THANKSGIVING 1941!

The following appeared in our Thanksgiving ad. in 1938. It seems so appropriate that we print it again:

If we Americans ever had cause to be thankful for the great privilege of living under the Stars and Stripes we should be doubly thankful this 1941. As we gather with our loved ones about the Thanksgiving Feast let us remember that just out beyond our range of vision is misery and want. That radio which in our own United States serves only to entertain and instruct, is in other lands used to build hatred. Vicious propaganda has poisoned the minds of people until unfortunate minorities have seen their homes destroyed, their property confiscated, their loved ones murdered or exiled, their families scattered penniless never to meet again.

Just out of hearing, crashing bombs showered by insane war lords on defenseless women and children are sowing death and destruction.

Beside all of this our little troubles seem as naught. Our homes are sacred; our lives are safe; the family as a unit is not endangered. Here if anywhere one can love his neighbor as himself.

A visiting foreigner recently said: America is truly God's chosen country. That is a dangerous belief. Rather should we remember that America is America because America has chosen God.

For your health's sake read this before you eat your Thanksgiving dinner:

Thanksgiving Reminder

Methuselah ate what he found on his plate
And never, as people do now,
Did he note the amount of the caloric count—
He ate because it was chow
He wasn't disturbed as at dinner he sat
Devouring a roast or a pig.
To think it was lacking in lime or in fat
Or a couple of vitamins shy.
He cheerfully chewed every species of food.
Untroubled by worries or fears
Lest his health might be hurt by some fancy dessert—
And he lived over nine hundred years!
—The Woman, Nov., 1941.

TURKEYS for THANKSGIVING

THERE is more than appears on the surface in a turkey. Looks alone are not enough. The old saying that "Beauty is Only Skin Deep" must have been written by a fellow who bought a turkey that wasn't fed right before it was sold.

With turkeys as with beef, pork and other meats, proper feeding is the only sure way to produce meats of flavor and texture necessary to pleasant eating. This year our selection of corn-fed turkeys will be hung on long racks in our coolers. You are invited to go in and pick the one you want.

This should serve a double purpose. You will get a fine turkey and you will have a chance to check us up on cleanliness—to prove for yourself that Groceteria meats are good meats—and most of all clean.

The price is plainly marked on every turkey, thus enabling you to pick the best turkey here for the price you want to pay.

Half a nice young Tom Turkey gives more meat for the money than a real small Hen.
