

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Visiting Here—Mr. and Mrs. Dick Mann of Bremerton, Wash., arrived here Sunday for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Mann of 47 Rose avenue.

Minor Accident—Mrs. Mary Burke of Trail and H. C. Galey of Ashland drove cars involved in a slight mishap on Sixth street near Front street yesterday afternoon, a report on file said today.

To Park—Thomas C. Parker, assistant superintendent of Crater Lake national park, and George T. Hopper, resident engineer, left this morning to spend the day on official business in the park.

Visit Here—Mr. and Mrs. Dean Dally and children of Selah, Wash., left yesterday morning by motor for Shasta, Cal., after spending the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Murdock, 1126 West Tenth street. Mr. Dally is an uncle of Mrs. Murdock.

North For Holiday—Robert H. Mercer, construction superintendent of the Rogue River national forest, Mrs. Mercer and their children, Robert and Janet, will spend the Thanksgiving holiday with relatives in North Bend. The family planned to return to Medford Friday.

Son Born—Mrs. Emma Merriam of 515 North Bartlett street was today in receipt of news of the birth of a son to her grandson and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Merriam of Hallsburg, Cal. The baby, named Larry Lee, is Mr. and Mrs. Guy Merriam's third son and Mrs. Emma Merriam's third great-grandson.

To Leave—Mrs. Frank Ovelman of the Jacksonville highway plans to return to Wheeler tomorrow morning after spending the past three weeks at her home. Mrs. Ovelman is receiving medical treatment at Wheeler and expects to remain there for the coming two weeks. Mr. Ovelman will drive his wife north and will return after the Thanksgiving holiday.

New Cruiser—The O & C administration district office here today announced the appointment of John A. Carnegie as associate cruiser in the Medford district to replace Francis Jacquemin who was transferred to the Eugene district. Mr. and Mrs. Carnegie, who arrived here Saturday, have taken up residence at 525 South Central avenue. Mr. Carnegie, an Oregon State college man, began his new employment yesterday.

Council Meeting—City council will hold a regular semi-monthly meeting in chambers on the top floor of city hall at 7:30 tonight.

Here For Day—Harold L. Skeen, general agent for the Erie Railroad company, arrived here by train this morning from Portland for a day's business visit.

More Snow—The ground cover of snow at headquarters building in Crater Lake national park was up to 11 inches this morning, it was reported by short-wave radio. The surface was powder snow. Park roads were in good condition though icy in shady spots, the broadcaster said. Minimum temperature during the night was 13 degrees. The mercury stood at 20 degrees at the time of the broadcast, 8:45 a. m.

On Furlough—James W. Bean, son of Mrs. Arthur Boyer of Hill, Calif., is home on a 10-day furlough from the U. S. army. Bean is a member of the 93rd quartermaster corps at Lerdo field, Bakersfield, Calif. He enlisted in the army at Seattle, Wash., last January 15 and since that time has been promoted to a 4th class specialist in the post garage at Lerdo field. It was stated by Sgt. Joseph W. Cushman, recruiter here on whom Bean paid a call.

To Open Campaign—Evangelist Leland H. Knight of Bonneville, Ark., today announced that the series of revival meetings scheduled for the Church of Christ on North Court street will be started at 7:30 tomorrow night. Meetings will be held each evening at the same hour and will continue through November 30. Mr. Knight was to have opened the series Sunday night but was detained in Eugene because of the Willamette valley flood and did not arrive here until yesterday.

Firemen Called—The fire department's chemical crew was called at 6:45 last night to the residence of R. W. Bjorkquist, 145 South Oakdale avenue, when an oil burner became overheated. The firemen took care of the burner. Five minutes later another crew was sent to the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Prentice, 517 Newtown street, when a chimney fire developed. The firemen stood by while the soot in the chimney burned itself out. Still fearful that the house might catch fire, Mrs. Prentice called the firemen again at 11:41 p. m. but she was assured, after another inspection was made, that everything was all right, the firemen reported. There was no damage at either place.

RECORD LOG DRIVE
Myrtle Point, Ore., Nov. 18.—(P)—Boon men expected to wind up the biggest log drive in Coos county history today. More than 60,000,000 board feet of logs, valued at $600,000, were floated down the roaring Coquille river to the Smith Wood Products company at Coquille.

American farmers employ more than a million and a half tractors, according to the department of commerce.

Jackson Co. Council of Wonderland Will Decide Continuance

Jackson county council of the Shasta Cascade Wonderland association will meet with the county court at 2 p. m. tomorrow to discuss with Forrest Cooper of Lakeview this county's participation in the association. Mr. Cooper is the association's field director.

A short time ago the board of directors of the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce adopted a resolution suggesting to the county court that the county's contribution of $500 annually to the wonderland association be omitted this year and resumption of the contribution be considered again at the end of a year. While no authorized statement was made as to the reason for this suggestion, it was reported that the chamber of commerce had some plan in mind for expenditure of the fund within Jackson county.

SAINT MARK'S PLANNING THANKSGIVING SERVICE

Thanksgiving Day will be celebrated by Saint Mark's church at a special service on Thursday at 10:30 o'clock in the church. The altar and sanctuary have been decorated with the fruits of the soil. Junior and senior vested choirs will lead the music of the service. Special hymns and anthems have been prepared.

The service is for both children and adults. Very young children may be left in the nursery in the parish house. A short thanksgiving message will be given by the rector of the church, the Rev. Herald G. Gardner.
