

LOCAL and PERSONAL

To Lake—Thomas C. Parker, assistant superintendent of Crater Lake national park, and Lester H. Anderson, resident landscaper architect, left this morning to spend the day in the park.

Minor Accident—J. W. Shirley of 211 Vancouver avenue and Bert L. Seidel of 4 Cargill Court drove cars involved in a slight mishap at Ninth and Ivy streets yesterday morning, a report on file said today.

To Red Bluff—Bob Green, 402 1/2 Newtown street, plans to leave by United Mainliner late tonight for Red Bluff, Cal., where he will act as relief man for United Air Lines at the Red Bluff airport for the next 10 days. Mr. Green is a station attendant at Medford United Air Lines office.

Returns Home—Walter J. Reinke, city policeman, returned to his home at 28 Washington street yesterday morning from Portland where he recently underwent an operation at St. Vincent's hospital. He is getting along well and is expected to return to duty in the near future.

Visits—Alfred Anderson arrived last night for a brief visit with his former associates of the California Oregon Power company by which he was employed here for three years. Mr. Anderson is now undergoing training in aviation sheet metal work at the U. S. naval air station at Sand Point Seattle. He will return to Seattle tomorrow.

Visiting Here—Mrs. Russell Uhrine and Miss Pauline Vroman, former local residents now residing in Vancouver, Wash., arrived here Wednesday night to remain until Sunday visiting relatives. Mrs. Uhrine is staying with her parents, City Policeman and Mrs. Ray F. Sloneker of 712 West Jackson boulevard. Miss Vroman is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Vroman of 122 Tripp street, and her sister Joan of the same address.

In Jail—Jack Egger, 22, and George Richardson, 19, both from Coalwood, West Va., were being held in the county jail here today on a charge of transporting a stolen car over a state border. They were brought here by Paul Hanlin, U. S. deputy marshal, after they had waived a preliminary hearing before U. S. Commissioner Bert C. Thomas in Klamath Falls. They were held for the grand jury under $2,000 bail each. They are accused specifically of transporting a stolen car from Coalwood to Klamath Falls.

Aviation Cadets—The following youths were to report today to the U. S. naval reserve aviation base at Seattle to begin flight training for the navy: Donald R. Gillespie, 1315 East Main street, Donald C. Stanley, Route 4, Box 2, Rolland N. Rinabarger, 841 East Ninth street, and Chester L. Robertson, Eagle Point. They will spend about two months at the Seattle reserve base and then go to Corpus Christi, Texas, for four or five months of advanced training. If they complete the course successfully, they will be commissioned as ensigns in the navy. All four youths made excellent records in civilian pilot training courses at the Southern Oregon College of Education and at Medford municipal airport under Thomas A. Culbertson, Jr., flight instructor.

Vets To Meet—Jackson county chapter 8, Disabled American Veterans, and its auxiliary will meet at 8 p. m. Tuesday in the armory and Commander Frank J. Holbrook requests all members to be present on time. The meeting will be in the form of a birthday party for auxiliary members.

Weather Clear—Beautiful, clear weather prevailed today at Crater Lake national park, it was reported by short-wave radio. The snow remained about a foot deep at headquarters building. Lowest temperature in the night was 20 degrees while at broadcast time, 8:45 a. m., the thermometer read 25 degrees, the broadcast said.

Return Home—The Rev. and Mrs. Herald G. Gardner, accompanied by their daughter Joan, returned to their home, 48 Quince street, Wednesday after a motor trip to Eugene where they visited their other daughter, Peggy, a freshman at the University of Oregon. They were accompanied home by Peggy, Miss Patricia Farrell and Miss Barbara Jean Schuler, all students at the university. En route north Father Gardner was guest speaker at an Episcopal dinner in Roseburg Monday evening. He is pastor of St. Mark's here.

Enlist In Army—Three southern Oregon men were formally enlisted in the regular army air corps in Portland November 18. Sgt. Joseph W. Cushman, commander of the recruiting station here was officially notified today. They were Monroe M. McGonagle, son of Mr. and Mrs. William McGonagle of Route 2, John A. Bergstrom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Bergstrom of Ashland and Harlan G. Cooke of Glendale. The three will be sent to the air corps recruit training station at Biloxi Miss., for their first 12 weeks of training after which they will be able to specialize in one of the many technical trades offered by the army air corps. Sgt. Cushman said. McGonagle attended Medford high school from 1936 to 1938. Bergstrom graduated from Ashland high school last spring, plans to become one of the new enlisted pilots the air corps is now training.

Plane Passengers—R. Byrd arrived from Portland by United Mainliner this forenoon. Leaving were H. G. Bandy and Mrs. W. F. Phares and daughter, to Los Angeles, and William Frager and June Davis to Reno. Nev. H. B. Fogerson arrived from Portland last midnight. The northbound plane last night was held at the Medford airport because of fog at Portland. It left at 9:12 a. m. today. Arriving yesterday afternoon were F. Morton, from San Francisco, and Mrs. S. Bjorkquist, from Oakland, Cal. F. Helfing left for Chicago. Arriving yesterday noon were W. Froelich, from Los Angeles, and Mrs. A. Clemens and infant from Merida, Yucatan, via Los Angeles. James Morris arrived from Seattle on the forenoon plane. Leaving were Mrs. Nellie Bernhardt, to Los Angeles, Miss Clara Junior, to San Francisco, and C. A. Kearney and Max C. Henne, to Oakland.

Fred Astaire in Sunday Show

Nimble-footed Fred Astaire, admittedly the world's greatest dancer, goes to the army for the background of his new dancing-comedy hit, "You'll Never Get Rich," which comes to the Craterian theatre Sunday for a three day showing. The film musical also serves to introduce Astaire's new dancing partner—lovely Rita Hayworth—whose work in the picture has resulted in her being hailed as Fred's best partner, even by those who were completely won by Ginger Rogers.

"South of Tahiti" Coming Sunday

All the excitement, the thrills, the action of a lost group of adventurers in an uncharted sea comes to the screen in "South of Tahiti," which plays at the Rialto theatre Sunday and Monday. Starring Brian Donlevy, Brod Crawford, Andy Devine and Maria Montez, the South Seas adventure takes a boat load of fugitives to an island commanded by a white woman who lashes men and beats beasts to a fury never before caught by the motion picture camera. Most of the outdoor scenes were actually filmed in the South Seas and south of Tahiti.

At Park—Dr. George C. Ruhle, naturalist of Crater Lake national park who has winter offices here, spent yesterday at the lake.
