

"My Life With Caroline", Sparkling Craterian Comedy, Opening Today

RONALD COLMAN IN LEAD WITH LOVELY NEW BRITISH STAR

Charles Winninger In Cast —Sun Valley Setting For Hilarious Hit.

Hailed as one of the brightest comedies of the year, Ronald Colman's new starring vehicle, "My Life with Caroline," which opens a three-day run today at the Craterian theatre, revolves around the casual romances of a neglected wife and the ingenious and hilarious strategy by which her husband thwarts her intended elopements and holds his home together.

Anna Lee, lovely and vivacious British star, heads the featured cast as the wife, with Charles Winninger as her self-indulgent father.

Because of the pressure of business, Anthony Mason can't spend as much time as he'd like with his wife Caroline. And she, living at various expensive resorts with her pleasure-seeking bon vivant of a father, finds herself falling in love with handsome young millionaires who have no trouble in convincing her that she's terribly misunderstood and unappreciated.

At an Idaho ski resort, Caroline has fallen in love with a rich young Argentine and is planning to divorce Anthony at once when Anthony arrives on the scene.

Aware of the scheme, Anthony pays assiduous attention to Caroline and adroitly tosses monkey-wrenches into the romantic works of the plot, with the result that Caroline sees the light and is reunited with her understanding spouse.

WILLKIE FAVORS FORCE, FIRMNESS

New York, Sept. 6.—(AP)—Wendell L. Willkie asserted today the United States should meet the challenge to its policy of freedom of the seas with "determination and force."

"Once again, savage and bestial might has challenged the right of America to freedom of the seas," Willkie declared on a CBS radio program celebrating the 18th birthday of King Peter of Yugoslavia.

"I know I speak the overwhelming sentiment of my fellow Americans in urging the president to meet the challenge with determination and force," Willkie said. "I hope, and I know you hope, that the president of the United States serves notice on Nazi Germany that the United States expects its ships to go unmolested in their passage across the North Atlantic, and those interfering with them will receive the result they are entitled to."

PLANE HUNT FOR SCHOOL ESCAPES

Portland, Sept. 6.—(AP)—State police said today that a flying Clackamas county deputy sheriff had joined in search for three youths who escaped from the state training school at Woodburn.

If he spotted the trio, he was to direct officers by wiggling the wings of his airplane.

The youths, who overpowered a guard and escaped from a field where they were working, were Eugene E. Johnson, 18, Portland; Howard L. Sexton, 18, Klamath Falls; and Marcellus H. Waters, 17, Eugene.

WEEK-END BAN ON HAULING LIFTED

Portland, Sept. 6.—(AP)—To meet a shortage at the mills, lumber operators may haul logs on the highways during week-ends for the next month, the state highway commission said yesterday.

An extension of time might be granted, depending on public reaction and conduct of the log haulers, Henry F. Cabell, commission chairman, added. The operators had asked for a 90-day permit on week-end hauling, now banned. Cabell warned that operators must apply for permits.

Footlight Follies Here Wednesday

Big time vaudeville comes to the Craterian theatre for Wednesday only when Roy Gordon steps out and becomes a producer of stage shows for Pacific coast theatres, bringing talent from the big eastern circuits as well as the better acts of Hollywood. Among those featured are the Harmony Sweethearts who appear with Earl Mossman, whom Walter Winchell calls the "Beau Brummel of Broadway." Also to be seen will be a novelty musical and comedy dancing act: the Olvera troupe, internationally famous juggling and acrobatic team; exotic dances by Mary Hewitt; fast tapping by Marion Castle, Zerado and his pals—a unique dog act, and several other performers chosen for versatility and entertainment.

ICELAND BECOMES NORTH GIBRALTAR

By Drew Middleton Reykjavik, Iceland, Sept. 6.—(AP)—Within a few short months this Atlantic ocean island has been turned into a United States-British Gibraltar of the north.

Iceland bristles today with guns, airfields dot the countryside and warships of America and Britain comb surrounding waters in ever-watchful patrols. Newly-arrived observers are impressed at once with the defenses of this keystone in a communications arch over which arms and materials pass from America to Great Britain. Gibraltar itself and Malta in the Mediterranean are scarcely more strongly-held than this barren land, which is half again the size of Ireland.

Censorship, of course, will not permit disclosure of the number of men or the amount of equipment here, but it can be said that the American, British and Norwegian forces on the island exceed the number of trained troops Britain had to repel invasion in the summer of 1940.

An estimated three to three-and-one-half million skunks a year are trapped.

Dead End Kids In Tuesday Show

The famous "Dead End" Kids are co-starred with the Little Tough Guys in "Hit the Road," which comes to the Rialto theatre for Tuesday and Wednesday. Others in the cast are Barton MacLane as a reformed gangster who takes charge of a gang of boys, all sons of his former gang whose fathers were killed in a mass slaughter by the police, and Gladys George. Bobs Watson also has an important role in "Hit the Road."

Guy Kibbee Again In Lovable Role Of "Scattergood"

Second in the series of comedies based upon the world-renowned stories by Clarence Buddington Kelland, "Scattergood Pulls the Strings," opens for today and tomorrow only at the Rialto theatre with Guy Kibbee in the title role of the Sage of Coldriver. This is the second in the series of popular magazine articles by Kelland.

Many new players have been added to the new Scattergood Baines cast including Bobs Watson, recent Medford visitor who made film fame with his role of Feevee in "Men of Boys' Town." Pliny, Hipp and Mirandy are again played by Dick Trout, Paul White and Emma Dunn, respectively.

"Scattergood Pulls the Strings," deals with the successful attempts of the leading citizen of Coldriver to disentangle the knotty problems confronting some of his neighbors. Scattergood effects the re-union of a runaway motherless boy and his father, and brings two young, unhappy lovers together again as a result of his unselfish efforts on their behalf. He settles half a dozen cases where gossip has gotten away from itself and brings a community to its senses with good old down-to-earth common sense and humor.

According to those who have seen the picture, "Scattergood Pulls the Strings" is to be recommended for young and old alike as a sure-thing in comic situations and thrills.

Angus Bull Honors Sacramento, Sept. 6.—(AP)—J. S. Gutteridge Estate of Prairie City, Ore., swept all top awards at the state fair today in the judging of bulls in the Aberdeen-Angus open class, taking the junior, senior, reserve and grand champions.

Glamorous Dotty

Glamorous, languorous, amorous Dorothy Lamour stars with Bing Crosby and Bob Hope in "Road to Zanzibar," which opens a three-day run today at the Roxy theatre. The three-some sing five new song hits and the laughs are said to be twice the size of those in "Road to Singapore," their last fun comedy.

BONDHOLDERS ACT IN POWER CHANGE

Portland, Sept. 6.—(AP)—A petition was filed in federal court today by a bondholders' protective committee asking permission to intervene in Portland Electric Power company reorganization proceedings. Federal Judge James A. Fee

SECY. ICKES SEES NO NEW PARKS IN NORTHWEST AREA

Portland, Ore., Sept. 6.—(AP)—Interior Secretary Harold L. Ickes envisions no additional national parks in the Pacific northwest, the Oregonian, Portland daily newspaper, said today.

The newspaper quoted the secretary as saying in an interview while vacationing in Seattle:

"It has been claimed that I have ambitions to lock up vast expanses of the region in additional parks. This is not true. I am not even asking for the creation of new national monuments."

"The forest service has declared that there are areas of such superb grandeur in the northwest that they ought to be preserved. For my own part, I would like to see the establishment of recreational areas in appropriate instances instead of national monuments."

"In such areas hunting and fishing and mining and water development for power and irrigation would be permitted. Of course lumbering would not be, but neither would lumbering be allowed if effect were given to the forest service policy of setting the same regions aside as primitive areas."

Ickes added he expected vacation travel to be reduced by gasoline shortages this winter, but that the problem should be solved by next spring.

He would hear the petition Monday.

Three proposed orders were presented to the court, contemplating recognition of the committee, leave to intervene and that all papers, processes and documents filed in the firm's court matters to be served on the committee.

Joseph K. Carson, Jr., attorney, said the committee represented holders of $18,000,000 of six per cent collateral income trust bonds.

SPEEDY CRUISER TAKES TO WATER

Kearny, N. J., Sept. 6.—(AP)—The navy launched the light cruiser Atlanta today with the announcement she would make at least 43 knots, equal to the speed of the fastest United States destroyers.

Her armament and certain features intended to increase her speed were kept strict naval secrets.

Partly streamline with the deck enclosing the forward funnel, the ship embraces several innovations used in the latest destroyers but being tried for the first time among cruisers with the Atlanta and its sister ships now under construction.

Only mosquito boats are faster than this 6,000-ton, 523 foot cruiser will be, officers said.

Christening the sleek warship was Mrs. John Marsh, better known as Margaret Mitchell, author of "Gone With the Wind."

LAST REQUEST OF WOMAN UNFILLED

Philadelphia, Sept. 6.—(AP)—Mrs. Mary Allen possessed none of the feminine vanity in the matter of hair-dos.

In fact, she was so determined never to vary the severe coiffure to which she was accustomed in life that she directed in her will that there be "no dye, no crimping" of her hair in death.

"But we knew nothing of the request until after the funeral, lamented Mabel Corgas, a close friend. "The undertaker curled her hair a little in front."

Before 1799 the United States marine corps had no regular paymaster; the commandant or some other officer usually filled the job.
