Funeral services were held in the Perl chapel. The rites were conducted by Mrs. Eifert's pastor, Dr. Sherman L. Divine of the Presbyterian church.

Out-of-town relatives attending the services were a son, J. O. Eifert, Sr., and his wife and son, J. O. FINAL TRIBUTE FOR MARUYAMA

Medford paid final tribute yesterday afternoon to one of its most genial and esteemed residents, Masuzo Maruyama, for many years manager of the University club, who died Tuesday morning at the age of 63 in his residence at 539 South Ivy street.

Although born in Japan and thus barred to United States citizenship, Maruyama was as loyal and devoted to American ideals as any citizen could be and his readiness to do his part in any civic service won for him many friends. Their friendship for this kind-hearted man known affectionately as "Maru" was evident at the funeral services at the Perl chapel which was filled with mourners and banked with numerous floral tributes.

The Rev. R. W. Coleman, pastor of the First Christian church, conducted the services. Burial took place in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

FISH THAT GOT AWAY WAS REAL GRANDDADDY

Astoria, Sept. 19.—(P)—Fishermen who lost the granddaddy of all salmon while competing in the Astoria regatta will be saddened to learn that it weighed 51 pounds—six more than the regatta winner.

The big chinook was netted by Peter Heikkinen, Browns mead gillnetter. In its mouth was a heart-shaped, red-flasher spinner. It has now joined its comrades inside tin cans.
