Billy Hulen Says:

Salinas Junior College Draws Thurman, Wallis

Louie Thurman and Jim Wallis, a couple of very capable members of last year's Medford high football machine, turned their backs on open doors to Pacific Coast conference schools and are now enrolled at Salinas, (Cal.) junior college, where Tiny Hall, a former University of Oregon grizzer, is head coaching. . . . Thurman, a giant blocking quarterback of the 1940 Black Tornado and considered one of the most promising footballers ever developed here, was all set to register at the Webfoot school, but changed his mind in favor of the California institution. . . . Fred Gunnette, another ex-Tiger athlete, will attend Sacramento junior college, where he will concentrate on basketball. . . .

Russell Hawk, whopping Ashland high center last season, will positively transfer to Medford high, according to the information we get. . . . he lives in a non-high school district, which makes him eligible to play immediately for the Black Tornado, do, or any other school at which he enrolls. . . . Three local baseball players, Bill Calvert, Dick Lewis and Steve Crippen are sparking the Yreka (Cal.) Miners in their battle to win the Shagbush playoffs of the Northern California league. . . . Calvert catches, Lewis plays third and Crippen flings for the Miners. . . .

The grapevine whispers that Russ Acheson, assistant coach, will be elevated into the head mentoring post when and if Bill Bowerman, a reserve officer, gets his orders to report for active duty. . . . the great Bill Prentice, Eureka, (Cal.) high's triple-threat halfback who for the past three years caused the locals more trouble than any other single player they faced, has selected Santa Clara for his college footballing. . . . Prentice received flattering offers from no less than nine schools, including Notre Dame, but chose the Bronco institution. . . .

We hear that John Saulberry, after earning a starting berth on the University of Oregon frosh grid team last fall, plans to transfer to Oregon State where, it is understood, his talents figure to be more appreciated. . . . one of the main reasons why the Durocher Dodgers are leading the league is the fine pitching of Curt Davis. . . . the veteran, who used to fling in this neck of the woods, has come up with several glittering mound jobs of late, and they have been right when needed, when the Cards were threatening to wrest the top position from the Brooks. . . .

In the recent Southern Oregon-Northern California amateur golf tourney some of the boys were questioning the right of Alva Merritt, Roseburg, to compete in the classic. . . . Merritt, it seems, gives golf lessons at Roseburg, and is paid for same, which technically makes him a professional. . . . however, none of the lads were serious in their talk concerning the former Rogue Valley club caddy and all were glad to see him reach the finals. . . . it would have been rather embarrassing, however, if Merritt had overturned Dick Hanen in the title clash. . . .

Mack Lillard has tossed wrestling completely overboard and is presenting 100 per cent boxing shows in Klamath Falls, and with considerable success. . . . the promoter plans the same for Medford when the armory, now occupied by architects for the proposed army cantonment, finally becomes available again. . . . this is expected to be sometime this month. . . .

Rainiers

1940 CHAMPIONS
SCORE 5-1 AND
5-4 CONQUESTS

Padres, Sacs Trail By Few Percentage Points; Beavers Drop Double-header.

By the Associated Press

Those nights of rain-bred idleness Seattle spent so fretfully a week or so ago while San Diego and Sacramento cornered the coast league campaign have served a valuable, if unexpected purpose.

Today the Rainiers, for the first time this year, are back where they finished the 1941 season. They hold the lead, and that because, as a result of the cancellations, they have played fewer games and so had fewer opportunities to lose than their immediate rivals.

Holding the lead, however, is something which the defending champs had best speak of in hushed and modest tones. Their grasp on first place is of the most tenuous character, one which even the gentlest jostle would release.

This, indeed, is the relationship of the three top teams as the circuit's hottest chase in many a season goes into its final two weeks:

	W.	L.	Pct.
Seattle	91	68	.580
San Diego	92	67	.579
Sacramento	93	68	.578

The Rainiers pulled to the front yesterday by twice whipping Los Angeles, 5-1 and 5-4, while the San Diego Padres and the Sacramento Senators were obliged to content themselves with dividing double bills.

San Diego Divides
The Padres, leaders for a day beat Hollywood, 4-2, in a ten-inning opener for their fifth victory in six starts against the Stars, but dropped back into second place by losing the nightcap, an eight-inning affair, 2-1.

Sacramento retrieved its second game from Oakland, 2-1, after the amazing Acorns had taken their fifth straight from the erstwhile topnotchers, 11-2.

Lisla Losses
San Francisco put Al Epperly and Sam Gibson on the mound and swept both ends of the Sunday program against Portland, 12-2 and 2-0. The double win, together with a 4-2 victory Saturday, made the series almost a standoff, even though Portland won the first four games.

Scores: R. H. E.
San Francisco 12 15 0
Portland 2 8 2

Epperly and Odrovowski; Reid, Callahan and Schultz.

Second game: R. H. E.

5 CARS AWARDED IN SALMON DERBY

Seattle, Sept. 8.—(AP)—A fisherman who never was satisfied and a woman who had a hunch were among five lucky people winning automobiles in the 11th annual Seattle Star-Ben Paris salmon derby Sunday.

The dissatisfied angler was 36-year-old Robert J. Moore of nearby Tacoma, who has been fishing for 20 years. His 28 pound, 5 ounce salmon won him the grand championship and an automobile.

The woman who had a hunch was attractive Mrs. Clara Rickner of Seattle, Thursday, shortly before the 6 p. m. qualifying deadline for the 520 finalists, she had a hunch she could catch a salmon, so she qualified, along with her husband, Louis, who already was entered in the lists, with the first salmon he ever caught.

Then yesterday she hauled in a 21 pound, 3 ounce salmon to win women entries in the derby and to win another of the five automobiles offered for prizes.

BOYER MEDALIST IN PORTLAND GOLF MEET
Portland, Sept. 8.—(AP)—Tab Boyer, city champion in 1938, was medalist yesterday in the annual Portland golf tournament.

He carded a 70, two under par. Bob McReynolds had a 71 and Eddie Beck a 72. Lou Jennings, who went to the quarter-finals of the national amateur tournament two weeks ago, had a 75.

BY NELSON WINS TAM O'SHANTER

Chicago, Sept. 8.—(AP)—Professional golf has 1941 marked down as the greatest year in its history.

With some half dozen tournaments remaining on the program, the game already has drawn more than 400,000 fans through 26 events, according to Fred Corcoran, tourney bureau manager of the PGA, with yesterday's $11,000 Tam O'Shanter open windup providing a smashing high point to the season.

Two strokes back of Leonard Dodson of Kansas City after 54 holes, Byron Nelson fired three birdies in a final round two under par 70 which brought him the championship and $2,000 first money on a 72-hole total of 278 strokes, 10 under par.

FREDDIE HUTCHINSON NAMED MOST VALUABLE
Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 8.—(AP)—A poll of baseball writers conducted by the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle named Freddie Hutchinson, Buffalo moundsman and former Seattle Rainiers' hurler, most valuable player in the International league.

Hutchinson, winner of 26 games this year, received 44 votes.

DODGERS TAKE 2 WHILE CARDINALS SPLIT WITH REDS

Giants Bow to Leaders, 13-1 and 4-3; Cincy Wins, 5-2 After 11-7 Setback.

By Sid Feder

Associated Press Writer

The bottom didn't quite fall out of the St. Louis Cards during the week-end, but the foundation took on a marked resemblance to grape jelly when Cincinnati grabbed Saturday's single contest and split yesterday's twin bill by picking up a 5-2 decision in the nightcap after the gas housers did some gas-housing to win the opener, 11-7.

While this was going on, the Dodgers were proving to Bill Terry in particular and 34,361 slightly-daffy Ebbets field customers in general—that Brooklyn is still in the league. They did this by sweeping a three-game set with the Giants, climaxing the job with yesterday's impressive doubleheader win.

In the opener, the Brooks just up and knocked the ears off their ancient enemies, 13-1. The nightcap, however, was a horse from a different garage. The Terry Terriers whacked Whitey Wyatt for three runs in the seventh inning to take the lead. However, in the ninth, Ducky Medwick's single sent two tallies home to tie, and in the tenth Pete Reiser poked out a hit to push a run across for a 4-3 Brooklyn win.

To the Yanks, who already have their American league championship stowed away, all this hullabaloo was as much fun as the time your Aunt Agnes slipped down the cellar stairs carrying a basket of eggs. Murderers' row slapped the second-place Boston Red Sox, 8-5, yesterday to stretch their league lead to 20½ games.

The St. Louis Browns exercised their jinx on the third-place Chicago White Sox again for a 3-1 win behind Denny Galehouse, and Tommy Bridges celebrated "Bridges Day" at Briggs stadium by treating himself to a six hit elbowing job for a 4-1 Detroit victory over Cleveland. Washington climbed to a half-game from the doorway out of the cellar by trouncing the Athletics twice, 3-2 and 4-2.

Valie Eaves served up a five-hitter and pitched the Chicago Cubs to a 3-1 triumph over the Pittsburgh Pirates. But the day's biggest laugh was the howl Casey Stengel turned loose when his Braves, the supposed hitless wonders, sprayed 53 hits to pretty nearly all sections of Boston to pound the pathetic Phillies twice, 17-6 and 10-1.

DUCKS, BEAVERS OPEN GRID DRILLS

Eugene, Ore., Sept. 8.—(AP)—Coach Tex Oliver of the University of Oregon sent his football players through a light scrimmage at their first practice session today.

A veteran squad returned, and Oliver said he would have lettermen at all but one position. Jim Newquist, fleet Camas, Wash., fullback, apparently will fill that vacancy.

Other prospective first-stringers are Bill Regner and Hymie Harris, ends; Dick Ashcom and Ed Moshofsky, tackles; Ray Segale and Val Culwell, guards; Elliott Wilson, center; Duke Iverson, quarterback; Curly Mecham and Frank Boyd, halfbacks.

Corvallis, Ore., Sept. 8.—(AP) A double dose of football was handed out by Coach Lon Stiner today as Oregon State college opened drills in preparation for the season's first game against the University of Southern California on September 27 at Los Angeles.

Stiner sent his charges through a morning and an afternoon workout. He said the double drills would be held throughout the week, but would be cut to one session thereafter.

Bobby Riggs Captures Net Crown by Crushing Kovacs

By Gale Talbot

New York, Sept. 8.—(AP)—On no less authority than the coach of the player he out-thought and humiliated in the final match for the national tennis championship yesterday, Bobby Riggs is the smartest tennis player who ever stayed up nights inventing new ways of confusing an opponent.

George Hudson, who has been coaching Frank Kovacs for eight years, made no effort to conceal his admiration for Riggs after the little guy had given Kovacs the undiluted works in the big match before 10,000 fans at Forest Hills. The scores were 5-7, 6-1, 6-3, 6-3.

"I'll swear," swore Hudson, "I've been playing and coaching tennis for 35 years and that Bobby is the smartest player I ever saw. There have been greater players, but not smarter. He had no right in the world to lick Frank like that, but he did it, and you've got to give him credit. What a brain that little rascal has."

Which adds up to quite a compliment for the 23-year-old Riggs, who captured the title in 1939 with what was then classified as an ordinary tennis game, lost it last year to Don McNeill, and came back yesterday to win it again over a player who would have been a 2-to-1 favorite if there had been a bookmaker within the sacred precincts of the West Side tennis club.

The new women's champion is Mrs. Sarah Palfrey Cooke, and it is about time. She trimmed Pauline Betz, of Los Angeles and Florida, in their final match 7-5, 6-2. Mrs. Cooke has been co-holder of the national doubles crown on eight occasions. The women's field possibly is not what it has been, but still, it is something to win the championship.

THE GRANGE

Talent Grange
Talent Grange met September 4, at which time Carl Gross was added as a new member. R. N. Kent, Talent Irrigation District manager, gave an interesting report on the water situation for the season and stated that the district had used less water than in any year previous and that there would be a large hold-over at the season's close. Master George Hartley gave a very worthwhile talk and demonstration of his methods of controlling corn worm. Part of the treatment he uses and which proved most successful is entirely new to most corn-growers.

A bean-guessing contest and a "white elephant" sale opened the evening's program. Frank Reed guessed the correct number of beans in the jar. A nail driving contest for the ladies was won by Mrs. Myrtle Babbis. She was awarded a vase as a prize.

Y. G. A. will meet at Talent Wednesday, Sept. 17. H. E. C. will meet at the home of Mrs. L. C. Rusko in Talent Tuesday, Sept. 9. Hospitality committee for the next meeting will be Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Borg and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Walters.

Good weather and a bumper crop! Even then one finds a poor stalk once in a while.

The retailing of beer is something like that. Most beer retailers operate respectable law-abiding establishments. Occasionally one finds an exception—a man who tries to beat the law or who permits anti-social conditions.

The beer industry wants this type of undesirable retailer stamped out. Your cooperation will help us in our clean-up efforts.

The beer industry brings important benefits to the community. Here in Oregon, beer provides employment for 13,238 persons, supports an annual payroll of $11,541,550 and contributed $617,020.86 last year in state taxes.

Oregon, too, has an important stake in the beer industry's purchases—for materials, equipment, and services—from over 100 other industries.

You can help us protect these benefits in two ways. First—patronize only the reputable places where beer is sold. Second—report to the proper authorities any law violation you may observe.

BEER...a beverage of moderation

R. C. Hall, President Fannie Kies announced a fall flower show for the next meeting, September 19, and urged all members to bring at least one arrangement.
