CONSTIPATION
When the bowels become sluggish because of a lack of motor tonicity in the muscular fibres it is called constipation. A similar condition (constipation) is produced in the bowels when there is lack of normal secretions. Both of these conditions result when nerves leading to the bowels are interfered with in their transmission of energy. Prolonged use of laxatives over stimulate the activity of an already weak bowel and a very stubborn form of constipation results. Correction of weak intestinal nerves has helped thousands of people to regain their health when they felt it was too chronic to even try for relief. If all the sickness in the United States due to constipation was listed, annually, the figures would be beyond our wildest guess. To correct this serious condition Chiropractors are continually improving a technique that is becoming more and more recognized each year. Bowels with weak nerve action function normally.

In Academy—Allen Lewis Bowser, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bowser of 7 Glen Oak Court, has enrolled at San Rafael Military academy, San Rafael, Calif., for the coming school year. Cadet Bowser is a member of the sophomore class.

Enlists—Deward Waely, son of Henry Waely of Central Point, has been tentatively accepted for enlistment in the U. S. navy. He will leave tonight for Portland for final examination and if accepted will be sent to San Diego, Cal., for six weeks of recruit training before being sent to the fleet.

Veterans Sought—The U. S. navy is looking for any World war veteran who might have been aboard the destroyer Cassin the night of October 18, 1917, when the ship was attacked by a German submarine. Reports in this locality may be made to Jack M. Carpenter at the navy recruiting station in the Medford federal building.

Fifer of 10 Almond street; Burton Isaac, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Isaac of 21 Portland avenue, and Ross Webb, son of Mrs. Leona E. Webb of Kings highway.

Some Hose—Bernie H. Williams of the M. & M. department store has received an unusual gift from the Berkshire Knitting mills of Reading, Pa., which he represents in southern Oregon and northern California. The gift was the billionth pair of women's silk hose manufactured by that well-known concern. It was sent him by the company's advertising manager. The pair of hose is also interesting in that it is one of the last pair of pure silk hose manufactured, the government having recently prohibited as a war measure the use of silk in textile manufacture. Bernie calls attention to the fact a billion pair means nearly 100,000,000 dozen, manufactured by this concern since it was established, which, he says, "is some hose."

Transferred—Mrs. Vera V. Plymale, stenographer-clerk at Medford postoffice, has been transferred to the postoffice inspector's office at the central station in Portland and will leave here Thursday to make her home in the northern metropolis. She plans to rent her Medford residence, 59 North Orange street. During the time she has been employed at Medford postoffice, Mrs. Plymale has made many friends among the patrons. Of late she has been employed in the inspector's office on the second floor of the federal building. A native of Medford, Mrs. Plymale said she regrets leaving here.

Wall St. Report
New York, Sept. 29.—(P)—Buying fuel was strictly rationed in today's stock market and, while specialties, principally sugars, managed to make headway, a wide assortment was unable to shift to the recovery route.
Transfers were around 400,000 shares.
The principal question plaguing bullish forces, brokers said, was just how far the federal move for drastic price restraints in business and industry would go.

Comical Cut-Up

The screen's greatest cut-up, John Barrymore, plays a mad-cap movie producer who has just filmed an anti-German propaganda film and is contemplating smuggling it into Germany for its grand "World Premiere," in the comedy by that title which comes to the Rialto Theatre for tomorrow and Wednesday. Frances Farmer plays opposite the funster.

In One Comedy

Here are the four main reasons why "When Ladies Meet," the delightfully risqué comedy-romance now showing at the Craterian Theatre, is playing to capacity crowds. They are Joan Crawford, Greer Garson, Robert Taylor and Herbert Marshall, who have the top roles in the picture, which will end its run tomorrow night.
