Chicago Wheat

Chicago, Nov. 12.—(U.S.D.A.)—A sharp decline in grain and soybean prices today carried wheat down almost 5 cents, the limit permitted in one session.
Soybeans tumbled 6 cents, the daily limit for that commodity, corn and rye fell more than 2 cents and oats lost more than a cent.
Traders blamed selling of soybeans and corn, which developed weakness first, on improved weather conditions, which, they said, should result in an increased movement of these commodities from the country to market as harvesting is speeded.

Orson Welles Coming Sunday in "Citizen Kane"

Starring Orson Welles, the last 20 years, will come to the sensation of the country, "Citizen Kane," probably the most discussed motion picture of the Craterian theatre Sunday for a three-day showing. The picture marks Welles' debut as a screen newcomer to be watched—that of actor, producer, writer and director—in the dramatic story of a dynamic personality's career and the part two lovely women played in it.

Richard Arlen in Rialto Show

Richard Arlen and Andy Devine, those daring co-stars of a dozen action thrillers, have the leading roles in "Raiders of the Desert," which comes to the Rialto theatre tomorrow for a three day run as the companion feature with "The Sheriff of Tombstone," which stars Roy Rogers and George "Gabby" Hayes.
