

SOCIETY and CLUB NEWS of the WEEK

By BETTY SHOEMAKER

Dr. Brunauer Honored At A.A.U.W. Tea

Members and guests of the Medford branch of A. A. U. W. honored Dr. Esther Calkin Brunauer of Washington, D. C., at an informal afternoon tea at the home of Mrs. Justin Smith, 21 Geneva street Friday afternoon.

Dr. Brunauer talked of her work in international relations on the national A. A. U. W. staff and also her interesting association with the national U. S. O. She spoke briefly of her experiences in Germany.

The visitor, who motored to Medford from Ashland where she talked at an A. A. U. W. sectional meeting Friday also, has led a colorful life, having traveled extensively in Europe and while on the continent in 1933 was fortunate in securing a brief interview with Adolf Hitler.

Medford and Ashland A. A. U. W. members were pleased with the opportunity of hearing Dr. Brunauer speak. She was enroute to Portland where she was honored at a luncheon meeting yesterday at Reed college commons by the association's Portland branch. Her topic was to be "The International Situation as of September 1941."

Beta Sigma Phi Enjoys Party At Drummond Home

Beta Sigma Phi members entertained at the home of Mrs. C. I. Drummond on Queen Anne avenue Wednesday evening. An entertaining evening was enjoyed in the game room of the Drummond home and later refreshments served.

Guests of Beta Sigma Phi members were Catherine Ford, Catherine Conroy, Frances Meyers, Emlyn Griggs, Geraldine Taylor and Jeanne Rutherford.

Patzy Faber Presents Recital

Mrs. E. E. Gore presented Miss Patzy Faber, 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Faber of Central Point in a recital at the Gore home Thursday evening. Miss Faber was one of a group of pupils to be presented in individual recitals.

Her numbers included "Rustic Chapel" by Rolfe; "Study in C Major," Czerny, "Minuet" by Mozart; "Minuet in G" by Beethoven; "The Rose" by Price; "Goblin's Frolic" by Heller; "From Knightly Days" by Krentzlin; "The Lilly Pool" by Adler; "Jolly Darkies" by Hechter and "Harp Sounds" by Mayer.

Visitors At Lowry Home

Lieut. and Mrs. Wayne Lowry and son Perry, of Vallejo, Cal., left Friday for Minneapolis, Minn., after a short visit with Lieut. Lowry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert B. Lowry of Bear Creek Orchard. Lieut. Lowry has been transferred from Vallejo to Minneapolis with orders to report October 1 at his new post where he will be an inspector of defense orders. He has been in charge of drafting at Venetia arsenal, Vallejo.

Local Residents Visit In Ashland

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver J. Henry of this city were visitors in Ashland during the past week.

R.N.A. To Meet Thursday At Hall

R.N.A. will meet in regular session at the K. of P. hall Thursday at 7:30 p. m.

Marian Mellin Entertains Club

Marian Mellin entertained members of the F. L. club Friday evening at her home, 40 Cottage street. Refreshments were served by the hostess to Edna Hildebrand, Lottie Cave, Bess Thompson, Joe Bateman and Mrs. Carl Mellin.

Golden Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis F. Hopkins of Ross lane, who celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary yesterday at their home. They have resided in this city for the past four years.

Jackson County Residents Celebrate 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis F. Hopkins celebrated their golden anniversary yesterday at their home on Ross lane. They were married in Ridgeway, Mo., Sept. 27, 1891. A dinner at the Hopkins home is planned for today with immediate member of the family and a few close friends as guests.

Both taught school in their early life in Missouri and at the time of their marriage Mr. Hopkins was employed in the bank at Ridgeway. In 1913 the Hopkins moved to Montana and since that time have followed the occupation of farming in Idaho and Montana. They moved to Oregon four years ago where they purchased a home on Ross lane.

Their children are Curtis Hopkins, James Hopkins and Mrs. Shirley E. Dwight of this city; Farrell Hopkins of Seattle and Mrs. Ross L. Booth of Cainsville, Mo.

The dinner table was to be centered with a bouquet of golden cosmos and zinnias. A large wedding cake was also planned as a feature of the dinner.

Informal Tea Held Friday At deWaard Home

Mrs. Hartman deWaard entertained a group of friends at an informal afternoon tea at her home, 115 North Oakdale avenue Friday from 3 until 5:30 p. m. Roses were used about the rooms.

Calling during the afternoon were Mrs. H. Wood, Mrs. Leonard Small, Mrs. Ben Berry, Mrs. Carl Larson, Mrs. H. Barter, Leonard deWaard and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Stoddard and daughter, Gueynyn. Mr. and Mrs. Stoddard are the son and daughter-in-law of Mrs. deWaard, visiting here from Pasadena, Cal.

Mrs. Brockway Is Club Hostess

Mrs. A. E. Brockway entertained members of the Jacksonville Home Economics club at her home Wednesday. Plans were completed for a gathering of all Jacksonville county H. E. clubs to be held at Jacksonville October 7 from 12:30 until 3:30 p. m.

Lunches will be served at 12:30 followed by a program with each club presenting a number. Members of all H. E. clubs in the county are invited.

Medford Girls Visit In Eugene

Miss Helen Gilham and Miss Gerry Edwards left last night for Eugene where they planned to visit friends, returning to Medford this evening.

Returns South After Vacation

Mrs. Anna Hughes returned to Los Angeles, Cal., Friday evening after visiting friends and relatives in Medford and vicinity for the past two weeks. She formerly resided in this city.

Mrs. Arnest, State Regent Is Local Visitor

Mrs. Howard P. Arnest of Portland, state regent of Daughters of the American Revolution, was guest at the meeting of Crater Lake chapter, D. A. R. Sept. 20. During the business meeting which followed the luncheon at the Hotel Holland Coffee shop a past regent's pin was presented to Mrs. Sherman L. Divine, retiring regent, by Mrs. C. M. Hurd.

In her address Mrs. Arnest told of the meeting of the national society which she attended in Washington, D. C., this year. "Home Defense" has been selected by Mrs. Arnest as the Oregon motto for the coming year. She stated that there is much to be done among the immigrants coming to this country and entering at the west coast points of entry, Seattle and San Francisco. She mentioned the drift of immigrants to Oregon.

The speaker also told of her visit to the Tamasee school in the mountains of South Carolina which is owned and maintained entirely by the national organization. This is a day school as well as boarding school with classes from the first grade through high school. There are now several hundred children attending, receiving vocational training suited to their environment as well as academic training. There is also an organization of Children of the American Revolution within the school.

New officers elected and serving this year for Crater Lake chapter are Mrs. C. M. Hurd, regent; Mrs. R. E. Green, vice regent; Mrs. O. H. Brennenman, recording secretary; Miss Sara Van Meter, corresponding secretary; Mrs. G. Q. D'Albini, treasurer; Mrs. B. G. Harding, registrar; Mrs. E. M. Wilson, chaplain; Mrs. R. L. Daniels, historian; Mrs. R. G. Beach, custodian; Mrs. Bert Lowry, Mrs. Sherman Divine and Mrs. Frances H. Cochran, directors. Hostesses for the luncheon were Mrs. D'Albini, and Mrs. Daniels. Decorations of fall flowers and corsages for each member were prepared by Mrs. D'Albini.

Lodge Holds Dancing Party

Degree of Honor Protective association, No. 105, members and their guests enjoyed a dancing party at the hall Thursday evening following the regular business session. Mr. and Mrs. Gus Sanger of Jacksonville furnished old-fashioned music. A similar event is planned for members and guests later in the fall.

Refreshments were served by Ida M. Wilson, social chairman, and May Brown, Fanny Wallen, Mabel Bennett, Loleta Masie and Mrs. L. S. Slavens.

Mistletoe Club Plans Dessert Bridge

Final plans for a public dessert luncheon card party were made last week when Mistletoe club members gathered at the Girls' Community clubhouse for a covered dish luncheon. The card party will be held October 8 at 1:30 p. m. at the clubhouse. Hostesses for the meeting were Freda Kingsley, Gladys Gilman, Anna Hodgkins and Mable Lynch.

Make it a false alarm and get your much-needed rest by letting us take care of your laundry. Spend the day in healthful recreation and rest assured that the family wash is being taken care of more economically with less work for you!

American Laundry
PHONE 5534
132 SOUTH CENTRAL

Grand Guardian Pays Official Visit to Bethel

Mrs. Eleanor Perkins, grand guardian of the state of Oregon, Daughters of Job, paid her official visit to the Medford Bethel Wednesday evening. Mrs. Perkins complimented the Bethel members on their work, this being only their second meeting since the summer months.

Miss Betty Ann Conroy was initiated with Honored Queen Carol Tengwald presiding during the initiatory work. Installation of several officers was included in the program, with the resignation of Miss Joan Aya as senior princess bringing about the elevation of elective officers. Miss Beverly Brooks was installed as senior princess; Miss Jeanne Smith, junior princess, Miss Natalie Parker, guide, Miss Betty Frey, marshal, Miss Georgiana Holloway was selected as first messenger to fill the vacancy left by the election of Miss Frey to marshal.

Installation of the council was held with Mrs. Perkins as presiding officer assisted by Bethel members. Serving for the coming year will be Mrs. W. A. Holloway, guardian; William Brooks, associate guardian; Miss Beth Watson, secretary; Mrs. Rose Houston, treasurer; Mrs. Charles Larson, director of music; Mrs. William Brooks, sociability; Mrs. A. K. Morse, paraphernalia; finance and publicity, Miss Betty Shoemaker, and hospitality, Mrs. Frank Ray.

A social hour closed the evening with refreshments being served in the temple dining hall. The table was centered with fall flowers and lighted tapers. Mrs. Fred Strong and Mrs. Harry Young presided at the service table.

Paul Allen Visits Parents

Paul G. Allen of Portland is visiting several days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Allen, 311 Laurel street. The visitor is employed by the Pacific Building and Engineer Publishing company, having been transferred recently from Walla Walla, Wash., to Portland.

Fall Bride

Mrs. Jack Batzer, the former Josephine Hunter, whose marriage was an event of September 20 at Sacred Heart church. They will reside in Vancouver, Wash. Mrs. Batzer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Hunter, 51 North Oakdale avenue, in this city. (Photo by Shangle).

Visitors Here From Washington

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lutz of Seattle arrived last night by motor for a few days' visit at the country home of Mr. Lutz' brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Lamport, on the South Pacific highway. The visitors are en route to San Francisco where Mr. Lutz has been transferred as Pacific coast representative for the Doughnut Corporation of America, New York.

Bernice M. Bolger

Violinist and Teacher—Private and group instruction. Pupil of Chicago Musical College (Zigfeld school) 2637 Spring Street Drive, Medford, Oregon.

Betty Harris Weds Mr. Barber At Coleman Home

Miss Betty Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Harris of 210 Laurel street and William G. Barber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barber of McAndrews road were quietly married Sept. 20 at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. R. W. Coleman, 1102 West Tenth street.

For her wedding costume the bride wore a suit of beige and luggage tan with a corsage of gardenias and rosebuds. The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. George Barber, brother and sister-in-law of the groom. The single ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Coleman in the presence of immediate relatives of the couple.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parent for relatives and friends. Both attended Medford High school. They will make their home in this city where the groom is employed by Timber Products company.

Use Mail Tribune want ads.

Sojourners Club Enjoys Afternoon At Clubhouse

Medford Sojourners gathered at the Girls' Community club house Thursday at 1 o'clock for their semi-monthly dessert luncheon. After a business meeting bridge was at play with Mrs. Kenneth Wells, Mrs. Bill Wojtaszek, Mrs. George Rudolph, Mrs. Cy Fitzgerald and Mrs. Dick Manning receiving prizes.

Prospective members introduced were Mrs. E. D. Hampson, Mrs. Ralph Markwart, Miss Gretchen Eklind, Mrs. James Howard, Mrs. Charles Hopper and Mrs. Dick Manning.

Arrangements for the Thursday meeting were in charge of Mrs. Frank Humphrey, chairman; Mrs. William Davidson, Mrs. Leo Hazel and Mrs. Fred Rehling. Mrs. A. M. Cannon will be chairman of the October meeting, assisted by Mrs. Reuben Bjorkquist, Mrs. Bren Starcher and Mrs. Glen Swanson.

Closing time for Classified Ads 9 a. m. "Too Late to Classify" 12:30 p. m.

31st ANNIVERSARY Sale of FUR COATS

• Squirrels Caraculs and Skunk Great Coats

ANNIVERSARY SALE PRICED

$11.99

Here's a group of luxurious Fur Coats selected for their perfect pelts and superb styling. Pieced Squirrels, fine Caraculs and Skunk Great Coats, at a price you can afford to pay. Come in tomorrow and try on these lovely coats, pick out the one you want. We'll arrange budget terms for your convenience.

• These Luxurious Coats Available on Easy Budget Terms.

FUR SHOP SECOND FLOOR

MANN'S

Announcing New Prices at the

Nu-Way Cleaners

75¢

SUITS
COATS
DRESSES

Phone 4979

404 E. Main

EAT out tonight

Hotel Lithia
ASHLAND, OREGON

Invites You To Dine In Their

Coffee Shop

• Delicious Foods
• Reasonable Prices

Why not drive over and try it!

$6.75

"TEMPEST" THE NEW WINDWEFT SILHOUETTE BY

Brewster

A brist breeze snatched from a fall day and sculptured in felt. Appropriate with everything you own that's tailored. In all the new colors.

AS SEEN IN MADONNELLE

MANN'S
MILLINERY SECOND FLOOR

Sale

Kathleen Mary Quinlan

2.25 SOFTENING CREAM
2.75 SPECIAL FORMULA EMOLLIENT CREAM

each 1.00

Limited time sale. Act now! Your only chance this year to save more than half. At the close of this sale, prices go right back to their regular level.

MANN'S Main Floor