Sunday Ceremony

Married Sunday afternoon at the First Presbyterian church in Rogue River were Miss Margaret Arlene Tyrrell, daughter of A. M. Tyrrell of Rogue River and Rev. Joseph A. Bowdoin, son of Mrs. Carl Worley of Klamath Falls. Attending were relatives and friends of the couple.

The ceremony was read by the Rev. Mr. Roberts of Medford, as the wedding party stood before a large arch banked with gladioli and ferns. Miss Eileen Dick played the traditional wedding music and Mrs. Madge Stiehl sang, "Always" and "My Savior and Shepherd."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in an afternoon dress of promenade blue with golden tobacco accessories. She was attended by her sister, Miss Arletta Tyrrell of Rogue River, who wore an afternoon dress of benedictine brown with dark brown accessories. The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Willard Bowdoin of Klamath Falls. Ushers were George Martin, Jr., and Willis Stiehl.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the A. M. Tyrrell home. The couple left on a month's wedding trip and will be at home to their friends in the Rogue River manse where Rev. Bowdoin will continue his work as minister of the Presbyterian church.

Out-of-town guests attending were Mrs. Carl Worley, mother of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Willard Bowdoin of Klamath Falls and Mrs. Luella M. Stearns of Ashland.

Glenna Minear, Charles Thompson Wedded, Aug. 24

Miss Glenna Minear, daughter of Mrs. Jessie M. Minear of this city and Charles H. Thompson, Jr., of Washington, D. C., were married last Sunday at 3 p. m. at the home of the bride's mother. Immediate relatives of the bride were present for the ceremony.

The bride wore a basque-styled wedding gown of white marquisette trimmed with lace with a shoulder length veil. She carried a bouquet of lilies and pink roses.

Miss Bradley Thompson of Washington, D. C., sister of the groom, attended the bride. She wore a pink net floor-length gown trimmed with blue ribbon and carried a bouquet of pink roses and blue delphinium. Donald Minear, brother of the bride, was best man.

The service was read by the Rev. L. F. Belknap, pastor of the First Methodist church, before a background of white gladioli and palms.

Following the wedding an informal reception honored the wedding party. The service table was centered with a bouquet of white gladioli and on either side were lighted white tapers. The wedding cake was cut by the bride.

The couple left on a wedding trip to San Francisco and Colorado Springs, Colo., and will return to Washington, D. C., where they will make their home.

Mrs. Thompson is a graduate of Medford high school and Medford Business college and for the past year has been employed in the national capital in a civil service position in the navy department. Mr. Thompson is associated with the Potomac Electric Power company in Washington, D. C.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Miss Thompson of Washington, D. C., Mr. and Mrs. Evan Albion of Portland; Miss Betty Albion of Bremerton, Wash.; Mrs. Robert C. Minear of Fort Ord, Cal.; Mrs. Carl E. Williams and sons, Gary and Roger of Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Robinson and daughter, Pauline of Kerby, Ore.

Organist Visits At Strang Home

Visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Strang, 416 South Central avenue, over the weekend is Mrs. Francis Lintott of Roseburg. She is organist at the First Christian church in Roseburg.

Local Girls To Fly To Medford

Miss Mary Lee Strang and Miss Marybeth Bradfish left Friday evening for Portland where they planned to spend the week-end, returning to Medford early Monday evening by United Mainliner.

Need An Electrician?
DIAL 2840
OLSON ELECTRIC
3 N. Central

Weds At Parent's Home

Mrs. Ira Helgren, the former Betty Paske, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Paske, 1010 South Oakdale avenue, whose marriage was an event of Sept. 21 at the Paske home. Mr. and Mrs. Helgren will reside in Reno, Nev., upon completion of Mrs. Helgren's nurses training at Stanford Lane hospital in San Francisco. (Photo by Shangle)

Bridal Shower Held Wednesday At Flynn Home

Miss Dorothy Flynn and Mrs. H. L. Hammond, Jr., were hostesses at a miscellaneous bridal shower Wednesday evening at the D. L. Flynn home, 907 West 10th street, honoring Mrs. James Johansen, the former Rosemary Corey, whose wedding was an event of yesterday morning.

The honored guest received a number of gifts and games were enjoyed. Refreshments were served buffet style from a table centered with white asters with white satin streamers to each corner where colonial nosegays added a gay bit of color. Miniature colonial nosegays were presented to the guests.

Attending were the honored guest, Mrs. Johansen, her mother, Mrs. Everett Corey, Mrs. D. L. Flynn, Mrs. Thyle Ford, Mrs. Olin Sneed, Miss Jeanne McKay, Miss Barbara Douris, Miss Frances Meyers, Miss Roberta Ivanhoe, Miss Marian Farrell, and the hostesses, Miss Flynn and Mrs. Hammond, Jr.

Luncheon Held At Colony Club

Mrs. Gain Robinson and Mrs. J. J. Emmons were hostesses to 24 friends at a luncheon Friday at the Colony club honoring Mrs. George Rasmussen and Mrs. Allyn Munro, of Los Angeles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts and Mrs. Charles Voorhies of Portland, all visitors in this city.

Former Residents Visit In Medford

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Edwards and daughter, Miss Roberta, of Bend arrived here Saturday afternoon by motor for a short visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ryming, 16 Rose avenue. The Edwards are former Medford residents.

Ashland Residents Motor to Medford

Visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Kellom Thursday evening were Mrs. Jessie Kilgore, Mrs. Marshall Shields, Mrs. Pearl W. He and Mrs. Eleanor Powell of Ashland.

EXTRA DOLLARS

You can receive "extra dollars" in earnings by investing your savings funds with this local thrift and home financing institution.

First Federal

Savings & Loan Assn. of Medford
27 North Holly
An Institution Dedicated To Those Who Save

Borland-Erickson Wedding Read At Grants Pass Church

Of interest to friends in this city is the marriage of Miss Roberta Borland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Borland of Grants Pass, to George Erickson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Erickson of Portland.

The ceremony was read at the St. Luke's Episcopal church in Grants Pass Thursday evening at 7 o'clock with the Rev. Philip Nelson presiding.

The bride chose a white silk jersey wedding gown with a fingertip veil and carried a shower bouquet of bouvardia and white orchids. She was attended by Miss Sybil Gibson as maid of honor, who wore rose silk jersey and Miss Catherine Ford, of this city, as bridesmaid, wearing powder blue silk jersey. The attendants wore contrasting halos, fashioned of sweetpeas and gladioli blooms, and carried shower bouquets of similar flowers.

Robert Borland, Jr., was best man. Ushers were John Stott and Don Moyer.

Over 125 guests gathered at Guild hall after the wedding for the reception after which the couple left for their new home in St. Helens, Ore., where Mr. Erickson has accepted a position as football coach in the high school.

Mrs. Erickson attended Oregon State college and was a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma social sorority. She has been employed at the Medford branch of the First National bank since February, making her home at 822 South Oakdale avenue.

Mr. Erickson graduated from Willamette university and took graduate work at the University of Southern California.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Felps, Mrs. Fred Becker and Miss Adella Erickson, all of Portland and Mrs. W. A. Monroe, aunt of the bride, from Mt. Vernon, Wash.

Dinner Party Held at Ashland

Enjoying a dinner party Thursday was a group at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wagner on Oak street in Ashland. Visiting and games were enjoyed following the dinner hour.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Wagner and Margaret Sarah, Mrs. A. E. Kinney, Miss Lydia McCall, of Ashland; Dr. and Mrs. Herman Sommer, Richard and Susanne of San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Wagner, Katherine and Margaret Ann of Los Angeles; Mrs. T. W. Miles of Medford and the host and hostess.

Prizes for the afternoon were awarded to Mrs. George Daugherty, Mrs. Edwin Andren, Mrs. Floyd Somers, Mrs. Bob Crutcher and Mrs. Jack Davis.

Guests enjoying the afternoon were Mrs. Nicholas Chenoweth of Seattle, Wash.; Barbara Nelson of Portland; and Mrs. McCulloch. Introduced as prospective members were Mrs. Cyril Giesel, Mrs. H. J. Moser and Mrs. Fern Langlet.

Mrs. Rex Stroud was chairman of the afternoon assisted by Mrs. John McGinley, Mrs. Emil Berg and Mrs. Ralph McCulloch. Guest day will be observed at the first meeting in September and each member was asked to bring a guest.

Nancy Clark Visits Parents

Miss Nancy Clark of San Francisco arrived here Friday night for a week's vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald S. Clark, Willow Creek orchards.

Mr. and Mrs. Guenther Entertain Houseguests

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Blackmoore and two daughters, Miss Betty Jean and Miss Katherine, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Guenther, 613 South Newtown street. They motored here from Weaverville, Cal., where Mr. Blackmoore is manager of the Purity stores.

Boyd-Nelson Rites Witnessed By Large Group

More than 100 relatives and friends gathered at the I. O. O. F. hall in Jacksonville Friday evening to witness the marriage of Miss Anna Boyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Boyd of this city to Albert Nelson, son of Mrs. L. A. Nelson of Sterling.

An escort of six of the military branch of the Odd Fellows lodge preceded the wedding party to the altar. The ring ceremony was read by the Rev. E. M. Mallory of Jacksonville.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a becoming blue gown and carried a bouquet of roses and asters. She was attended by Mrs. Virginia Wicker. George Bradley was best man. Traditional wedding music and incidental numbers were played by Mrs. Ruth Hoffman of Jacksonville.

A reception in the historic old dining hall of the Odd Fellows temple followed the ceremony. The hall was decorated with late summer flowers and a large wedding cake centered the bride's table. The cake was cut by the bride and groom with one of the sabers belonging to a member of the military guard of honor.

The couple left on a wedding trip to California, Nevada and Utah and will make their home in Weyerhaeuser, Ore., where Mr. Nelson is employed as maintenance foreman.

The young couple received many gifts, among them a 52-piece dinner set, a gift of the Odd Fellows lodge of Jacksonville and a silver cake dish which was a gift from the military escort.

Gary Colton Holds Farewell Party for Cousin

Gary Colton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Colton of 1619 East Main street, entertained with a farewell party Friday afternoon honoring his cousin, Jerry Friedman of Portland who has been visiting here for a month.

Games were enjoyed and later refreshments were served, after which the guests motored to the airport to watch Jerry depart on the United Mainliner for his home in Portland.

Attending the party were Tanya and Benny Trowbridge, Marianne and Sharon Hogan, Gregg Orr, Jacque Lynn Colton, the honored guest and the host.

Hornings Visit At Owen Home

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Horning and daughter, Miss Jane of Portland were houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Owen on Siskiyou heights for two days last week. They left Saturday morning by motor for Crater Lake, planning to continue on to Portland. Mr. Horning is chief forester of the O. and C. administration.

Dixie Brown To Enter Junior College

Mrs. Syd I. Brown and daughter, Miss Dixie, 504 South Holly street, left last night by motor for San Francisco where Miss Brown will enter San Francisco Junior college Sept. 8. Mrs. Brown plans to return to Medford after a short stay in the bay city.

Recent Bride

Mrs. Harold T. Pierce, the former Iris Lenore Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Hill of Central Point. Mrs. Pierce is making her home in Central Point at present as Mr. Pierce is stationed at Pearl Harbor. T. H., with the U. S. navy.

S. A. Prestidge Celebrates 90th Birthday Friday

Celebrating his 90th birthday anniversary Friday evening was S. A. Prestidge at the home of his stepson and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. U. J. Carpenter, 811 Sherman street. A small group of friends called at the Carpenter home during the evening and dominoes, Mr. Prestidge's favorite game, were played.

Mr. and Mrs. Prestidge came from Fort Worth, Tex., to Medford last November and are making their home in this city. Later birthday cake was served.

Honoring Mr. Prestidge were Mrs. Prestidge, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Perry, D. Champagne, of Los Angeles, father of Mrs. Perry, Peter Kavanaugh and sons, Arlen and Larry and Miss Mina Kavanaugh and the host and hostess.

Local Visitor Returns South

Laura Westerbeck of Hollywood, Cal., left last night by train for California after a two weeks visit at the home of Miss Isabel Stuart and Mrs. R. L. Stuart, 217 Apple street. The visitor is associated with M-G-M motion picture studios in the movie colony.

Miss Westerbeck, Mrs. Stuart and Miss Stuart returned recently from a four-day visit in Bend where they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Davis. Mrs. Stuart is the grandmother of Mrs. Davis and Miss Stuart is her aunt.

Miss Sweeney Returns From Bend Visit

Miss Mary Martha Sweeney, 1125 West Main street, has returned here after spending a week in Bend visiting her sister, Mrs. W. B. Hamlin. Miss Sweeney plans to leave Tuesday for Beaverton where she will take up her duties in the public schools. She attended summer session at University of California at Berkeley.

Former Resident's Daughter Weds In Bend Church

Miss Margaret Hope Coan, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. John Byron Coan of Bend and Thomas Terjeson of Camas, Wash., were married Monday at 1 p. m. at the First Methodist church in Bend with the bride's father reading the ring service in the presence of a large gathering of friends and members of the congregation.

The bride wore white satin, cut princess style, long train and wore a full train length veil caught in place with a coronet of seed pearls. She wore a four-strand necklace of pearls. The bride's bouquet was a spray of white gladioli, pale blue delphiniums, bouvardia and baby pink rosebuds.

Attending the bride was Miss Helen Chirgwin, of this city, as maid of honor who wore a pink and white marquisette with a shoulder length veil to match. Bridesmaids were Miss Ann Terjeson of Pendleton and Miss Delma Jean Klassen of Salem, wearing pink embroidered organdy with shoulder length veils. They carried sprays of maroon asters and bouvardia and their veils were held in place with matching asters.

Best man was Olaf Terjeson, of Portland, brother of the groom. Organ music preceded the wedding and during the ceremony incidental music was played with several vocal selections. A reception followed in the church parlor where wedding cake and punch were served.

Later the couple left for a trip which was to include Oregon and Washington points of interest and later to Camas, Wash., where they will make their home. Mr. Terjeson is a member of the high school faculty in Camas.

Mrs. Terjeson's father, the Rev. J. B. Coan, is former pastor of the Southern Methodist church in this city a number of years ago.

Pistors Visit At Barnes Home

Among visitors in the valley this past week were Dr. and Mrs. William J. Pistor and son, Michael, of Tucson, Ariz. Dr. Pistor is the brother of Mrs. Ernest L. Barnes of East Main street and Barnesburg road. During their stay here they were guests at the Barnes home. Both Dr. and Mrs. Pistor have visited here several times during the summers and have many friends in the valley.

Bernice Gill Here From New York

Miss Bernice Gill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Gill, 122 Cottage street, and her friend, Miss Anne Gidley of West Point, N. Y., arrived Thursday by motor for a short visit at the Gill home. They planned to leave this week-end for California. This is Miss Gill's first visit home in a year.

Former China Resident Talks At Elliott Home

Rev. Edward J. Machle of San Anselmo, Cal., gave an interesting talk on China at the Women's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church recently at the home of Mrs. B. R. Elliott, Ross Lane.

Born in China where his parents were missionaries, Rev. Machle told of changes in Chinese home life, economic status, class distinctions and what brought about the changes. He pointed out how western countries are influencing China and its people, both favorably and unfavorably. He said that young people of China are often influenced by U. S. motion pictures, some of which are misleading in their portrayal of American mode of life.

He closed with the thought, "What kind of a picture does a Christian make in the eyes of a country whose background is not Christian?" Rev. Machle exhibited tapestries and keepsakes which were presented to him when he left China.

During the business session plans were formulated for the annual luncheon to be held Sept. 16 with Mrs. Barney Morgan of Santa Domingo as guest speaker. Mrs. Chet Guchess and Mrs. Wayne Carter assisted Mrs. Elliott.

Mrs. Lenox Visits Here

Mrs. Emma Lenox of Roseburg arrived in Medford Thursday for a short visit with her sons and daughters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Lenox, 819 Sherman street and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lenox, 16 Rose Avenue. She plans to return home Tuesday.

She was accompanied to Medford by Mrs. Richard McGouvey and three daughters and Mrs. McGouvey's sister, Miss Marian Nichols of Santa Barbara, Cal. The visitors stopped here Thursday en route to their home in California. They had been visiting in Roseburg with Mrs. McGouvey's and Miss Nichols' parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Nichols and spent last week-end at Diamond and Crater lakes.

Visits At Duell Home

Fred Kramer Duell of Portland is a week-end visitor at the home of his mother, Mrs. F. K. Duell, 1018 South Oakdale avenue. His friend, A. Swenson of Turlock, Cal., is also visiting at the Duell residence and plans to motor north with Mr. Duell Monday afternoon for a short visit in Portland.

While the ladies of the Colonial days wore cotton hose, their shoes were made of silk.

POISON OAK?

Try a bottle of ZEMACOL
You must be satisfied or your money cheerfully refunded. Get a bottle today at WESTERN THRIFT.

IT'S FUN!

—Having My "Picture Taken"

YES indeed! Youngsters thoroughly enjoy having their picture taken at Shangle's. Why not have YOUR children's pictures taken before school begins—fresh from happy summertime days of play. These portraits will solve the Christmas gift list worries later on, too—and do it economically, too! Remember, no gift you can give at ANY season is quite as nice as a photograph!

SHANGLE STUDIO

MEDFORD CENTER BUILDING
TELEPHONE 4242

SPECIAL DEMONSTRATION

Mr. I. I. Stewart

Factory Representative

for

CANTILEVER

SHOES

will be in our store

Wednesday and Thursday
September 3rd and 4th

for consultation and with the complete line of CANTILEVER Orthopedic and dress shoes, including styles for fall.
Mr. Stewart will Orthograph your feet and analyze your shoe problems free of charge.
You may select any shoe from this factory sample line and get them in your size without extra cost. High, medium and low heels. New fall styling and fall materials.

Lantis & Johnston

MAIN AND CENTRAL

Half Price
DOROTHY GRAY
3 cleansing creams
REGULAR $2 VALUE
$1.00 EACH
LIMITED TIME

Specialized for YOUR skin-type
For dry skin—DRY-SKIN CLEANSER (Cream 683)
—Cleansing plus lubrication. After use, skin feels smoother, looks sweetly, softly clean.
For medium-dry skin—SALON COLD CREAM—
Bland and pure. Softens, freshens as it cleanses. Perfect for a young complexion.
For normal or oily skin—LIQUIFYING CLEANSING CREAM—Light, thorough. Removes clogging dirt. Leaves skin crystal-clean.

MANN'S