Ann Stoddard, Hartman deWaard Wed At Church

Married at St. Mark's Episcopal church Wednesday evening at 9:15 o'clock were Ann B. Stoddard of 1633 Bancroft Way, Pasadena, Cal., and Hartman de Waard of this city. The service was read by the Rev. Herald G. Gardner, rector of St. Mark's, in the presence of 150 friends of the couple.

The wedding party approached the altar to Lohengrin's wedding march by Wagner played on the organ by Mrs. Eva Hazelrigg Marsh. Incidental music played by the organist included "Oh Perfect Love" and "Oh, Promise Me" Mrs. P. L. Hennberg, Jr., sang "Ich Liebe Dich" by Grieg. Mendelssohn's wedding recessional closed the ceremony.

The bride chose a soldier blue tailored ensemble with dubonet accessories and a corsage of pale pink flowers. Mrs. Leonard Small, of this city, was her attendant and wore a green and gold outfit with gold accessories and a corsage of tea roses.

Major Leonard Small attended the bridegroom.

An informal reception followed in the lounge of the Hotel Medford where the couple received friends.

Mrs. de Waard formerly resided in Lynn, Mass., before coming to the west coast to make her home at Pasadena. She arrived in Medford Sunday afternoon by United Mainliner from Burbank, Cal.
