

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Officer Ill—City Traffic Officer Clyde Fichtner was confined to his home, 101 Clark street, today with a severe cold.

Home for Holiday—Howard Jones of Eugene is spending the Thanksgiving holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jones, 415 Newtown street.

From Canada—Mr. and Mrs. Grover Young and daughter of Barkerville, B. C., arrived yesterday by auto for a brief visit with Mrs. Young's brother, Walter Allen, 1025 West 11th street.

Time Changed—Intermediate department of the Methodist Sunday school will meet at Wesley chapel for its skating party at 3 p. m. tomorrow instead of 3:30 as originally announced.

Minor Accident—Dave Todd of Route 2 and J. E. Redman of 429 Western avenue drove cars involved in a slight mishap at Sixth and Main streets yesterday afternoon, a report on file said today.

To Portland—A. S. Rosenbaum, district freight and passenger agent for the Southern Pacific company in Medford, left last night by train for Portland where he planned to spend Thanksgiving with friends.

Visits Parents—Robert Fowler, with the AAA oil conservation service at Corvallis arrived home by motorcar last evening to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Fowler, Kings highway.

Visit Parents—Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Meyling and son Tommy of Stockton, Cal., are visiting at the home of Mrs. Meyling's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Foster, 115 Clark street. The Meylings plan to return south Sunday by motorcar.

Oyster Dinner—Regular and volunteer firemen enjoyed a fried oyster dinner at fire department headquarters last night. The dinner was prepared by Chief Roy Elliott and Claude Stevens. The oysters were presented to the fire department as a gift from Holly's Sea Food Market.

Flies South—Max C. Henne, Medford manager of United Air Lines, was to leave by United Mainliner this afternoon for Oakland, Cal., where he was to spend a couple of days at his home. He will also spend a week at the company's office in San Francisco before returning to Medford.

Roof Fire—Fire this morning burned part of the roof of the residence of William B. Cook, 338 Chestnut avenue. The blaze started around a stove pipe where it entered the chimney and Chief Roy Elliott reported that the pipe was too short and did not extend far enough into the chimney to be safe. Firemen answered a ward alarm at 7:57 a. m.

Confer—George I. Noyes, San Francisco, regional appraiser of the Home Owners Loan corporation, and Frank Elvers, Portland, Oregon state appraiser, conferred yesterday with Carl Y. Tengwald, 125 West Main street, on final reports on the appraisal of land required for the proposed Beagle-Antelope army cantonment. Mr. Elvers was in charge of the HOLC cantonment land appraisal office here toward the end of the work, replacing Herman Kalvog who organized the work here. Mr. Tengwald was on the appraisal staff. Mr. Noyes and Mr. Elvers were en route by car from San Francisco to Portland. Mr. Noyes was accompanied by his wife.

Plane Passengers—Early morning United Mainliner was delayed today at Oakland, Cal., because of unfavorable weather conditions at Portland. Leaving for Sacramento by Mainliner last night were T. Brown and Dr. N. Hale. Last night's northbound plane, held at Medford because of fog at Portland and Seattle, left at 9 a. m. today. Arriving on the plane were M. Jones, from Oakland, and H. Hart, from San Francisco. Leaving were W. Whidden and Mr. and Mrs. R. Byrd, to Portland, and G. Truesdell, to Seattle. D. Richardson arrived from Portland early last night. Miss B. Sheldon arrived last evening from Portland. Leaving for San Francisco were L. Beckley and Miss E. Joyce. Departing for Portland yesterday afternoon were Mrs. F. Neill, Miss F. Neill and L. Pierson.

ART, CRAFT WORK NOW ON DISPLAY

Many types of art and craft work are on display at the art exhibit at 32 South Central avenue in observance of national art week. The displays will be open to the public Friday and Saturday, the exhibit being closed over Thanksgiving day. Among artists exhibiting are Mrs. Elizabeth Vrieland, who has won many state prizes with her oils; John Reischer, Eugene Bennett, Philip Henselman, Alice Egan, Barbara Biew, Florence Jordan and others. Also on display are sculpture and handcraft of all kind, hand-made picture cards and black opals and agates exhibited by Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Dixon of Gold Hill.
