Outdoor Recital Well-Attended At Purucker Gardens

(Contributed)

In a setting of unusual beauty and color, on the outdoor red-tiled stage of the lovely Purucker Gardens, Roberta Ward Bebb presented a group of her piano and voice students in a program of international character, a "Musical Travelogue," in costume, on Thursday evening.

Setting a high standard of culture and background and displaying initiative, the program was received with more than ordinary enthusiasm by the capacity audience.

The travelogue, written and read by Mrs. Bebb, covered the characteristics and history of the music of the countries represented.

Opening the program, the diminutive fairy from the "land of illusion" waved her magic wand as if to usher in peace and love to all nations.

The compositions played by the students revealed an amazingly fine balance between the spirit and the letter of the selections. Other notable features were the adroit technique, aplomb in style and tonal coloration.

The young vocalists sang with a technical certainty and clarity of diction that carried to the most distant listener.

The colorful costumes, accented by the multi-colored lights, added an exotic note to the visual, as well as the musical aspects of the program.

Roger Wolf and Beverly Brooks closed the program with a two piano number, brilliantly rendered.

Mrs. Bebb was presented with a large basket of beautiful flowers from her pupils.

Margery Hardy, Dorothy Gaddis and the hostess, Mrs. Lilla Purucker received the guests.

As a fitting finale to this "highlight program," as an expression of gratitude for our own dear America, the students appeared "ensemble" on the stage and joined with the audience in singing "America the Beautiful."

Miss Corey Weds Mr. Johannson In Home Rites

Miss Rosemary Corey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Corey of Medford and Arnold James Johannson of Oakland, Cal., son of Mr. and Mrs. Bjorn Johannson of Buffalo, N. Y., were married Saturday, Aug. 30 at 9:30 a. m. at the Corey residence on the Crater Lake highway.

Entering the room to traditional wedding music played by Mrs. Clarence A. Meeker as the candles were lighted by Miss Eleanor Meeker, the wedding party stood before the fireplace in the living room. Bouquets of white and peach gladioli decorated the mantel and were used about the rooms.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin wedding gown styled with long sleeves, a scalloped neckline and a fingertip veil. She wore a single strand of pearls and carried a colonial bouquet of rosebuds, gardenias and baby breath held by satin streamers.

She was attended by Mrs. H. L. Hammond, Jr., of Medford as matron of honor, who wore a pink net floor-length gown with a tiny jacket and carried a colonial bouquet of pastel flowers.

H. L. Hammond, Jr., was best man.

The service was read by the Rev. L. F. Belknap, retired pastor of the First Methodist church, and close friend of the family. During the ceremony Mrs. Ellice Ford sang "Because." The single ring ceremony was read in the presence of relatives and close friends of the family.

Mrs. Corey, mother of the bride, wore an afternoon dress of silk print with a corsage of gardenias.

Immediately following the ceremony an informal reception honored the couple. The service table was laid with a lace cloth and centered with the wedding cake which was topped with a miniature bride and groom. On either side were lighted white tapers. The cake was cut first by the bride, Miss Roberta Ivenhoe presided at the punch bowl and assisting with the serving were Miss Eleanor Meeker and Miss Joan Luttrell, both wearing dresses of pink.

For traveling Mrs. Johannson chose a soldier blue suit with a black topcoat and accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

The wedding party and guests motored to the airport where Mr. and Mrs. Johannson boarded the forenoon Mainliner for Oakland, Cal., where they will make their home. They planned to spend the Labor day weekend at Monterey, Cal.

Mrs. Johannson is a graduate of Oregon State college where she was affiliated with Delta Zeta. She has been teaching at the Eagle Point high school. Mr. Johannson, a graduate of Oregon State and affiliated with Kappa Delta Rho social fraternity, is accountant for Kleckheger Container company in Oakland. They are making their home at 2232 Ivy Drive.
