United States' stocks of cork are believed adequate to meet all defense requirements for the next two years, the department of commerce says.

U.S. Labor Troubles

Charged to Leaders

London, Nov. 14.—(P)—A prediction that the United States labor situation "may be leading up to a general strike simply due to inexperience of trade union leaders" was put forward today in the opening of parliamentary debate of British war policy.

That possibility was pointed out by Austin Hopkinson, independent, in support of his statement that despite the United States' contribution, Britain's enemy "has a greater production and uses that capacity very much better than we do."

Negro Candid In

Crime Admission

Philadelphia, Nov. 14.—(P)—Miss Caroline Crano, 20, was knocked unconscious by a robber early today and 15 minutes later two policemen captured a Negro suspect, simply by asking him what he was doing.

"Waitin' for my partner," the officers said the suspect answered.

"Where's he?" asked the law.

"Robbin' a house down the street," came the reply.
