Firemen's Ball Well Attended Last Evening

A record crowd attended the Firemen's ball at Oriental Gardens last evening. Proceeds from the annual dance sponsored by the Medford fire department will be used to repair toys for children at Christmas time.

Steve Whipple's orchestra furnished music and members of the band were clad in red shirts and firemen's hats. The stage was decorated with a large airplane and a "Keep 'em Flying" sign. Also on display was an exhibition of "false alarms" showing a miniature overturned fire truck and injured firemen.
Spectators were instructed in the proper number to call in case of fire.

Musical Society Enjoys Evening

Members of the Medford Musical society enjoyed a social evening at the home of Mrs.
V. J. Robinson Monday following the business meeting. Discussion was held on supporting the high school groups in participating in the music festivals in the spring.

Later Mrs. Sam Mushen of Klamath Falls played several piano selections. Mrs. J. F. Wallace sang two numbers and the Women's Chorus also presented three numbers.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Margaret Fabrick, Mrs. Ernest Gil-strap and Mrs. Richard Payne.

Ray Johnson Appointed Member Of Class Council

University of Southern California, Los Angeles, Nov. 21.— (Spl.)—Ray L. Johnson, graduate of Medford high school, was recently appointed a member of the freshman class council of University of Southern California for the 1941-42 school year.

A resident of Talent, Johnson is enrolled in the college of engineering at Southern California and is a member of Beta Kappa fraternity.

Members of the frosh council, representatives from each of the fraternities and sororities on the Trojan campus and four non-organized students, are in general charge of all freshman activities among which are the freshman-sophomore brawl and selection of the freshman queen. He is the grandson of Mrs. Nellie Smith.

Church Guild Plans Activities

Members of the executive board of the Crater Lake Guild of the First Presbyterian church met with Mrs. Maynard Putney, 60 Ross court this week and outlined plans for December activities of the guild.

Discussion was held on the church bazaar and the guild planned to sponsor a bread and pie booth. A Christmas party will be held at the Putney home the first meeting in December.
Later refreshments were served by the hostess with Mrs. E. Iverson presiding at the coffee table.
A patriotic motif decorated the table.

Spends Week-end With Parents

Marion Jarmin of Berkeley, Cal., arrived here Thursday morning to spend Thanksgiving

ALL AUTO DEALERS TO ENTER DISPLAY

All automobile dealers will take part in the celebration opening the Christmas shopping season next Wednesday evening.
It was announced today by the arrangements committee of the Medford Merchants association.

Central avenue between Sixth and Eighth streets will be roped off for the display of new, sleek, dazzling 1942 models which will form a row in the center of the street, the committee said. Some surprise angles are being worked out in connection with the motorcar display, it was stated. Special lights will be installed to illuminare the trim cars.

Plans are being made for the comfort and convenience of the thousands who are expected to be downtown to see the automobile display, the living models enacting home scenes in store windows, the special lighting and the other features of the celebration, to say nothing of hearing the special instrumental music and car singing, the committee stated.

DEMOLAYS GIVE LARGEST DANCE

A "school day dance," one of the largest social affairs to be sponsored by the DeMolays this year, will be given in Masonic hall tonight, starting at 8:45 o'clock. Whipple's orchestra will furnish music and a big "rhumba" and "broom dance" will be features of the entertainment.

The public is invited and the affair will be informal. A nominal admission charge will be made but refreshments will be served free.

LOWE WAIVES HEARING ON SMASHUP FATALITY

Marion E. Lowe of Horn-brook, Calif., charged with negligent homicide following an auto accident on the Pacific highway 10 days ago which resulted in fatal injuries to John R. Keach of Missoula, Mont., waived preliminary hearing in justice court Wednesday. He was ordered held to await grand jury action. Lowe is at liberty on $1,000 cash bond. Attorney Frank J. Van Dyke of Ashland represents him.
