Past Noble Grand Club Elects New Officers

Viola Aldredge was elected president of the Past Noble Grand club at the meeting held last week at the Girls Community clubhouse. Ethel Pease will serve as vice president and Ethel Weed as secretary-treasurer.

Plans were made for the annual Christmas party to be held December 11 at the I. O. O. F. hall at 6:30 p. m. Committee in charge of the dinner includes Marjorie Pearson, chairman; Nellie Gibson, Sara Redden, Dorothy Scripser, Mary Cave, Carrie McDannel and Irene Shirley. Entertainment committee will be Bess Thompson, Iva Waldron and Edna Hilderbrand. Entertainment for the afternoon included games and Chinkie Checks with Veva Wimer and Leah Ivie in charge of arrangement. Sister Olive gifts were exchanged and members were reminded to bring gifts for the Odd Fellows home in Portland. Later refreshments were served by Ella Parks, Marie Hansen and Helen Keesee.

St. Mark's Plans Dinner, Bazaar

On the calendar of events for St. Mark's Episcopal church is the annual bazaar, to be held Thursday, November 27, at the parish house, and a dinner to be given the evening of December 7.

Mrs. John Mann, chairman of the bazaar, states that the affair will have a "kitchen" theme this year. Articles useful in the kitchen will be on sale, a food sale will be held and waffles will be served during the day. A large committee of women from the service league of the church is assisting Mrs. Mann. The dinner is to be in charge of Mrs. Ralph Burgess and Mrs. H. L. Van Dermark. The affair will be open to the public, with dinner served from 5 until 8 p. m. A special guest will be the Right Rev. Benjamin D. Dagwell, Portland, bishop of the diocese of Oregon. The bishop will conduct an 8 o'clock service for the congregation of St. Mark's church.

Last week a social event of the church was a benefit card party sponsored by a committee of the Women's Service League. The party was held at the parish house and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Roland Smith, Mrs. Van Gilbert, Karl L. Janouch, H. B. Murphy and Frank Humphrey. Mr. H. B. Murphy was chairman of the committee.

Woodmen Hold Social Evening

Members of the Woodmen of the World enjoyed a turkey dinner, and a social hour, November 14, at the Knights of Pythias hall on North Grape street.

State supervisor Jerry Saylor was the guest speaker of the evening. Interesting talks were also given by District Manager Owen Walker, Frank DeSouza and other members of the organization.

GARDEN CLUB

Medford Garden club was entertained recently at the home of Mrs. Albert Burch on Ross lane. A large number of members and guests were present.

After the business session a program of garden problems was presented by the program chairman, Mrs. Leland Mentzer. Discussions concerning new plants and shrubs for the garden, fertilizers, cleaning up the flower beds for the winter and how to layer shrubs for new plants were led by members of the club, and were very interesting and instructive.

Mrs. L. G. Genter, president, is very enthusiastic over the plants and shrubs being prepared for the early spring plant sale.

An attractive exhibit of fall berries and foliage was arranged by various members.

Tea and cakes were served by the hostess from a table arranged with a fall centerpiece. Assisting the hostess in serving were Mrs. Dee Hendrickson, Mrs. T. W. Miles, Mrs. E. B. Pickel, Mrs. C. H. Paske, Mrs. C. C. Furnas and Mrs. H. A. Thierolf.

LIGHTWEIGHTS FOR THE LIGHT-HEARTED—For all their bulk, these big-eared bears shown in New York at a preview of Christmas toys are lightweight, so as not to tire young arms. Of course, if you've tried to explore all other exhibits, you'd yawn, too, as does Lucille Romano. This year's emphasis is on toys that aren't reminders of a war-torn world.

Jobs' Daughters Hold Initiation

Four candidates were initiated into Daughters of Job Wednesday evening at the regular bi-monthly session with Honored Queen Carol Tengwald presiding during the evening. Initiated were Miss Peggy Young, Miss JoAnne Adler, Miss Margaret Drysdale and Miss Jackie Wilson.
