

Medford Stores Offer Wide Choice Smart, Wearable Accessory Gifts

Christmas gifts of accessories compliment both the giver and the recipient, because the smart woman cannot have too many accessories; and the smart Christmas shopper makes the most of that knowledge.

Handy Handkerchiefs

Grandma used to say "you can judge a lady by her handkerchief"—and grandma was right, except that she should have used the plural. You can judge a lady by her handkerchiefs—dozens of them. There's no limit to the variety, and originality, of handkerchiefs to choose for gift-giving. Snowy white ones, with a touch of hand work, never go amiss—and the sheerer the better. Gay prints reflect the spirit of the season, and get applause from young and old. Nursery rhymes, embroidered animals, and similar whimsy are favorites with the small fry, and they even come in book form to make it more exciting. Generous size squares, in white or white-with-color, go over big with men who like their jacket pockets dressed up a bit—so there you have it.

Umbrellas To Mend!

Umbrellas to mend!—to mend frayed nerves and Christmas-shopping worries! Give an umbrella in silk or cotton, colors or patterns, and pick a handle to smarten up the whole idea. There are malacca crooks or silver-mounted gnarled woods for men's umbrellas with a well-bred

Every woman wants jewelry for Christmas—so why not give her a piece or all of this matching set of Athenian art jewelry from Rice-Weiner. In ruby, emerald, sapphire or amethyst with gold or silver finish.

look—crystal, hooks or metal mountings for ladies' umbrellas that will brighten the darkest day—and even leather or fur covered handles, for luxury—and much praise.

Warm Well-Wishers

Scarves are warm well-wishers, and wonderful gift items for Christmas and the winter weather. Wools, whether crocheted or knit, have added prestige when they bear a "hand knit" label—and they're surprisingly low priced for hand work. These, of course, come in every imaginable color—for youngsters or for oldsters, and they're fun as well as forthright. Silk scarves, for day or evening, are gracious gifts for men, in either squares or made-up scarf lengths—and initials add an appreciated personal touch. Silk scarves for women offer a wide field for self-expression, and are colorful, versatile gifts that can be worn as scarves, neckerchiefs or head-dresses all year round.

COINCIDENCE

Norton, Kas. (AP)—Private Earl Riddle is stationed with the 127th field artillery at Camp Robinson, Ark. His twin brother Everett, is a first class seaman in the U. S. navy. Neither knew a thing about the other's plans for a vacation until they both arrived on the doorstep of their parent's home here, almost at the same moment, on furlough.

Waukegan, Ill. (AP)—Even the oysters cooperated at Mrs. E. A. Gross' birthday party. She bit into an oyster and found a pearl, well formed and slightly less than a quarter inch in diameter.

SWEATER STYLES FOR ANY OCCASION

If you're up the proverbial tree about what to give your mother, your sister, your cousin or your aunt for Christmas—say it with sweaters! And no matter what their taste, you'll find exactly the sweater they want most at your local stores. Newest for the sports-minded girl is the Argyle plaid sweater with V-neckline (she'll wear it smartly with her dikkies), or this same style in solid color. Peasant embroidered sweaters in pullover and cardigan styles are prime favorites for daytime as well as winter sports wear. Wonderfully bright, they have gay peasant-type embroidered accents, pom-poms silver colored metal buttons. Classic twin sweaters in new longer lengths are sure to please gifts. Fashion news is noted in ribbed shoulder yokes, deep ribbed cuffs and grosgrain bound cardigans. We noted a marvelous coat sweater—the kind we know would make a perfect gift for mother. In the new longer length, it's lightweight yet warm, has flattering V-neckline and button front closing. For the college and teen age girl as well as the career girl, we suggest one of the new brushed wool sweaters. Heavenly in white and the new soft pastels, pretty for dancing. Sweaters make fashion news for evening this year, so why not a sparkling sweater for the afmour girls on your list? Newest, most sophisticated of all is the zip-closed long torso sweater with all-over sequin or nailhead trim.

New York (AP)—The veteran actor, David Warfield, is the perfect tenant—he hasn't moved from the apartment he rented 35 years ago, and has no intention of doing so in the future. He likes it where he is and is sure he couldn't find a better view of Central park. It has a sentimental value, too, because in that apartment he memorized the lines of the "Auctioneer," "The Music Master" and "The Grand Army Man."
