

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Ill With Cold—Mrs. Thomas A. Culbertson, Jr., was confined by a cold to her home at Medford municipal airport today.

Resumes—Earl H. York, registry clerk at Medford post-office, today resumed his position after enjoying a fortnight's vacation.

Chorus To Meet—Women's chorus of the Medford Musical society will meet at 8 o'clock tonight at the home of Mrs. C. H. Paske, 1010 South Oakdale avenue.

Arrives—Al Perkins of Van Nuys, Cal., arrived here by train today to spend the winter with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hartle of the Spring Street store.

Medic To Meet—Regular semi-monthly dinner-meeting of the Jackson County Medical society will be held in the Luthia Springs hotel, Ashland, at 7 p. m. Wednesday Dr. R. E. Poston, Ashland, will be host. Dr. R. E. Green will present the paper of the evening.

Son Born—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clay, Jr., are the parents of a seven-and-a-half pound son born yesterday morning at Riverside, Cal., according to word received here by the baby's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clay of 23 Crater Lake avenue. The new arrival has been named Charles Clay 3rd.

Nurses Needed—Mrs. H. F. Padgham, chairman of the nursing program for the Jackson county chapter of the American Red Cross, asked today that registered nurses who have retired from active nursing or those having extra time call the office in the county courthouse if they wish to teach a class in home nursing in Jackson county. Four classes are in progress now and requests have come to the office for more. The course is being offered in an effort to assist in building up an adequate civilian defense program.

Back On Job—Gordon Barker, city fireman, was back on the job at fire department headquarters today after spending a two weeks' vacation in eastern Oregon. Mr. Barker spent a week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Barker, in Cove and the remainder of the time he traveled in the eastern part of the state. He attended the Pendleton round-up. He was accompanied to the family home in Cove by his sister, Mrs. Creston Hoare, who had visited him here after her husband had left for Honolulu whither he had been transferred.

Plane Passengers—Miss F. Alder arrived by United Mainliner from San Francisco this noon. N. Scott departed for Seattle on the same plane. Arriving on the forenoon plane were W. R. Thigpen and Mr. and Mrs. T. Hooker from Portland, and W. E. Jones from Seattle. Leaving for San Francisco on the same plane were George Fuller, Miss E. Quinn, Mrs. B. Williams, Mrs. L. E. Henninger and Miss H. Hagen. Arriving last midnight were W. H. Mobey, from Vancouver, B. C., and Tom Blanchard, from Portland. Arriving from Los Angeles last night were G. H. Turner and A. Monroe. William S. York and M. Burger left for Portland. Arriving early last night were Mrs. M. Cannon and C. C. Chittick from Portland, and S. Brooks from Seattle. R. Hanford departed for San Francisco. Leaving late last evening for San Francisco were Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Spalding, D. Orrick and Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Pierce. Leaving for Los Angeles Saturday midnight were Mrs. Lela Rogers and Miss J. Parsons.

New Residence—Hobart Price applied at the city building inspector's office this morning for a permit to construct a new residence and private garage at 110 Portland avenue at a stated cost of $3,500.

Grass Fire—The fire department's chemical crew this morning put out a grass blaze behind the vacant house at 1021 West 11th street. The grass was set on fire by a burning trash pile that had been left unattended, firemen said.

Forester Here—Fred W. Cleator, division of recreation and lands, U. S. regional forester's office at Portland, arrived by train this morning to spend the day in the Union Creek district of the Rogue River national forest. He was accompanied on the Union Creek tour by Karl L. Janouch supervisor of the Rogue River national forest.

Sentenced—Charged with drunkenness, these defendants were sentenced in city court this morning as follows: Albert Judd, five days in jail; Lewis H. Durst, $10; Fay H. Mudge, five days in jail; and James W. Burger, James W. Batt and Charles DeBoard, all five days in jail, suspended. The men are transients.

Returns To Bank—Dan Hull, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hull of 517 South Grape street, will resume his position as teller in the U. S. National bank tomorrow after being employed during the summer as a recreation guard in the Rogue River national forest at Union Creek. Mr. Hull took a leave of absence from his employment at the bank in order to do the forest work.

Fire Hazard Up—A high east wind in the Dutchman Peak area of the Applegate district of the Rogue River national forest today lowered the humidity to 12 per cent and raised fire hazards in the forest along the California border, headquarters reported. A report received from San Francisco headquarters said that forest fire hazards in northern California and along the Oregon border would be bad for the next several days. Hunters and others using the forests were therefore cautioned to be careful.

No Luck—D. O. Lindsey and Jerry Latham returned home last night after spending the weekend hunting deer in the mule deer game refuge area southeast of Bly. They were unsuccessful in bagging any game though they reported an enjoyable outing. The area was filled with hunters, they said, some having good luck, some not. They were accompanied from here by E. F. Ferg who remained over to continue hunting. Mr. Ferg had had no luck, either, up to the time his Medford companions left him.

Pole Broken—A Freightways truck operated by James V. Kelly, Redding, Cal., struck a power pole on the Pacific highway three miles north of Central Point Saturday evening, breaking it off at the base but not injuring the truck driver, according to a report on file today. The truck the report stated, struck the pole after being sideswiped by a car operated by A. H. Cooley, Grants Pass. E. J. Hearn, no address listed, and V. E. Hayward Brownsboro, drove cars involved in a minor accident three miles from Medford on Saturday night, a report on file said today. Cars driven by Don Whipple, Grants Pass, and Willard W. House, Seattle, collided with slight damage at Central avenue and Ninth street Saturday night, according to a report on file today.

In "Manpower"

One of the three main reasons why "Manpower" is pulling crowds to the Craterian theatre, where it plays until tomorrow night, is Marlene Dietrich's characterization of a B-girl in a clip-joint. The other two reasons are Edward G. Robinson and George Raft, as a couple of tough linemen whose friendship is severed when both fall for the same woman.

THEFT AND VANDALISM REPORTED AT GOLD HILL

Gold Hill, Sept. 22.—(Spl.)—A fire belonging to the city was stolen last Monday night when the Gold Hill garage was entered, and the same time an attempt was made to break into the Texaco service station. Two of the gas hoses at the Richfield station were slashed with a knife on Friday night.

SLEEP WALKER
Fort Madison, Ia., Sept. 22.—(P)—Charles Baker, 44, West Point, Ia., walked in his sleep. Last week he walked off a porch roof, fell 14 feet and broke his neck and his pelvis. He died last night.

DEFENSE IS SWELL
Rothville, Mo. (P)—There's a special reason why Rothville school children think the defense program is fine. Priorities prevented a factory from completing their school bus on time and so the school opening was delayed a week.

Enrollment Reduced At Gold Hill High

Gold Hill, Sept. 22.—(Spl.)—Enrollment is considerably under last year in the local high school. Enrollment to date for both grades and high school is 210.

Coach Kernal Buhler opened the season's practice of six-man football last week, after preparing the Van Houten field for use this year. Out of the 20 boys who turned out for the first practice, only three had ever seen action before and in order to be ready for the first game which is scheduled for Sept. 30 with Jacksonville on the home field, a great deal of practice is anticipated for the squad.

In Rialto Show

Billy "Snezy" Gilbert stars with Binnie Barnes, Gilbert Roland, Sidney Blackmer, Leo (Dead End Kid) Gorcey and Edward Norris in "Angels With Broken Wings", hilarious comedy which comes to the Rialto theatre for tomorrow and Wednesday. The plot deals with the romantic ambitions of a widow with five children and her love-scare for a business man with two wives.

Student Body Elects At Applegate School; Paper Staff Chosen

Big Applegate, Sept. 22.—(Spl.)—Elvis Offenbacher is listed as student body president in the Applegate school, according to a news release from the school. Other officers are Temple Rose, vice president; Georgia Benedict, secretary; Clair Shull, treasurer; Elvis Offenbacher, boys' captain; and Georgia Benedict, girls' captain, with Temple Rose as assistant. The chief student body project was given as collecting tin-foil for Great Britain.

The staff of the school newspaper, "The Applegate," includes Temple Rose, editor-in-chief; Fritz Offenbacher and Carmen Shull, news editors; Melvina Rowden and Betty Rock, art editors; Vernon Smith and Harriet Taylor, printers; and Charlotte Shull and LeRoy Offenbacher, librarians.

Total enrollment of the school is 28, with 18 in the upper room. Visitors since opening of the new term include Miss Florence Weisser, county nurse, Miss Carolyn Benedict, Mrs. Harry Rose, and Mrs. Carmen Shull.

Activities also are reported as getting under way at Ruch school with an approximate enrollment of 40, a decrease in the record from last year. Charles Hamilton has assumed the duties of janitor, and plans are being made for hot lunches under WPA supervision, which will entail appointment of a cook. The interior of the building was redecorated for the opening of school, and 30 re-conditioned desks installed.

MRS. R. R. JOHNSON TAKEN BY DEATH IN WALLA WALLA

Mrs. R. R. Johnson, 64, a resident of this city for the past 18 years, died yesterday in a hospital in Walla Walla, Wash., where she had been making her home since December with her daughter, Mrs. Norman Smedes. She had been ill for several years.

Mrs. Johnson came to Medford in 1922 from Great Falls, Mont., with her husband, Dr. R. R. Johnson, who died 10 years ago. She was an active member of the First Presbyterian church, O. E. S., Daughters of Nile and PEO sisterhood. She made her home at 10 Keene Way drive, which she owned with several other properties in this city.

She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Norman Smedes of Walla Walla, Wash.; three brothers, Ed Severance of Silverton, Ore., a former Medford resident; Dr. R. H. Severance, of Great Falls, Mont. and Robert Severance of Florida.

Funeral services will be conducted tomorrow in Great Falls, Mont. Several local organizations with which she was affiliated in this city, and friends, have wired floral tributes to Great Falls.
