

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Snowing—Snow was falling lightly in Crater Lake national park at the time of the daily short-wave radio broadcast of weather conditions at 8:45 this morning. Park roads were slippery, the broadcaster said.

Visits Here—Donna Stevens of Portland spent last week-end visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stevens, 1009 East Ninth street. Miss Stevens is a student at St. Vincent's School of Nursing in Portland.

Trains Employees—Miss Dorothy Eads, credit manager of the local Montgomery Ward store, left this morning for Grants Pass where she will spend the next four days training credit employees of the Grants Pass store.

Files Home—Mrs. Charlotte Beeson left here by United Mainliner last Sunday for her home in Glendale, Cal., after spending the Thanksgiving holidays with her mother and her grandmother, Mrs. S. E. Trent and Mrs. Irene Wells, both of whom reside at 539 Pennsylvania avenue.

To Attend Game—Mr. and Mrs. Dolph Phipps, Eagle Point star route, plane to leave by motorcar tomorrow morning for Eugene to attend the Oregon-Oregon State football game. From Eugene they will continue to Portland whence they will return to Medford by the coast route. They will spend several days at Chetco.

Visits Parents—Marvin Burk is spending several days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Burk, 53 Rose avenue. He has been stationed at Lowry field, Denver, Colo., with the U. S. air corps. He will leave next week by way of Denver for New York City whence he will sail the early part of December for the Panama Canal Zone. He has just completed schooling as armament officer, the position he will hold in Panama.

Mother Ill—Mrs. H. J. Fiescher of Central Point left by United Mainliner this noon for Seattle whither she was called by the illness of her mother, Mrs. E. A. Orr.

Transacts Business—Sid George of Eugene, representative of the industrial accident commission, was a business visitor in Medford yesterday.

Aid Toy Project—The Howard school P. T. A. is sponsoring a drive for old toys for the fire department to make over for underprivileged children. A box has been placed in the school for collection of the toys.

Home From South—Mrs. C. T. Steward arrived here by train this morning from San Francisco where she has been spending the past week buying spring merchandise and immediate winter merchandise. Mrs. Steward is owner of Adrienne's.

Same License—For the third consecutive year William J. (Dad) Roberts of 720 West Second street has an auto license plate bearing his house number. His application for the number was granted and today Mr. Roberts proudly displayed his new 1942 plates, No. 720.

$7,000 Residence—Eugene Thorndike applied at the city building inspector's office yesterday for a permit to construct an eight-room, bungalow-type residence at 55 Berkeley way at a stated cost of $7,000. G. B. Hughes of 513 North Central avenue applied for a permit to remodel his residence at a stated cost of $100.

Arrives From South—Mrs. L. R. Burke arrived by train from Sacramento, Cal., this morning to spend several weeks with her husband. During her stay in Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Burke are residing at the Hotel Holland. Mr. Burke is route agent for the Railway Express Agency from Sacramento and is in Medford on business.

Doctor Speaks—Dr. A. E. Merkel, Jackson county public health officer, spoke this afternoon at the Medford high school assembly in the educational program launched by the annual Christmas seal sale. Under auspices of Miss Olive Curry, Medford school nurse, the assembly was arranged. Dr. Merkel showed the film, "Another to Conquer," which reveals the spread of tuberculosis among Indians and its cure as accomplished through education, one of the first purposes of the seal sale.

Improved—Fletcher Fish, prominent Phoenix resident, was reported today as improving steadily in Community hospital where he is receiving treatment for injuries he suffered when he was struck by a car as he attempted to cross the road in front of his home Thanksgiving day. Yesterday 150 stitches were removed from his left thigh which had been badly lacerated. Mr. Fish also suffered other lacerations and abrasions and a sprained right ankle and wrist. Hospital attendants said that complete rest and relaxation are desirable for Mr. Fish.

Plane Passengers—The 9:23 northbound United Mainliner was grounded in Medford last night because of fog in Portland and Seattle. The plane continued north this morning at 9:14. Arriving last night were H. B. Heberling, from Los Angeles, T. Scadden, from San Francisco, and Miss A. Jacobson, from Oakland, Cal. The midnight southbound plane arrived about 8 o'clock, starting out early because of weather conditions in the north. Leaving for San Francisco was H. Levitan. Arriving from Portland early last evening were Mrs. A. Moore and Mrs. C. Allingham. C. D. Dicks departed for San Francisco on the late evening plane. Leaving for Portland yesterday noon were E. J. "Sergeant York", Starring Gary Cooper, Coming Sunday

Two great moments in the life of America's famous World War hero, Sergeant York, are shown in the picture of that name coming to the Rialto theatre

"Lady Be Good" Boasts Stars

Gathered around the piano are five of the outstanding reasons why "Lady Be Good," coming to the Craterian theatre Sunday, is filled with fast-paced

P. A. Kearney. The forenoon southbound plane was delayed in the north because of weather. Arriving on it from Walla Walla, Wash., was C. L. Strange.
