Dorothy Nyswaner Weds Mr. Wolcken In Church Ceremony

Married Wednesday at high noon at the First Presbyterian church were Miss Dorothy Nyswaner, daughter of W. R. Nyswaner of Talent, and Stephen N. Wolcken, son of Mrs. Jane Wolcken of San Antonio, Tex. Dr. Sherman L. Divine read the service.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a costume suit of ginger rust trimmed with mink with a soft brown sweetheart hat with veil and matching brown accessories. Her corsage was of green orchids and boardia.

Mrs. R. J. Simpson of North Bend, formerly of this city, was matron of honor. She also wore a costume suit of aqua-green trimmed with squirrel. Her hat and accessories were black and fuschia and she wore a corsage of fuschia and fuschia colored gladioli.

Best man was A. R. Leavitt. R. J. Simpson of North Bend and R. R. Hammond were ushers.

Preceding the ceremony Imogene Smith sang "Because" and "At Dawning" accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Veri Failing who also played the wedding music.

A reception followed at Hotel Medford. Large baskets of gladioli in fall colors and bouquets of fugii chrysanthemums decorated the lounge. Pouring and assisting about the room were Mrs. Frank Perl, Mrs. R. R. Hammond and Mrs. Glenn Fabricks.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Koozer of Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. Hoagland and daughter of Klamath Falls and Dell Simpson of North Bend.

The couple left immediately after the reception on a wedding trip to San Antonio, Tex. They plan to make their home at 2122 Lakeshore avenue, Oakland, Cal., after October 20.

Mrs. Wolcken was the inspiration for many parties and showers prior to her marriage. Among those entertaining at pre-nuptial affairs were Mrs. Mrs. George Robertson, Mrs. Kenneth Parrett and Mrs. Lealand Clark, who gave a bridge luncheon and shower at Rogue River lodge at which the bride received a set of crystal.

Mrs. Frank Perl entertained with dessert and miscellaneous shower and Mrs. Bruce Bauer and Mrs. Warren Olsen also entertained in her honor with a dinner party.
