Jones Celebrate 60th Anniversary At Brockway Home

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Jones celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary yesterday at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Brockway, on Lozier lane. Ten years ago the Jones observed their 50th wedding anniversary at their home in Minot, N. D. At that time friends, relatives and organizations to which the Jones belonged gathered to celebrate their anniversary and episodes from the Jones' life were dramatized. Last evening several of these skits were reenacted.

The program opened with an accordion duet by Miss Evelyn Brockway and Miss Bertene Elmore followed by a reading by Mrs. R. E. Waldron. The reading was part of the program at their 50th anniversary. A song written by Mr. Jones regarding their previous anniversary was sung by Henry, Otto and Nellie Niedermeyer and Anne Wendt at the piano. Two episodes were then presented with Mrs. Myrtle Arnold and Mrs. Jane McCarty taking the part of Mr. and Mrs. Jones. Relatives and friends completed the cast.

During the afternoon the program was also given with the singing Grandmothers under the direction of Mrs. Effie Kurtz singing several selections. The reading was given by Mrs. Susa Campbell and Mrs. Ann Wendt sang the parody. Incidental music was played during the program by Mrs. Doris Specht of Vallejo, Cal.

Mr. Jones, who also celebrated in Jackson county for the past four years and during that time have made many friends in the valley. They have five children, two daughters, Mrs. Brockway and Mrs. Waldron of St. Helena, Cal., being here for the occasion. There are 15 grandchildren.

Mr. Brockway, who also celebrated his 82nd birthday yesterday, has as his hobby oil painting and fashioning of small clay figures. Mrs. Jones enjoys braiding rugs.

Following the programs yesterday a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments served from a table laid with a hand-made cloth crocheted by Mrs. Jones. A bouquet of white flowers centered the table and a large anniversary cake was cut by Mrs. Jones.

Over 133 guests signed the register book during the afternoon and evening.

Party Honors Mrs. McDannel

Mrs. D. M. McDannel was honored on her birthday yesterday when a group of friends called at the McDannel home on Beatty street for a surprise birthday party. Cards were at play during the evening and later refreshments were served. Mrs. McDannel received gifts.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. William Dyer, Mr. and Mrs. George Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Al Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Scripser, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gould, Carl Pearson and Mr. and Mrs. McDannel.

Health Groups Attend Meeting

Mrs. William Boye and Mrs. Arthur Boye of Gold Hill entertained members of the Gold Hill group of the Jackson County Public Health association at their home yesterday. Special guests were Rogue River members of the Jackson County Public Health association.

Mrs. Raymond Driver of Central Point gave a book review and Mrs. J.C.S. Wells of this city, president of the health association, talked on the possibility of winter programs in the community groups. A tea hour closed the afternoon.

Helen Anderson, Charles Williams Wed Recently

Miss Helen Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Anderson of Lincoln street, Ashland, and Charles Williams of this city, were married recently at the home of Rev. R. W. Coleman, pastor of the First Christian church in this city, in the presence of relatives.

The bride wore a tailored suit. She was a senior in Ashland high school and is active in the work of the young people in the Ashland Church of Christ.

They are making their home on Stewart avenue. Mr. Williams is employed by the Walter Britt company. Mrs. Williams was honored last evening with a shower by members of the Opportunity class of the Church of Christ in Ashland.

Hallowe'en Dance Held at CCC Camp

Company Commander Linus B. Martin and Mrs. Martin were hosts at the first company dance at Camp Williams Creek Hallowe'en night. The affair was held in the camp mess hall beginning at 9 p. m. Music was provided by an orchestra from Grants Pass. The vocalist pleased the boys from the southland by singing "Old Black Joe." Two high school girls danced jitterbug style.

When the company subaltern, Herman L. Stokes, announced that Hallowe'en night was the fifth wedding anniversary of camp educational advisor, Albert A. Anderson and Mrs. Anderson, two other couples attending the dance informed him that they were also celebrating their anniversaries.

Since the dance was a success, the personnel of Company 6403, CCC, is considering the possibility of holding a dance once a month during the coming winter.

Talk on Rainier Heard By Club

Mrs. Leo Hazel told of climbing Mt. Rainier at a meeting of the Travel Study club held Monday at the home of Mrs. A. R. Hedges. Mrs. Hazel showed pictures of the mountain and said that a Swiss guide remarked that Rainier was equal to the Alps in many respects.

Mrs. L. Lounsbury gave a map study of the south Atlantic states. Southern songs were presented by Mrs. E. G. Randolph, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Veri Failing.

Wenonah Club Plans Luncheon, Business Session

Women's Relief Corps To Meet Thursday

Women's Relief Corps will meet at the armory Thursday at 2 p. m. for regular business meeting.

GIRL SCOUTS

Girl Scout leaders discussed community service projects at the November leader meeting. Senior Scout leaders are working on the special all Senior Girl Scout investiture service to be held Sunday at the court house. This will be a private ceremony for senior scouts with over 80 taking part in the ceremony. Mrs. Emerson Anderson is senior Girl Scout advisor. Working on the ceremony are Mrs. Raymond Driver, Mrs. H. May, Mrs. Martin Sands, Mrs. L. P. Older and Mrs. Porter Neff.

The leaders made plans to hold a potluck supper for the Christmas meeting, Dec. 1. At this time the members of the local council will be guests of the leaders and new leaders coming into the organization for the first time will be presented Girl Scout pins at a special investiture service during the party.

Among activities of local Scout troops are: senior troop No. 7, knitting sweaters for Red Cross, making layettes, taking charge of pre-school children during meetings or planning some form of entertainment for local civic organizations.

Intermediate troops are making baby blankets from salvaged flannel scraps, making and delivering trawls for local hospitals, collecting magazines for county farm and hospitals, sewing tea towels and making garments for Bundles for Britain. The community service is in addition to regular troop work and badge activities.

Brownie leaders are working with younger Scouts in making gifts for their home and school and learning "helpful ways" in home service. Brownies are also making scrap books and trawls for the hospitals.

Because of the growth in numbers in the leaders association the Brownie Leaders are meeting separately. Hostesses for the Monday Leaders meeting for intermediate and senior Scouts were Mrs. Ethel Corey, Mrs. Don Patterson and Miss Ruth Foster. For the Brownie Leaders meeting on Tuesday Mrs. Evelyn Howard and Mrs. Nona Myers were hostesses.

GARDEN CLUB

Arrangements of berried shrubs will be exhibited by Medford Garden club members Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Albert Burch, Ross Lane at 2 o'clock. For those driving, follow West Main street to Ross Lane and after passing the Harder home turn right after crossing the bridge. Members desiring transportation may call Mrs. George Hiles, dial 3049. A program on cleaning up the fall garden is also planned.

P.-T.A. Activities

Howard Howard P.T.A. sponsored a weiner roast for the school children and their parents at the schoolhouse last week. Motion pictures and games were enjoyed.

An announcement was made that the regular P.T.A. meeting will be held Thursday at 8 p. m. at the school gymnasium. Special motion pictures will be shown after the business meeting. Fathers are invited. In charge of the social hour will be Mesdames Yantis, Rogers and Tedrick.

Prospect

Prospect, Nov. 5.—(Sp)—Young people of the Nazarene church and a few other guests enjoyed a Hallowe'en party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Dunagan, in Jantzer Village, Friday night. The rooms were gaily decorated for the occasion, and interesting Hallowe'en games and contests were the diversion. Refreshments were served to Mrs. Henry Herman, Mrs. Daisy Rupe, Mrs. Horace Thompson, Dorothy Irene Clemens, Doris Rupe, Elizabeth Thompson, Nyoda Herman, Aileen Sherwood, Betty Robertson, Mary Olson, Mrs. Velma Dunagan, Gloria Dunagan, Tad von Stien, Wendell Vaughn, Delbert Robertson, Eugene Wayne, and Bobby Dunagan.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Jantzer returned Monday with a five-point bull calf, that has a horn-spread of 38 inches, killed by Mr. Jantzer in the Backout canyon, in Grant county. No pack horse was available, so the Jantzers spent most of Sunday and part of Monday carrying the meat to their car, a distance of over two miles, in rugged country, and a snowstorm. They report that elk were quite plentiful in that section, but at the Dale checking station their elk was the third that had been checked out for the first three days of the season.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Nye over the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Nye and children, Betty Jean, Lloyd and Merry Gayle and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rollins of Ashland, Mr. and Mrs. Claire Richey, Earl Richey and Mrs. Richey, Jr., of Chemult and Mr. and Mrs. Emory Nye and son, Jerry of Central Point.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Collingwood of Klamath Falls and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Collingwood of Oregon City visited Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Phipps and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Collingwood and little son, Levi Clem.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Johnson and daughter, Miss Alma, visited Saturday with the former's sisters, Mrs. Leslie Dunagan and Mrs. James Dole. The Johnsons had just returned from an extensive trip in the east, and visited relatives and friends in Michigan, Illinois, Missouri and Colorado. They plan on leaving Medford this week and making their home in southern Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Sutcliffe, Miss Melva Horn and Herbert Sutcliffe, Jr., enjoyed a theatre party at Medford, Friday night, given in honor of Mrs. Sutcliffe's birthday.

At the Prospect Townsend club Hallowe'en masquerade dance Saturday night prizes were given to Mrs. Burton Goodfield, as a Spanish girl and Harry Goodfield as a Turk.

Mrs. Val Johnson has leased their 10-acre place near Jacksonville and she and their five younger children joined Mr. Johnson and two older sons at the Dale camp. Their daughter, Miss Ethel Mae, has enrolled in Prospect high school as a freshman.

and Delton, Mildred and Carol are attending grade school.

Mrs. William Gaines and baby son, Gerald William, were dismissed from the Community hospital Friday and returned to their home here. Mrs. Phyllis Booth is assisting Mrs. Gaines for a couple of weeks.

Nora Lou Coming

Nora Lou, the Golden West girl, will appear in person with her Pals of the Golden West at a dinner to be given in the Medford hotel tonight by Closet & Devers, roasters of Golden West Coffee, for the grocers of this area. Mac Wilkins, president of the advertising firm of Mac Wilkins & Cole of Portland, will serve as toastmaster; James Dignan of the coffee firm will give a demonstration of how Golden West coffee flavor is created; and Jess Dignan, sales manager of Closet & Devers will speak briefly.

Talk Differently
New York.—(AP)—For years restaurant counter men and waiters have used their own language in relaying orders to busy chefs. In "A Quiz for Gourmets" a list of nicknames for foods is compiled by the head chef at the Hotel New Yorker. Among the favorites and best known are: "Draw one," meaning a cup of coffee; "clean up the kitchen," a plate of hash; "cowboy," western sandwich; "pig between sheets," ham sandwich; "shimmy," gelatin dessert; "Adam and Eve," two eggs; "splatter dabs," pancakes.

REGAINS HONOR
Seattle, Wash.—(UP)—The wooden motorship Mount Baker, at one time a gambling barge off southern California, has entered upon a sedate and honorable old age in the interests of national defense. A shortage of ocean tonnage led to the 23-year-old ship being reconitioned for transporting lumber.

Normally, Italy is one of the principal wheat-growing nations, the third largest producer in Europe, with a crop about one-third that of United States.

PARENTS INVITED TO OPEN HOUSE AT JUNIOR HI. SCHOOL

Friday, 1 to 4 p. m. Set Aside For Program And Opportunity to Meet Faculty.

Medford Junior High school will hold open house Friday, November 7, from 1 to 4 p. m. Parents are always welcome, but on this day they and all others interested are most cordially invited.

At 1 o'clock parents, pupils and teachers will meet for an assembly in the gymnasium. After the flag salute by the entire audience there will be a short business meeting presided over by Earl Barnhart, student body president.

Since this is Good Book Week, the English department will sponsor several numbers stressing that theme. There will be living pictures of book characters by a committee of which Kikuko Nakagiri is chairman. There will even be a quiz program in charge of Miss Annette Gray, and then Mrs. Maybelle Klemm will make awards in the Good Book Week contest.

Presentation of awards, donated by the First National bank, to the winners of the defense stamp essay contest will be made by Mayor H. S. Deuel in behalf of the chamber of commerce. This will conclude the program.

Open house or back to school night has been an annual custom of the P.T.A. but this year Principal Glenn L. Linn has inaugurated a new plan which should bring the home and school in even closer understanding.

After the program parents will take their child's schedule and watch an entire day's work. This will be carried out as a regular routine except that class periods will be considerably shortened. Parents are urged to make the most of this unusual opportunity to see their school in action, to meet the child's teachers and to see the child in his relation to school, teachers and other classmates.
