HONEYMOON TRIP
OFT POSTPONED
Hollywood, Nov. 10.—(AP)—players Bill Holden and Brenda Marshall have about decided they'll have to get along without a honeymoon.
Married a few months ago, the wedding trip was postponed because he was making a picture. When it was completed Miss Marshall started one. The trip was delayed again.
Then Holden had an appendicitis operation. Then she had one.
They were getting ready to leave again but now Miss Marshall's in bed with the flu.

Williams Creek, Nov. 10.—(Sp.)—Gerald Sovells is home on furlough from his station in New Mexico visiting relatives and friends. He recently finished an airplane mechanics course at Chanute field in Illinois.

Rockwell Brittain, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Brittain, is attached to the technical engineering station at Chanute field.

Lester Sparlin and Verne Miller enjoyed a four-day fishing trip to Gold Beach. They report fishing good there now.

Williams grade school held an ice cream social Thursday evening. Miss Monroe, returned missionary from Costa Rica, gave an interesting talk illustrated with colored slides on the countries, inhabitants, their habits and customs of Central and South America. A cake, baked by Emil Johnson and Linden Topping, was auctioned off, bringing $5.25. Proceeds from ice cream and cake sales, around $20, went to buy a baseball and bat and the remainder for the hot lunches at school. A large number from the community were present, also several OGC officers and enrollees.

James Lathrop of Central Point has leased the Joe Boat place on the west fork of Williams Creek for the coming year.

Miss Applegate has added a course of first grade piano to the music at the school. The little folks practice on key boards made of cardboard at their desks and then take turns at the piano.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Sparlin moved to their place at Tiller one day last week, bringing back a load of shakes.

Leslie Hartley, of Tule Lake, visited one day last week with his mother, Mrs. Hartley and his sister, Mrs. Lester Sparlin.

Betty Fry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Fry, is still confined to her room.

Harold Boat, son of Mr. and Mrs.
