Local Girls To Be Honored At College Dance

Miss Patricia Wilkinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wilkinson, 216 Park avenue, and Miss Mary Logan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester J. Logan of Sams Valley, will be honored tonight at the Green Prelude, traditional freshman welcome dance at Maryhurst college where the girls matriculated last week.

Miss Mary Wilcox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Wilcox, is a sophomore representative on the social committee planning the party. She was also a hostess at a tea Thursday afternoon complimenting the faculty and new students. Miss Wilcox lives on the campus at Flavia Hall.

Bridge Club To Begin Sessions

Medford Contract Bridge club will open regular weekly meetings in the lounge of Hotel Medford Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. The gatherings offer an opportunity to bridge followers to improve their game or newcomers to learn the rudiments of good contract bridge playing.

A large group of bridge players took part in the club last year and report worthwhile evenings. There is no admission charge but a small donation is taken in order to provide prizes for those holding high scores. All interested are invited.

P.-T. A. Activities

Prospect
Prospect P.T.A. held their annual teacher's reception on the evening of Sept. 23. A potluck dinner, served at beautifully decorated tables, was enjoyed by 40 people. Fred Middlebush, chairman of the school board, acted as toastmaster and Richard D. Gray, school superintendent, introduced the teachers.

The first P.T.A. meeting for this school year took place just after the dinner, with Mrs. Patti M. Clemens in the chair. It opened with the group singing, lead by George Reed, school music instructor. Chairmen for the standing committees for the ensuing year were announced as follows: Membership, Rose J. Kelley, assisted by Marjorie Phipps; summer roundup, Eula Middlebush; hospitality, Margaret E. Grieve, and publicity, Rose J. Kelley. Margaret E. Grieve was elected treasurer to take the place of Mrs. Lee Merriman, who resigned. It was decided that every other month would have an evening meeting and the next will be Nov. 25, at the school cafeteria. The afternoon sessions will be the same as formerly, the fourth Wednesday of the month, at 2:30 p. m.; date of the next is Oct. 22.

Oak Grove
A covered dish dinner at the Oak Grove schoolhouse sponsored by Oak Grove P.T.A. Wednesday evening honored the teachers and the janitor, Andrew Walters, the latter who is resigning his position, which he has held for several years, in order to visit his children. Walter Nitzel, principal of the school, introduced the teachers and gave a short talk. Mr. Walter was given a farewell gift and later pictures were shown with the school's new sound projector. Regular P.T.A. meeting will be October 17.

3 MISSING FROM NAVY PBY PLANE

San Juan, Puerto Rico, Sept. 26.—(AP)—Nine of 12 passengers and the crew of a navy "PBY" plane forced down at sea yesterday were reported to have been rescued this afternoon near St. Kitts, British West Indies.

The three still missing were identified here as William Kinsley Smith, a machinist's mate, D. F. Arture and Arturo Grillasca, the latter two employees of the Arundel corporation engaged in navy contracts. The flying boat was enroute from San Juan to Antigua, British West Indies, when it was forced down. Navy headquarters here lack details of the rescue or the reason for the descent.
