

DOVER'S BACKERS SLATE MEETING TO START CAMPAIGN

Rogue River, Nov. 6.—(Spl.) A kick-off Democrat rally for Floyd K. Dover for congressman will be held in the Girl Scouts hall here Friday, November 14 at 8 p. m.

Lester P. Mathes, general chairman of the Floyd K. Dover for congress campaign in Jackson county, says the meeting will be the official opening of the campaign in new 4th congressional district in which Mr. Dover is candidate on the Democratic ticket in the May primaries.

Dover, a lifelong Democrat and active in the party since the World war, is a native Oregonian and a great-grandson of the late Clinton Kelly who helped build the first Methodist church erected in Portland.

Active in veteran affairs since his return from France, Dover is the immediate past department commander of the Disabled American Veterans. At the state legislature, in March 1941, Mr. Dover took the successful lead in securing an appropriation of $10,000 from the state to secure the national convention of the Disabled American Veterans for Oregon. The convention will be held in Eugene in 1942.

In the past 10 years Dover has been active in the northwest and Oregon in the Townsend and old age pension groups, and was the national delegate to both the Chicago and Cleveland Townsend national conventions, serving as chairman of the Oregon delegation, which numbered 320, at the Cleveland convention.

Response to Dover's candidacy has been very favorable wherever contacts have been made throughout the seven counties of the 4th district.

The meeting at Rogue River is sponsored by the Floyd K. Dover for congress committee of which Earl Grizzell is chairman, Sandy Blakely vice-chairman and William Hartman, Sr., secretary.

Worth Smith of Tah-Wah-Wi ranch near Rogue River will be honorary chairman at the November 14 meeting.

Pupils Recommended Books

In connection with National Book Week, pupils of the Junior high school have read and recommend to others the following volumes.

"Lad, a Dog," by Terhune

I recommend any book written by Albert Payson Terhune such as "Lad," "Luckinvar Luck," "Bruce," and many others. Almost all his books are written about collies. "Bruce" was about a dog who was sent by his master to the war front. While there he saved many lives and came home a hero.

The most recent books he has written are "Grudge Mountain," "Gray Dawn," and "Unseen."—Moreen Field.

"Rifles for Washington,"

by Elsie Singmaster

I recommend "Rifles for Washington" by Elsie Singmaster. This story is about a boy of eighteen and his uncle who join the Revolutionary war to fight the British. In this story there are many blood shedding battles with the Indians and the Tories. This book should be read by all children who want to know what war really is.—Ward Bebb.

"Falcons of France,"

by Nordhoff and Hall

I recommend "Falcons of France" by Nordhoff and Hall for persons who like stories of aviation.

The reader follows the fortunes of a group of young men made famous by such names as Selden, Lufberry, Victor Chapman, Bill Thaw and Prince through the dreary days of the Lorraine Patrol of Verdun and the desperate flying in the dark spring of 1918, from the banter of the mess to the rigor of German prison camps.—Sam Anderson.

DELAY ROAD MEETING

Salem, Nov. 6.—(AP)—The state highway commission said today that its meeting in Portland scheduled for November 12 and 13 has been postponed to November 17 and 18. The commission will open bids on $1,000,000 worth of projects at the meeting.

Tom Bradley Finds 77-Year-Old Memo From Uncle's Shop

When City Councilman Thomas G. Bradley was rummaging through Frank Zell's curiosity shop in Jacksonville the other day, he noticed a small piece of paper tacked up on a window. Upon examination he discovered that it was a bill of goods made out on Oct. 28, 1864, by his uncle, A. E. Paine, who then owned the Yreka Bakery at Yreka, Cal.

The statement, written in a hand still easily read, was for 196 pounds of soda crackers at 12½ cents a pound, or a total of $24.50. The crackers were delivered to H. Helms at his store in Jacksonville, the Helms being a pioneer family in southern Oregon. Mr. Bradley found the statement on October 27, almost exactly 77 years to the day after it had been made out by his uncle, he related today. He bought the curio and plans to send it to his uncle's son, Frank Paine, of San Francisco. In handwriting over Mr. Paine's signature the statement said:

"We send today per Mr. Porter two boxes of crackers. Will send another box to fill your order the first of next week." In a corner of the letterhead was printed the information: "Soda crackers, sugar crackers, Boston crackers, butter crackers, ginger snaps, brown bread, pies, cakes, etc., kept constantly on hand."

The birth rate for England in 1940 was 14.6 per 1,000, a decline of 2 per cent from 1939. Civilian air raid deaths for all England in the first eight months of 1941 total 19,078.
