A BRAND NEW SERIAL!

PHONE BOOTH MURDER

by Phoebe Atwood Taylor

It's the grand new mystery serial starting in this paper soon. Never has this famous author written a better story, never has Asey Mayo solved a more bizarre crime. Don't miss it!

BEGINS TUESDAY
NOV. 18 In the
MAIL TRIBUNE

Treat—A special treat of Hawaiian music is in store for all who attend tonight's meeting of Townsendsites in Townsend hall, 123½ West Main street, at 8 o'clock. The public is invited.

To Vacation—Herbert Heyde, clerk at the Rogue River national forest warehouse on McAndrews road will leave by car tomorrow to spend a week's vacation at the home of his parents in Portland.

Back From North—Mayor H. S. Deuel and Glenn L. Jackson, president of the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce, returned by United Mainliner last night from Portland where they conferred with air corps officials regarding Medford municipal airport.

Snow At Park—Snow started falling in Crater Lake national park at 5 a. m. today and by the time of the morning short-wave radio broadcast at 8:45 three inches had fallen. The snow closed the east entrance to the park. The north entrance, leading to Diamond lake, had previously been closed.

On AAA Business—G. W. Derr, Portland, sales manager of the Oregon State Motor association, transacted business here today. The association is an affiliate of the AAA. Mr. Derr arrived last night by car and planned to continue to Klamath Falls as soon as he completed his business here.

Leaves for South—Seely Hall, Jr., left by United Mainliner last evening for San Francisco. He plans to spend Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Seely Hall, Sr., at San Carlos. Seely attends school in Medford, living with his grandmother, Mrs. Court Hall, 315 South Central avenue.

New Residence—A. L. McHenry applied at the city building inspector's office yesterday for a permit to construct a new residence and private garage at 121 Willamette avenue at a stated cost of $2,500. Harry Hawk of 1111 West 10th street applied for a permit to make an addition to his garage at a stated cost of $150.

Held Dedication—Forty cubs attended the Cub Pack 8 loyalty dedication Wednesday evening at Washington school. The Cub commissioner, Ray Harrison, was in charge of the dedication which was attended by many parents and friends. Dick Runyard received his Lion badge and Cub graduation certificate. A patriotic quiz program was conducted with Freddy Byington winning a scout knife. Refreshments were served at the close of the program.

Fined $25—Tom Smith, 50, of Gold Hill was fined $25 and his driver's license was revoked for 90 days in city police court yesterday afternoon on a charge of reckless driving. Smith's car, police charged, struck a machine operated by Walter Fredericks of San Francisco at Main street and Riverside avenue Wednesday night.

To Banquet—H. C. Obye, assistant supervisor of the Rogue River national forest, and Sam Warg, assistant ranger of the Union Creek district, will leave tomorrow for Bend to attend a testimonial dinner for W. O. Harriman who is retiring as supervisor of the Fremont national forest. Forest officers of the entire northwest region will attend. Mr. Obye and Mr. Warg both worked under Mr. Harriman at one time. Mr. Obye will be accompanied by his wife and two children, John and Mary, and after the banquet the family will continue northward to spend Thanksgiving with relatives at Yamhill. Relatives in other northern cities also will be visited.

Three-Car Mishap—A machine operated by Dr. Charles Sweeney of Route 2 struck one driven by J. L. Henry of 706 South Oak street and the Henry car in turn hit a parked vehicle owned by Rex Mills of Portland on South Riverside avenue near Main street last night, a report on file said today. Nobody was injured and damage was nominal, the report said. Maxine Ferguson of 730 Dakota avenue and W. S. "Citizen Kane" on Sunday Bill

The most eagerly awaited picture of a decade is "Citizen Kane," which comes to the Craterian Theatre Sunday for a three-day engagement. Starring Orson Welles, the master-genius

Review of Buck's Pictures Coming

Five of Frank Buck's great jungle pictures are joined together into one of the mightiest photoplays of African and Asiatic adventure man has ever known in "Jungle Cavalcade," which comes to the Rialto Theatre for Sunday and Monday. This scene is but one of a thousand thrills that are captured in the amazing thriller, according to advance reports.

Roxy Headliners

Gene Autry rides to the rescue of lovely Virginia Dale in "Singing Hills," which plays tonight and Saturday at the Roxy Theatre. Co-starring with the popular cowboy is Smiley "Frog" Burnette.

Plus on the same thrill bill, Cesar Romero in "Ride on Vaquero."

Grows Tobacco

Hadley, Mass.—(UP)—Mrs. Catherine Goering, who will be 90 next birthday, is pointing with pride to her 1941 tobacco crop. Although she is the town's oldest inhabitant, Mrs. Goering manages to cultivate an acre of tobacco each year, doing all the work from planting to harvesting.

The term "the smoke lamp is lit" aboard one of Uncle Sam's ships means the sailors are permitted to smoke. In old days, before matches were invented, an actual oil lamp was lighted to provide the crew with a flame from which to light pipes and cigarettes.

The rank of petty officer, a position any ambitious young sailor can achieve in the U. S. navy, is indicated by chevrons—V-shaped bits of braid sewed onto the sleeve midway between the shoulder and the elbow.
