

SHRINE POTENTATE TAKEN TO CRATER AFTER CEREMONY

Thomas C. Law of Atlanta, Ga., imperial potentate of the Ancient Accepted Order, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, left by train Wednesday night after paying an official visit to Hillah Temple and being guest of honor at a number of functions in southern Oregon.

A highlight of his visit was a trip Wednesday to Crater Lake national park where a park service representative took him and his host party of California and Oregon Shriners on a tour of the park, dazzling under its light blanket of snow.

Later, Mr. Law was honor guest at a cocktail and dinner party in Hotel Medford. Shriners were present from the San Francisco bay and Sacramento districts of California as well as distant parts of Oregon. Guests from Portland included William J. Hoffman, past potentate of Al Kader Temple and a trustee of the Shrine Hospital for Crippled Children, and Luther A. Duckworth, recorder of Al Kader Temple.

In honor of Mr. Law's official visitation, a fall ceremonial was staged Tuesday evening by Hillah Temple in its home city of Ashland. The ceremonial was held in the Ashland armory and other phases of the reception were held in the banquet hall of the Elks temple. Various side events in honor of the visiting imperial potentate were held throughout the day and evening.

To Check Constipation Get at Its Cause!

If you eat the super-refined food most people eat, the chances are the difficulty is simple—you don't get enough "bulk." And "bulk" doesn't mean heavy food. It's a kind of food that isn't consumed in the body, but leaves a soft "bulky" mass in the intestines. If this common form of constipation is your trouble, eat Kellogg's All-Bran regularly, and drink plenty of water. All-Bran isn't a medicine—it's a crunchy, toasted cereal. And it will help you not only to get regular but to keep regular. Made by Kellogg's in Battle Creek. If your condition is chronic, it is wise to consult a physician.
